

SUMMARY NEWS.

It is stated that the farmers of Minnie, Cumberland Co., have decided to start a creamery this spring. Minnie possesses favorable conditions for the purpose.

Four men while repairing a flume at Kempsville, Ont., were thrown into the swiftly running water and carried down. Three of them were rescued, but Ed. Jones was drowned.

Sir Oliver Mowat has introduced a bill in the Ontario Legislature to enable solicitors after ten years' practice as such, to rank as barristers on payment of a general fee, without any examination.

John Ditmars, an eighty-six year old resident of Deep Brook, Annapolis County, issues a challenge to any man of his age, living in Digby or Annapolis Counties, to row a half mile race on the 1st day of July next.

Legal proceedings have been taken by Mr. C. W. Weyman against the municipality of Kings County for an alleged wrong in dismissing him from the office of Scott Act inspector for Kings County, N. B.

Gershon S. Mayes, of Carleton, and J. A. Wetmore, of Moncton, took part in the presentation of "Elijah" by the Halifax Orpheus Club, Wednesday night. Both sang well, and created a good impression.

The examination of Pascal Hebert, charged with arson in connection with the burning of the Dominion hotel at Memramook last fall, was finished Thursday. No evidence of importance was elicited and the magistrate dismissed the charge.

Mr. Zenos Saunders, of Springfield, Annapolis County, died suddenly on the 19th inst. While lying on a lounge in his house, and enjoying the society of some of the young men of the place, he ceased conversing, gave one or two slight groans and almost instantly expired.

The Bridgetown Monitor says: "After some warm discussion at a late meeting of the rate-payers of Bear River, an additional sum of two thousand dollars was voted for the new school house, which has been in course of construction the last few months. The cost of the handsome and creditable building will be about seven thousand dollars."

The season for "cycling" is approaching, and those who intend to purchase wheels this year will be enquiring where they can be obtained. The St. John Cycle Company are showing a fine variety of first-class English and American wheels at their rooms on Charlotte street. Intending purchasers will do well to give them a call. See their advt in another column.

On Friday Lamber Tingley, son of Samuel Tingley, of Caledonia, Albert Co., while leading a horse into his father's barn in passing another horse was kicked in the head, and after lying unconscious for some time was found by his brother in a dying condition. Dr. Purdy, of Albert, was summoned, and did everything possible to restore the young man to consciousness, but all efforts proved unsuccessful.

A conference of the executive of King's college Windsor alumni and board of governors was held on Thursday to consider the condition of the college as requested by the alumni. Among those present were Bishop Courtney and Archdeacon Brigstocke, Warden Foster and Rural Dean Campbell, of New Brunswick. Satisfactory arrangements have been made to continue the work of the college for another year, despite the notice of dismissal served on the professional staff of the university.

Moncton Transcript: Mrs. Philip White, of Cocagne, while handling a rooster eight or nine days ago, was bitten by the bird on the palm of the left hand. The bite was scarcely discernible and consequently no attention was paid to it. Three days ago blood poisoning set in and the unfortunate woman expired Thursday. Her eldest son, aged 21 years, was seized with inflammation of the bowels this week, and died shortly after his mother. They were interred at Cocagne in the same grave.

United States. Speaker Crisp has declined appointment as senator to succeed the late Alfred H. Colvitt.

John Wiltz's residence at McKendree, West Virginia, was burned Thursday. His eight children and Miss Mollie Hendrick a servant, were burned to death.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report.

By a vote of 90 to 79 the Massachusetts House of Representatives on Thursday endorsed the bill granting municipal suffrage to women.

The United States Court of Appeals at Philadelphia, has decided against the government in the suit to have the Sugar Trust declared null and void.

Dr. Geo. F. Peterson one of the best known dentists in the city and a leader in New Haven society, was taken to the state insane retreat at Middletown last Wednesday. He is suffering from insanity, and his condition is due to cigar smoking.

At the Washington Mint it is estimated the gold production of the world for 1893 was $100,000,000, as against $138,861,000 in 1892. The United States, Russia and South Africa have furnished the increase, with small gains in China and Japan. The output for 1894 is expected to show an increase over all former yields.

Governor Northern, Georgia, has appointed Speaker Crisp to succeed late Senator Colquhoun. Mr. Crisp has written the governor saying that his obligation to the Democrats of the House of Representatives is such that he cannot without consulting them determine what he ought to do in the premises.

