

THE SAN GABRIELLE CAPTURED BY ITALIANS

ITALIANS POSSESS THE ENTIRE MOUNTAIN CHAIN

By Capture of Monte San Gabrielle Gen. Cadorna's Army Now Controls Entire Gorizia Region—About One Thousand Prisoners and Immense Booty Taken.

London, Sept. 5.—The Italians have captured Monte San Gabrielle, according to advices to the Daily Mail. A despatch received in London confirms the capture of Monte San Gabrielle together with 950 prisoners, including thirty-two officers. The Italians now possess the entire chain of mountains which dominate Gorizia. The capture of Monte San Gabrielle, says that news has reached Paris, stating that the Italians have taken possession of Monte San Gabrielle, and that the Austrians have abandoned the mountain. At one point thousands of boxes of projectiles, hand grenades, rockets, shoes, rifles and helmets were strewn everywhere. Some of the caverns are still packed with Austrian dead, lying one on another. The bodies are being buried gradually.

DAUGHTER BORN TO GERMAN CROWN PRINCESS

THE CROWN PRINCESS AND PRINCESS OF GERMANY. Amsterdam, Sept. 5.—The German Crown Princess today gave birth to a daughter, according to Berlin advices. This is the sixth child born to Crown Prince Frederick William and the Crown Princess.

NINE KILLED AND 49 WOUNDED IN AIR RAID

First Moonlight Attempt of Germans on London—Property Damage Not Extensive.

London, Sept. 5.—The first moonlight air raid over the London district occurred at midnight last night and resulted in the dropping of bombs. Nine persons were killed and 49 injured in the raid. One raider is reported to have been brought down by Sheerness. It is announced officially. The official announcement says: "Enemy airplanes in considerable numbers crossed the southeast coast over a wide area between 10.30 p.m. and 2 a.m. The raiders seemed to have travelled singly or in groups of from two to three for which reason it is difficult to estimate their numbers with accuracy, but it is possible that as many as twenty machines took part in the raid."

There's Nothing Like

Zam-Buk's soothing and...
For eczema and skin troubles of all kinds Zam-Buk has no equal; also for old sores, ulcers, abscesses, boils, pimples, blood-poisoning, piles, cuts, burns, bruises and scalds.
All dealers of Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, 50c. box, 2 for $1.25.

Zam-Buk

Scarborough, Ont., Sept. 5.—Raiders were constantly shelled by anti-aircraft guns, and several British machines took the air to attack the raiders.
Scarborough, on the English sea coast, was bombarded last night by a hostile submarine. Three persons were killed and five injured, but little material damage was done.

POTATO RUST IN ALBERT COUNTY

Farmers, However, Do Not Anticipate Heavy Losses.

Special to The Standard.
Hopewell Hill, Sept. 5.—Rust has struck the potato crop here with the exception of the few fields that were sprayed, but as the growth of tops was so great this season, the farmers do not anticipate heavy losses. There is so much strength for the roots to draw upon.

CORNELIUS O'LEARY'S WINNER OF FLOUR AT THE GRAND FAIR

Good Attendance Last Night—Miss G. Thorne Wins Five Gallon Tank of Oil—Other Prize Winners.

Fully 1,500 people attended the grand fair at St. Andrew's rink last night which is being conducted by the G. W. V. A., the Trades and Labor Council and the Y. W. P. A. The door prize a five gallon tank of motor oil, donated by the Canadian Oil Company, was won by Miss G. Thorne, of Melville street. The bowling prize, a pair of slippers, donated by Waterbury & Haines, was won by Chester Lewis of St. John West. A set of military brushes donated by Dr. W. F. Roberts, M. L. A., for the highest aggregate on the bean board for men, was won by P. C. M. Bennett. The first prize on the ladies' bean toss, a purse, donated by F. A. Dykeman, was won by Miss Travis of the city, who made 270 out of a possible 280.

BIRTHS

STEELE—On September 1st, to Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Steele, Kingston, Kings County, N. B.—a son.

7,347 CANADIANS IN CASUALTIES

Ottawa, Sept. 5.—Of the three hundred and forty-nine names in the casualty list today, fifty are given as killed or died of wounds, and forty-six have been "gassed." The proportion of Canadians "gassed" has been very high for the past week or so.

