Sprained Wrist and Ankle.

After Being Laid up With Great Pain for Ten days Relief Came Quickly by Applying Nerviline.

One of the most soul-distressing accidents that can befall one is a bad ankle or wrist sprain. 'If I had only known of Nerviline earlier, I could have saved myself an enormous amount of pain, and many agonizing nights of sleeplessness.' Thus writes P. P. Quinn, a farmer living near Brockville. 'I tumbled from a hay pains. It was not convenient to go to the city and the liniment in the house was useless. When I got Nerviline relief came quickly. It took down the swelling, relieved the pain, and gave me wonderful comfort.

'I can recommend Nerviline for strains, bruises, swellings, muscular pains and sore back. I have proved it a sure cure in such cases.'

Think what it might some day mean to you to have right in your home, ready for an accident or emergent sickness, a bottle of Nerviline. Get it today in two sizes 50c. and 25c. at all dealers or The Cataract Co., Kingston, Ont.

The Real Car.

I'd like to be the umpire
There in the center standing
Before the audience and men
To hold the place commanding.
Deciding things offhanded,
The frantic crowd defying,
And paying no attention
To words and missiles flying.

The noisier the people
The calmer and the cooler
I'd hold to my decisions.
As well be comes a ruler.
Though they should rise in fury
And yell, demanding slaughter,
They couldn't make me tremble
Or lift an inch back water.

The player who got noisy
And come to make a holler,
I'd shut him off by raving.
'You're fined another dollar.'
And even should the captain
Get on his ear and fling
I'd show him in a minute
Just who was high and mighty.

Oh, if my wife could see me
Commanding like a Nero
Perhaps for weeks thereafter
I'd be her little hero!
On her or my relations,
For that I am too fovy
I know my limitations.

SARDINES.

Although the Maine packers of sardines were encouraged last week to believe that the fish were at last going to show up in goodly numbers, thus far the run is slightly improved. However, there are said to be plenty outside; and Eastport hopes that will soon enter the bay. Certainly the fish are badly needed, as many plants have been practically idle since the opening of the season on April 15. Stocks are very low and prices firm.

The demand for Norwegian smoked sardines is good. Shipments of the new pack are now leaving the other side. The quality this year is said to be very fine.

French sardines are in practically good request.—Eastport Citizen.

The quickest relief comes perhaps from a prescription known to druggists everywhere as Dr. Shoop's Cough Remedy. The tender leaves of a simple mountain shrub, give to Dr. Shoop's Cough Remedy its remarkable curative effect. It is truly a most certain and trustworthy prescription. Sold by all dealers.

A TRULY NATIONAL FAIR.

At the Dominion Exhibition in St. John, N. B., visitors will be treated to array of exhibits surpassing the long odds the industrial display seen at Maritime Provincial fairs for a quarter of a century back and closely approaching the great Toronto Exhibition itself. Already scores of applications have been received from manufacturing concerns in Toronto, Montreal, Ottawa, Hamilton and other points west, as well as from notable American establishments. It will be somewhat familiar and exceedingly interesting to come in close contact with the exhibits, personal representatives and demonstrators of goods which most eastern folks see advertised extensively in magazines and the national press.

Aside from this, the national character of the exposition will bring with it a large number of displays usually seen at the official fairs or the Dominion Government, which distinction St. John will enjoy this year. Spurred to special effort because of these conditions, St. John, New Brunswick, and Maritime Provincial manufacturers and others are planning upon making extensive displays, and the St. John Board of Trade is putting forth a great deal of effort towards the same end. During the last few weeks prior to the Dominion Exhibition, a great number of smaller exhibitors, entertainment promoters, exhibition 'camp followers,' etc. will arrive on the scene.

Little Willie was playing one day with the girl next door when the latter exclaimed:—

'Don't you hear your mother calling you? That's three times she's done. Aren't you going in?'
'Not yet,' responded Willie.
'What she whip you?'
'Naw,' exclaimed Willie; 'disgrace. She ain't going to whip nobody. She's got company. So when I go in she'll just say, "The poor little man has been so deaf since he's had the measles."'

The Toronto Telegram says that 1,695 automobiles are licensed in that city, and it estimates their average value at $2,000. That seems high. Accepting that, however, the total value would be $3,390,000. The cost of the upkeep, running, etc. of these machines is placed at $2,102,605, of which $480,480 is the wages of chauffeurs. Here is another item that contributes to the high cost of living so much complained of in these days.