Steamship Yarmouth, from Yarmouth, N. S., arrived at Boston, last Sunday having on board 130 passengers, according to the list, but the immigration officers found that a large number were on board whose names had not been entered. Before allowing anyone to land the steamship officials were forced to enter fifty additional names on the passenger list.

MARRIAGES.

HATT-HATT.—At the parsonage, Chester, March 18th, by the Rev. H. N. Parry, Moren Hatt, to Florence Hatt, all of Beach Hill, Lun., Co., N. S.

FREEMAN-FREEMAN.—At Gull Islands, March 23rd, by Rev. I. E. Bill, James Freeman, of Gull Islands, to Rosina Freeman, of Greenfield, Queen's Co., N. S.

LUTES-SHOW.—At the residence of the bride's father, March 8, by Rev. I. B. Colwell, John L. Lutes, of Dawson Settlement, Albert Co., to Jennie Shaw, of Beach Hill, Albert Co.

FAIRWEATHER-BARTON.—At the residence of the bride's mother, on the 22nd inst., by the Rev. J. A. Gordon, Theodore Fairweather and Bertha Barton, both of St. John.

HUNTLEY-WEIR.—At the Baptist parsonage, Melvern Square, N. S., March 28th, by Pastor L. J. Tingley, Stillman Ira Huntley, of Wilmet, N. S., to Bertha Weir, of Kington, N. S.

DEATHS.

BAKER.—At Wilmet, N. S., March 13th, Wilford, only child of Asard and Ida Baker, aged one year.

FREEMAN.—At Milton, N. S., January 15th, Claude Porter, aged five months, infant son of Burton and Rebecca Freeman.

FREEMAN.—At Milton, N. S., March 19th, Clyde Smith, aged seven months, infant son of Burton and Rebecca Freeman.

BENT.—On March 23rd, of hasty consumption, Charles M. Bent, aged 23 years, son of Deacon Arthur W. Bent, of Bayfield, Westmorland Co., N. B.

DELONG.—At New Germany, Lun. Co., March 12, Ernestine, youngest daughter of Albert and Rachel DeLong, aged 19 years. By her patient endurance of suffering she showed the power of Christ to comfort His tried ones.

HAYWARD.—At Goshen, N. B., Jan. 18th, Mrs. Benj. Hayward, aged 48. She was for many years a consistent member of the 1st Elgin Baptist church. Having gone before, husband and children hope to be welcomed by and bye.

MCDONALD.—At Wickham, Queens Co., on March 7, Alexander McDonald,

Moody, Esq., in the 92nd year of her age. Our departed sister was a member of the Liverpool Baptist church, and for many years and as long as her strength would permit she was one of the church's most faithful workers. She loved the people of God and took great delight in the services of the sanctuary. She lived the life of a Christian and therefore died the death of the righteous. "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord." Appropriate services were conducted at the house by Rev. I. E. Bill, and the remains were laid tenderly away in the spot long waiting for them in the Baptist cemetery, Liverpool.

CRANTON.—At North East Margaree, on the 8th ult., of consumption, Euphemia A. Cranton, daughter of Mary A. and the late Frederick Cranton, aged 69 years. Our dear sister manifested great patience in her sufferings. It was sad to see one so amiable rapidly passing beyond all hopes of recovery; but when she expressed her unwavering trust in Christ her Saviour, and a desire to be free from her agony and at rest with Jesus, we could realize that our loss would be her eternal gain. And though she was leaving sorrowing friends here, she was passing on to that bright world where sorrow is not known, to meet the redeemed with her blessed Lord in Glory. Her funeral took place on Saturday following when a large number of friends assembled, and after appropriate service at the church, followed her to her last resting place.

ARNOLD.—At Jeddore, Halifax Co., N. S., Feb. 3, '94, Benjamin Arnold, in the 91st year of his age. Bro. Arnold came here with his father many years ago from Shelburne Co., was baptized by Father Harding, united with the church when the membership was only eight. He filled the office of a deacon for a number of years and was very active as a leader of social meetings in his younger days. His home was a home for the old pioneers who first travelled up and down these shores preaching the glorious gospel of Christ. The faith which sustained him in life supported him in death. When conversing he would say, I am just waiting for the ferry boat to carry me over. His wife preceded him some years to the better land. Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord. Our brother leaves two sons, one daughter, 54 grand children, over 100 great-grandchildren and great-great-grandchildren.