COMMISSIONER WIGMORE WILL ATTEND MEETING OF WATERWORKS' HEADS

Commissioner R. W. Wigmore will leave on Monday afternoon to attend the annual convention of the heads of the New England waterworks, comprising engineers, superintendents and commissioners. The convention has been called for the purpose of giving serious consideration to the various problems arising in connection with the operation of the waterworks systems, with a view of increasing the efficiency of the service. The commissioner from attending previous conventions has learned much of value in connection with his administration of the local department, and he is much interested in the progress prepared by the board of management for the approaching convention, which will open on Wednesday.

COMPLETE PLANS FOR RIVER GLADE WORK

J. F. Casey, engineer for the Military Hospital's Commission at Ottawa, was in the city yesterday, a guest at the Royal Hotel. Mr. Casey has just returned from River Glade. In reply to an inquiry from The Standard, he said that he had completed the plans for the heating and ventilation of the new buildings which the commission proposes to erect at River Glade to provide accommodation for the treatment and care of returned tubercular soldiers. Mr. Casey expects that the work will be undertaken at an early date. He proposes to erect a new building, the superintendent of the provincial sanatorium at River Glade was also in the city yesterday en route to Fredericton.

Two Recruits Yesterday

Two men enlisted in the city yesterday: Stanley William, 13 Magazine street, signed on with the C. A. G. C., and C. Rice, of Digby, enlisted with the Canadian Engineers. The first named will probably go forward to St. John, Quebec, today.

WAR ELECTIONS ACT

Ottawa, Sept. 4.—The Minister of Justice and the Solicitor General are working on the details of the war time elections act, notice of which appeared in the order paper of the Senate yesterday.

ALMA MAN TO BUILD ST. GEORGE BRIDGE

Launching of Schooner By C. T. White & Son Probable in January.

OBITUARY

After two months' illness Harriet Ann, widow of Edwin I. Perkins, died Tuesday evening. She was one of the oldest members of St. John's (Stone) church. She is survived by a daughter, Thomas Hatheway and is survived by two daughters, Miss Helen and Florence, both at home. Two sisters also survive. They are Mrs. Herbert Ward, of the various problems arising in connection with the operation of the waterworks systems, with a view of increasing the efficiency of the service. The commissioner from attending previous conventions has learned much of value in connection with his administration of the local department, and he is much interested in the progress prepared by the board of management for the approaching convention, which will open on Wednesday.

W. & A. Bacon Co. Successors of the Siegel Co., in Financial Difficulties.

Boston, Sept. 4.—The W. & A. Bacon Co., proprietors of one of the largest department stores in New England, is in financial difficulties. The Bacon Company did business in Roxbury for many years, but when the Siegel company on Washington street, this city, failed half a dozen years ago the Basons moved into the big store.

TWO MOTORISTS LOSE LIVES

Montreal, Sept. 5.—Rochelle Hebert, Berthel, Quebec, and Charles Rioux, Mance street, were instantly killed at an early hour this morning when their car in which they were riding collided with a telephone post at Pointe Aux Trembles.

TWO IN MONTREAL PERISH IN FIRE

Montreal, Sept. 5.—Two men were burned to death in a fire which broke out early this morning in a two storey wood and brick store and dwelling at 677 Rue Avenue, Rosemont. The two dead are A. Desjardins and J. Barette.

SIR ROBERT ILL

Ottawa, Sept. 5.—Sir Robert Borden is confined to his house with a slight indisposition. His illness is not serious, and he will probably be about again in a few days.

ENOUGH TO RAISE ONE'S IRISH

While pitching hay yesterday on Fred Duncan's farm Manawagosh road, one of the men found five bob-tailed kittens that had been born under a stack of hay.

BRIDGE ACCIDENT

Quebec, Sept. 5.—A six ton hoister for the centre span of the Quebec bridge slipped from the cantilever arms yesterday afternoon and is now at the bottom of the river, caught in the mass of wreckage from the two previous disasters. The mishap is liable to cause a year's delay to the fitting of the centre span.

WAR ELECTIONS ACT

Ottawa, Sept. 4.—The Minister of Justice and the Solicitor General are working on the details of the war time elections act, notice of which appeared in the order paper of the Senate yesterday.

THREE CHILDREN BURNED TO DEATH

Newington, Ont., Sept. 5.—The three little children of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Helmer, who resided on a farm in Osnaburck township, about five miles from this village, were burned to death yesterday in a fire which destroyed the farm house.

HIGH TIDES DO MUCH DAMAGE

Water Unusually High in the Peteticodiac and Memramcook Rivers.