Roundabout

The very budding barrister assumed the approved legal look of indisputable superiority.

'Now,' my good lady,' he observed shaking an admonitory forefinger at the woman in the witness box. 'You do not appreciate the gravity of the question. Endeavor to concentrate what brain power nature has endowed you with and answer me. What relationship does the defendant bear to you?'

'Right, ho!' responded the good lady. 'Is father's cousin was my cousin once removed, and is mother, marryin' me uncle's only brother'—

'My good lady,' interrupted the bud despairingly, 'I am not here to solve puzzles!'

'Well, I'm blowed!' ejaculated the lady. 'You are talkin' just nah as though 'you'd concerned most o' the brain pahr goin'. If you 'adn't swanked quite so much I'd 'a' told yer plainly an' simply! 'Ese me brother.'—London answers.

Real Reform

Parents who want to do America a real service with profit to themselves and their children will personally investigate conditions before sending their boys and girls to college. A growing evil of the times is the luxury of certain educational institutions. It is ruin to the young people who over-spend; it is gall and wormwood to students who cannot keep the pace, and it is pernicious extravagance that saps the spirit of higher education and turns out graduates with absolutely no equipments and ideas for the real work of the world.

Such colleges and universities cost fortunes in money. But the incalculable price is paid in the waste of young manhood and young womanhood.

Parents can correct the evil by keeping their sons and daughters from such places. Spending too much money on a boy or girl is a crime.

SIFTINGS

The only way to hide a thing is to forget it.

When sweet wine ferment they often make a bad mess of it.

People who live in glass houses should provide the house with automatic shades.

The high polish of some person serves to make manifest their extremely coarse grain.

The man who roasts you seldom does it by keeping Scriptural coals of fire upon your head.

The trouble with the ultimate consumer is that he is so often found unable to consume.

As a general thing the average man has far greater capabilities for getting into trouble than we have for getting out.

The trouble seems to be that we have too many preachers and too few practitioners to make things in this old world run as they ought.

It isn't hard to lead any man provided you lead him in the direction that his inclinations point, no matter what has been his opposing training.

A Bad Mix-up.

'Say,' remarked one Government clerk to another, 'I'm 'up against it good and proper.'

'What's the trouble?' queried G. C. No. 2.

'I got two medical certificates from two different doctors yesterday,' explained the party of the first part. 'One was a certificate for a life assurance company, and the other was a certificate of illness to be sent to my chief with a petition for two weeks leave of absence.'

'Oh! that's nothing,' rejoined his fellow-clerk. 'I've done that myself.'

'Yes,' continued the other, 'but I mixed the certificates in mailing. The ill-health certificate went to the assurance company, and the certificate of good health went to my chief. See?'

A New Breakfast Food.

High and low he searched for the bag of confetti he had brought home on the previous evening for his son and heir, but his efforts were not rewarded with success. Where on earth did he put it? With every minute he became more irate, till he finally rang for Bridget. 'Bridget,' he exclaimed testily, 'did you see that bag of confetti I brought home last night for Freddie?'

'Sure, an' Oi did, sorr,' brougged out Bridget. 'But Oi didn't know it was only for Mhaister Fegh. There's but half av it left now,--'

'Only half of it left?' he cried.

'What on earth have you done with the rest?'

'Cooked it, av, course,' retorted Bridget; 'an' it's for yer own breakfast, with cream,--ye had it this mornin'!'

FATHER MORRISCY'S WAY

OF Curing Catarrh is Simple and Effective.

In treating catarrh, some doctors recommend internal remedies, while others pin their faith to external applications. Internal medicines do not produce immediate relief, while external ones do not reach the seat of the trouble.

Father Morrissey's method was to supplement one treatment with the other. His famous prescription, 'No. 26', consists of tablets and salve, each skillfully compounded of Nature's own remedial agents. The learned priest did not believe in using dangerous and powerful drugs, when simpler and better remedies were available.

The tablets, to be taken three times a day, invigorate the system, purify the blood, and restore the health and vitality. The antiseptic salve, applied inside the nostrils, soothes and heals the passages and destroys the germs therein.

Attacking the disease from within and without, and working together, the two treatments known as No. 26 quickly cure catarrh and prevent future trouble. Try this tried and true combined remedy this day and your doctor's or from nearby, etc. at your dealer's or from 1221 St. Morrey Medicine Co., Ltd., Chicago, N.B. 88