WOODLAND.—At Wallace River, Mar. 23, Bro. Robert Woodland, aged 51 years. Our dear brother was called home to heaven very suddenly after about twelve day's illness. He took ill while in the Lord's house on the 11th of March, and on the 25th he was allowed to the grave by large concourse of people. This brother is sadly missed on every hand. He leaves a sorrowing wife and six children, his youngest son leaves a vacancy in the Sunday-school of which he was a teacher. He will be sadly missed in the prayer and conference meetings and in the house of God on the Lord's day. But our loss is his gain. He had an unshaken faith in Christ which reached back over twenty-one years of his life. During three years and four months that I have been pastor this brother has always been a co-worker in all the things of the interest of the church. He leaves three sisters and two brothers, among whom is our highly esteemed brother, Rev. J. B. Woodland. May God comfort the sorrowing ones.

FINLAYSON.—In Charlottetown, March 18th, Gracie Murial, youngest child of Capt. Finlayson, of the steamship Stanley, aged three years and nine months. As the captain was unable to leave his post of duty, the little one died and was buried while he was bathing with the storm, all unconscious of the loss which he and the loved ones at home had sustained. The many friends of the captain and his family feel deeply with them in this bereavement. "His ways are past finding out."

LOW.—At Liverpool, N. S., Feb. 23rd ult., Mrs. Achsah Low, in the 84th year of her age. Sister Low was for many years a member of the Liverpool Baptist church, and though for some time before her death, she was unable to attend the public services of the church, she was a true and faithful member of the church, and her death was a great loss to her church and to her family. Her funeral service was conducted by the pastor, Rev. I. E. Bill.

MILLER.—At Lakeville, East Point, P. E. I., March 7th, Frederick Rose, son of Peter Rose Miller, in the 23rd year of his age. Brother Miller was for the fellowship of the Baptist church some years ago, and lived a consistent Christian life. In his three months' illness, he was very patient, and died trusting in Jesus; believing "that he would keep that which he committed to Him against that day."

GORHAM.—On Feb. 21st ult., at Liverpool, N. S., Mrs. Mercy Gorham, in the 83rd year of her age. Our departed sister lived a happy Christian life. She knew how to touch the hidden springs of Christian joy, and could rejoice in the Lord even when outward circumstances seemed against her. As the end drew near, her way was bright and the Saviour was precious. Sister Gorham lived and died in the fellowship of the Baptist church, Liverpool. Appropriate services were conducted by Pastor I. E. Bill.

BRADSHAW.—The church at Chester lost one of its oldest members on Jan. 21, when Sister Mary Bradshaw was called, after a few day's sickness, to be with Jesus. She was 74 years of age. She was the daughter of Deacon John Bradshaw, and was baptized when only a girl by Rev. Joseph Dimock, of precious memory. She lived in Mr. Dimock's family for many years, and afterwards with Rev. Geo. Armstrong at Bridgetown ten years. For the last 34 years she had a home with Deacon Joseph Bezanon. She loved her Saviour, His Word and work. At His call she gladly laid down the duties here to take up the higher service above.

MOODY.—On March 5, at the residence of her son-in-law, Colin Campbell, Esq., Bristol, Queens Co., Mrs. Abigail W. Moody, relict of James Pretty soon the weather will be warmer—spring is sure to show up sooner or later.

Where will you show up when the time comes to get the spring suit.

Your money back if you want it—not because you'll want it, but to show our absolute faith in what we say.

SCOVIL, FRASER & CO. OAK HALL KING ST., THE BIG CORSEY STORE.

Long Waist, Correct Shape, Best Material, Combined with the best filling in the world, makes the "Featherbone Corset" unequalled. TRY A PAIR.

To MESSRS. PUTTNER EMULSION COMPANY, Halifax, N. S. MONTREAL, Jan. 16th.

Last summer my little girl was weak, delicate and nervous, and did not rest well at night. I gave her less than two bottles of your EMULSION, according to directions, and soon after she began to take it she improved very fast in strength, slept well at night and lost much of that nervousness with which she had been troubled, and gained in flesh as well as strength, and has never been so well as since she took a course of your EMULSION.