TRAIN MISSION TRAINS

No finer sight can be imagined than its magnificent harbor, and the great inland bay, Bedford Basin, crowded with hundreds of ships from all parts of the world. Everywhere can be seen all manner of craft for the shortage of ships due to U-boat ravages has brought out all types of craft. One sees great Ocean Liners that before the war called only at New York and Liverpool. One sees small, wizen, dirty little tramp ships; one sees schooners, barques, brigantines, full-rigged ships; one sees long, funny-shaped oil tankers; one sees Dutch, American, Norwegian, Swedish, French, British, Canadian, Danish ships, the neutral craft bearing their names and the names of the country to which they belong painted in huge letters on their sides. And nearby one sees Britain's Bull Dogs, great fighting ships guarding all, or preparing to sail once more for the open sea to protect the sea lanes and keep food, munitions, and men going in a steady stream to Great Britain and her allies.

COUPLINGS HANGERS PULLEYS CLUTCHES BELTING SHAFTING BABBITT SHAFT BOXES OF ALL KINDS

Sprockets and Chain Supplied from Stock

THE ARWILLIAMS TRACHIRERY CO. LTD. ST. JOHN, N. B.

Special Rates on All Railroads. Reserve these days—September 12 to 20th M. McF. HALL MANAGER AND SECRETARY, HALIFAX.

FOOD CONTROL IN ST. JOHN

The Meeting Called for THURSDAY AFTERNOON at 3 o'clock at the Board of Trade Rooms Will Be Held Instead at THE SEAMEN'S MISSION HALL PRINCE WILLIAM STREET at the same hour on THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 6TH A Large Attendance of Men and Women Is Urged.

DR. JAS. W. ROBERTSON, Chairman of the Central Advisory Council to the Food Controller, Will Be Present to Explain the Gravity of the Situation and to Assist in the Further Organization of the Citizens of St. John.

ANCIENT HALIFAX NEVER MORE INTERESTING

Those who have not visited Halifax for several years should make plans now to see it during Exhibition week, September 12th to 20th.

TRAIN MISSION TRAINS

No finer sight can be imagined than its magnificent harbor, and the great inland bay, Bedford Basin, crowded with hundreds of ships from all parts of the world. Everywhere can be seen all manner of craft for the shortage of ships due to U-boat ravages has brought out all types of craft. One sees great Ocean Liners that before the war called only at New York and Liverpool. One sees small, wizen, dirty little tramp ships; one sees schooners, barques, brigantines, full-rigged ships; one sees long, funny-shaped oil tankers; one sees Dutch, American, Norwegian, Swedish, French, British, Canadian, Danish ships, the neutral craft bearing their names and the names of the country to which they belong painted in huge letters on their sides. And nearby one sees Britain's Bull Dogs, great fighting ships guarding all, or preparing to sail once more for the open sea to protect the sea lanes and keep food, munitions, and men going in a steady stream to Great Britain and her allies.

TRAIN MISSION TRAINS

No finer sight can be imagined than its magnificent harbor, and the great inland bay, Bedford Basin, crowded with hundreds of ships from all parts of the world. Everywhere can be seen all manner of craft for the shortage of ships due to U-boat ravages has brought out all types of craft. One sees great Ocean Liners that before the war called only at New York and Liverpool. One sees small, wizen, dirty little tramp ships; one sees schooners, barques, brigantines, full-rigged ships; one sees long, funny-shaped oil tankers; one sees Dutch, American, Norwegian, Swedish, French, British, Canadian, Danish ships, the neutral craft bearing their names and the names of the country to which they belong painted in huge letters on their sides. And nearby one sees Britain's Bull Dogs, great fighting ships guarding all, or preparing to sail once more for the open sea to protect the sea lanes and keep food, munitions, and men going in a steady stream to Great Britain and her allies.

TRAIN MISSION TRAINS

No finer sight can be imagined than its magnificent harbor, and the great inland bay, Bedford Basin, crowded with hundreds of ships from all parts of the world. Everywhere can be seen all manner of craft for the shortage of ships due to U-boat ravages has brought out all types of craft. One sees great Ocean Liners that before the war called only at New York and Liverpool. One sees small, wizen, dirty little tramp ships; one sees schooners, barques, brigantines, full-rigged ships; one sees long, funny-shaped oil tankers; one sees Dutch, American, Norwegian, Swedish, French, British, Canadian, Danish ships, the neutral craft bearing their names and the names of the country to which they belong painted in huge letters on their sides. And nearby one sees Britain's Bull Dogs, great fighting ships guarding all, or preparing to sail once more for the open sea to protect the sea lanes and keep food, munitions, and men going in a steady stream to Great Britain and her allies.

TRAIN MISSION TRAINS

No finer sight can be imagined than its magnificent harbor, and the great inland bay, Bedford Basin, crowded with hundreds of ships from all parts of the world. Everywhere can be seen all manner of craft for the shortage of ships due to U-boat ravages has brought out all types of craft. One sees great Ocean Liners that before the war called only at New York and Liverpool. One sees small, wizen, dirty little tramp ships; one sees schooners, barques, brigantines, full-rigged ships; one sees long, funny-shaped oil tankers; one sees Dutch, American, Norwegian, Swedish, French, British, Canadian, Danish ships, the neutral craft bearing their names and the names of the country to which they belong painted in huge letters on their sides. And nearby one sees Britain's Bull Dogs, great fighting ships guarding all, or preparing to sail once more for the open sea to protect the sea lanes and keep food, munitions, and men going in a steady stream to Great Britain and her allies.

TRAIN MISSION TRAINS

No finer sight can be imagined than its magnificent harbor, and the great inland bay, Bedford Basin, crowded with hundreds of ships from all parts of the world. Everywhere can be seen all manner of craft for the shortage of ships due to U-boat ravages has brought out all types of craft. One sees great Ocean Liners that before the war called only at New York and Liverpool. One sees small, wizen, dirty little tramp ships; one sees schooners, barques, brigantines, full-rigged ships; one sees long, funny-shaped oil tankers; one sees Dutch, American, Norwegian, Swedish, French, British, Canadian, Danish ships, the neutral craft bearing their names and the names of the country to which they belong painted in huge letters on their sides. And nearby one sees Britain's Bull Dogs, great fighting ships guarding all, or preparing to sail once more for the open sea to protect the sea lanes and keep food, munitions, and men going in a steady stream to Great Britain and her allies.

TRAIN MISSION TRAINS

No finer sight can be imagined than its magnificent harbor, and the great inland bay, Bedford Basin, crowded with hundreds of ships from all parts of the world. Everywhere can be seen all manner of craft for the shortage of ships due to U-boat ravages has brought out all types of craft. One sees great Ocean Liners that before the war called only at New York and Liverpool. One sees small, wizen, dirty little tramp ships; one sees schooners, barques, brigantines, full-rigged ships; one sees long, funny-shaped oil tankers; one sees Dutch, American, Norwegian, Swedish, French, British, Canadian, Danish ships, the neutral craft bearing their names and the names of the country to which they belong painted in huge letters on their sides. And nearby one sees Britain's Bull Dogs, great fighting ships guarding all, or preparing to sail once more for the open sea to protect the sea lanes and keep food, munitions, and men going in a steady stream to Great Britain and her allies.

TRAIN MISSION TRAINS

No finer sight can be imagined than its magnificent harbor, and the great inland bay, Bedford Basin, crowded with hundreds of ships from all parts of the world. Everywhere can be seen all manner of craft for the shortage of ships due to U-boat ravages has brought out all types of craft. One sees great Ocean Liners that before the war called only at New York and Liverpool. One sees small, wizen, dirty little tramp ships; one sees schooners, barques, brigantines, full-rigged ships; one sees long, funny-shaped oil tankers; one sees Dutch, American, Norwegian, Swedish, French, British, Canadian, Danish ships, the neutral craft bearing their names and the names of the country to which they belong painted in huge letters on their sides. And nearby one sees Britain's Bull Dogs, great fighting ships guarding all, or preparing to sail once more for the open sea to protect the sea lanes and keep food, munitions, and men going in a steady stream to Great Britain and her allies.

TRAIN MISSION TRAINS

No finer sight can be imagined than its magnificent harbor, and the great inland bay, Bedford Basin, crowded with hundreds of ships from all parts of the world. Everywhere can be seen all manner of craft for the shortage of ships due to U-boat ravages has brought out all types of craft. One sees great Ocean Liners that before the war called only at New York and Liverpool. One sees small, wizen, dirty little tramp ships; one sees schooners, barques, brigantines, full-rigged ships; one sees long, funny-shaped oil tankers; one sees Dutch, American, Norwegian, Swedish, French, British, Canadian, Danish ships, the neutral craft bearing their names and the names of the country to which they belong painted in huge letters on their sides. And nearby one sees Britain's Bull Dogs, great fighting ships guarding all, or preparing to sail once more for the open sea to protect the sea lanes and keep food, munitions, and men going in a steady stream to Great Britain and her allies.