Yours truly, C. A. HUMPHREY, Head Master Royal Arthur School.

14 21 THE INTEREST INCOME OF THE Ontario Mutual Life COMPANY

Is more than sufficient to pay its death claims or expenses, hence no company is in a position to give better returns to its Policy Holders. Policies with guaranteed cash surrender values, and free from all restrictions. For rates, etc., apply to E. M. SIPRELL, Office, Chubb's Building, SAINT JOHN, N. B.

Such words come from the heart. Such a writing does good to other sufferers. GRODNER'S SYRUP CURES. St. John, N. B., Jan. 27th, 1894.

New Clothes

Are expensive. When ever your old clothes show signs of wear, send them to UNGAR'S. Dyeing and Cleansing of every kind done well if done at UNGAR'S. Write for "Pointers on Dyeing."

UNGAR'S Laundry and Dyeworks, 26-34 Waterloo St., St. John, N. B. Halifax Branch—66-70 Barrington St.

BICYCLES!

CRESCENTS FOR LADIES AND GENTS. 28in. Pneumatic, $90.00; 26in. Pneumatic, $60.00; 24in. Pneumatic, $50.00.

Also Agents for Singers, Raleighs, Columbias, Whitworths and other English wheels. Catalogues on application.

ST. JOHN CYCLE CO. ST. JOHN, N. B.

FRED A. DYKEMAN & CO.

Our Spring DRESS GOODS have arrived, in fact our Spring Stock of DRY GOODS is about complete in all departments.

Send to us for what you want, we will gladly send samples. We prepay expressage on Three Dollar parcels.

Our reputation for close prices and honest dealings is adding many new customers to our list.

If your faith is weak, find out some one who has favored us with their patronage--they will convince you.

FRED A. DYKEMAN & CO., 97 King Street, St. John, N. B.

We had intended to bring to say in reference to the feature of the "dead line of fiction, but we perceive it is a case that our intention was into effect, since it has led to write the excellent art subject which appears elsewhere. We hope everybody a careful reading, especially letters. So long as a misplaceman there is no fear of a dead line, and a man who faithful in his ministry, most of himself and his ought, until he is long past taking on elements of increased knowledge and depth of experience more than to counterbalance any loss of force and youthful fervor.

The announcement of Prof. Robertson Smith, of University, will be received with surprise by many, though it is that he had been in failing health, and that his death was unexpected by his friends. Many, too, will be surprised that Prof. Smith was so young being only in his 48th year of his death. But almost infancy he was trained in studies, and his intellect developed early. It is said reading Hebrew at six years. He bore of the highest honours in Edinburgh, and at the University, Bonn and Gottingen, turning to Scotland at the was appointed Professor of languages in the Free Church Aberdeen, in 1870. Two years was chosen a member of the for the revision of the English of the Bible, and which was in progress he became a to the Encyclopaedia Britannica, as well known all in harmony with the generally received views in the authenticity and historicity of its scriptures. The publication of these articles led to his removal in 1881 from his professorship and from the try of the Free Church of Scotland. Two years later he became a er's professor of Arabic at the University of Cambridge. His University are said to have large number of students. numerous writings, the best "The Old Testament in Church," and "The Prophecy

A LITTLE book of 90 pages of Rev. Dr. Hopper, bearing the title "Life in after World, or 'Shall we other there?'" has just been the office of Progress Printing Co., of Cambridge. The preface note says: "This is a response to a request of members of my former company to publish the substance of a sermon which afforded the bereavement. Since the faith, some hours have been to give the material the work has been done so that it may be a relief of some who in loneliness may dear ones called to the Its errand is simply to report of the heavenly Father to children till they reach glad reunion in eternal booklet is divided into five parts. Chapter I. is introductory. II. considers the Old Testament as to the friends in heaven; chapter the teaching of our Lord apostles in reference to the just, and the closing of with objections to the do recognition of friends in come. The author presents upon the Scripture bearing directly or indirectly subject. The poetic which the different chapters added much to the and value of the book. T one of profound and ten Many will, no doubt, be comforted by reading this because of the thoughts for many others it will be of interest because of which the author has sustained as pastor or intimate friend bound in cloth and has attractive appearance. of St. John, or the Baptist Halifax. Price 50 cents. Ask for Mims' and t