TRAIN MISSION TRAINS

No finer sight can be imagined than its magnificent harbor, and the great inland bay, Bedford Basin, crowded with hundreds of ships from all parts of the world. Everywhere can be seen all manner of craft for the shortage of ships due to U-boat ravages has brought out all types of craft. One sees great Ocean Liners that before the war called only at New York and Liverpool. One sees small, wizen, dirty little tramp ships; one sees schooners, barques, brigantines, full-rigged ships; one sees long, funny-shaped oil tankers; one sees Dutch, American, Norwegian, Swedish, French, British, Canadian, Danish ships, the neutral craft bearing their names and the names of the country to which they belong painted in huge letters on their sides. And nearby one sees Britain's Bull Dogs, great fighting ships guarding all, or preparing to sail once more for the open sea to protect the sea lanes and keep food, munitions, and men going in a steady stream to Great Britain and her allies.

TRAIN MISSION TRAINS

No finer sight can be imagined than its magnificent harbor, and the great inland bay, Bedford Basin, crowded with hundreds of ships from all parts of the world. Everywhere can be seen all manner of craft for the shortage of ships due to U-boat ravages has brought out all types of craft. One sees great Ocean Liners that before the war called only at New York and Liverpool. One sees small, wizen, dirty little tramp ships; one sees schooners, barques, brigantines, full-rigged ships; one sees long, funny-shaped oil tankers; one sees Dutch, American, Norwegian, Swedish, French, British, Canadian, Danish ships, the neutral craft bearing their names and the names of the country to which they belong painted in huge letters on their sides. And nearby one sees Britain's Bull Dogs, great fighting ships guarding all, or preparing to sail once more for the open sea to protect the sea lanes and keep food, munitions, and men going in a steady stream to Great Britain and her allies.

TRAIN MISSION TRAINS

No finer sight can be imagined than its magnificent harbor, and the great inland bay, Bedford Basin, crowded with hundreds of ships from all parts of the world. Everywhere can be seen all manner of craft for the shortage of ships due to U-boat ravages has brought out all types of craft. One sees great Ocean Liners that before the war called only at New York and Liverpool. One sees small, wizen, dirty little tramp ships; one sees schooners, barques, brigantines, full-rigged ships; one sees long, funny-shaped oil tankers; one sees Dutch, American, Norwegian, Swedish, French, British, Canadian, Danish ships, the neutral craft bearing their names and the names of the country to which they belong painted in huge letters on their sides. And nearby one sees Britain's Bull Dogs, great fighting ships guarding all, or preparing to sail once more for the open sea to protect the sea lanes and keep food, munitions, and men going in a steady stream to Great Britain and her allies.

TRAIN MISSION TRAINS

No finer sight can be imagined than its magnificent harbor, and the great inland bay, Bedford Basin, crowded with hundreds of ships from all parts of the world. Everywhere can be seen all manner of craft for the shortage of ships due to U-boat ravages has brought out all types of craft. One sees great Ocean Liners that before the war called only at New York and Liverpool. One sees small, wizen, dirty little tramp ships; one sees schooners, barques, brigantines, full-rigged ships; one sees long, funny-shaped oil tankers; one sees Dutch, American, Norwegian, Swedish, French, British, Canadian, Danish ships, the neutral craft bearing their names and the names of the country to which they belong painted in huge letters on their sides. And nearby one sees Britain's Bull Dogs, great fighting ships guarding all, or preparing to sail once more for the open sea to protect the sea lanes and keep food, munitions, and men going in a steady stream to Great Britain and her allies.

TRAIN MISSION TRAINS

No finer sight can be imagined than its magnificent harbor, and the great inland bay, Bedford Basin, crowded with hundreds of ships from all parts of the world. Everywhere can be seen all manner of craft for the shortage of ships due to U-boat ravages has brought out all types of craft. One sees great Ocean Liners that before the war called only at New York and Liverpool. One sees small, wizen, dirty little tramp ships; one sees schooners, barques, brigantines, full-rigged ships; one sees long, funny-shaped oil tankers; one sees Dutch, American, Norwegian, Swedish, French, British, Canadian, Danish ships, the neutral craft bearing their names and the names of the country to which they belong painted in huge letters on their sides. And nearby one sees Britain's Bull Dogs, great fighting ships guarding all, or preparing to sail once more for the open sea to protect the sea lanes and keep food, munitions, and men going in a steady stream to Great Britain and her allies.

TRAIN MISSION TRAINS

No finer sight can be imagined than its magnificent harbor, and the great inland bay, Bedford Basin, crowded with hundreds of ships from all parts of the world. Everywhere can be seen all manner of craft for the shortage of ships due to U-boat ravages has brought out all types of craft. One sees great Ocean Liners that before the war called only at New York and Liverpool. One sees small, wizen, dirty little tramp ships; one sees schooners, barques, brigantines, full-rigged ships; one sees long, funny-shaped oil tankers; one sees Dutch, American, Norwegian, Swedish, French, British, Canadian, Danish ships, the neutral craft bearing their names and the names of the country to which they belong painted in huge letters on their sides. And nearby one sees Britain's Bull Dogs, great fighting ships guarding all, or preparing to sail once more for the open sea to protect the sea lanes and keep food, munitions, and men going in a steady stream to Great Britain and her allies.

TRAIN MISSION TRAINS

No finer sight can be imagined than its magnificent harbor, and the great inland bay, Bedford Basin, crowded with hundreds of ships from all parts of the world. Everywhere can be seen all manner of craft for the shortage of ships due to U-boat ravages has brought out all types of craft. One sees great Ocean Liners that before the war called only at New York and Liverpool. One sees small, wizen, dirty little tramp ships; one sees schooners, barques, brigantines, full-rigged ships; one sees long, funny-shaped oil tankers; one sees Dutch, American, Norwegian, Swedish, French, British, Canadian, Danish ships, the neutral craft bearing their names and the names of the country to which they belong painted in huge letters on their sides. And nearby one sees Britain's Bull Dogs, great fighting ships guarding all, or preparing to sail once more for the open sea to protect the sea lanes and keep food, munitions, and men going in a steady stream to Great Britain and her allies.

TRAIN MISSION TRAINS

No finer sight can be imagined than its magnificent harbor, and the great inland bay, Bedford Basin, crowded with hundreds of ships from all parts of the world. Everywhere can be seen all manner of craft for the shortage of ships due to U-boat ravages has brought out all types of craft. One sees great Ocean Liners that before the war called only at New York and Liverpool. One sees small, wizen, dirty little tramp ships; one sees schooners, barques, brigantines, full-rigged ships; one sees long, funny-shaped oil tankers; one sees Dutch, American, Norwegian, Swedish, French, British, Canadian, Danish ships, the neutral craft bearing their names and the names of the country to which they belong painted in huge letters on their sides. And nearby one sees Britain's Bull Dogs, great fighting ships guarding all, or preparing to sail once more for the open sea to protect the sea lanes and keep food, munitions, and men going in a steady stream to Great Britain and her allies.

TRAIN MISSION TRAINS

No finer sight can be imagined than its magnificent harbor, and the great inland bay, Bedford Basin, crowded with hundreds of ships from all parts of the world. Everywhere can be seen all manner of craft for the shortage of ships due to U-boat ravages has brought out all types of craft. One sees great Ocean Liners that before the war called only at New York and Liverpool. One sees small, wizen, dirty little tramp ships; one sees schooners, barques, brigantines, full-rigged ships; one sees long, funny-shaped oil tankers; one sees Dutch, American, Norwegian, Swedish, French, British, Canadian, Danish ships, the neutral craft bearing their names and the names of the country to which they belong painted in huge letters on their sides. And nearby one sees Britain's Bull Dogs, great fighting ships guarding all, or preparing to sail once more for the open sea to protect the sea lanes and keep food, munitions, and men going in a steady stream to Great Britain and her allies.

TRAIN MISSION TRAINS

No finer sight can be imagined than its magnificent harbor, and the great inland bay, Bedford Basin, crowded with hundreds of ships from all parts of the world. Everywhere can be seen all manner of craft for the shortage of ships due to U-boat ravages has brought out all types of craft. One sees great Ocean Liners that before the war called only at New York and Liverpool. One sees small, wizen, dirty little tramp ships; one sees schooners, barques, brigantines, full-rigged ships; one sees long, funny-shaped oil tankers; one sees Dutch, American, Norwegian, Swedish, French, British, Canadian, Danish ships, the neutral craft bearing their names and the names of the country to which they belong painted in huge letters on their sides. And nearby one sees Britain's Bull Dogs, great fighting ships guarding all, or preparing to sail once more for the open sea to protect the sea lanes and keep food, munitions, and men going in a steady stream to Great Britain and her allies.

TRAIN MISSION TRAINS

No finer sight can be imagined than its magnificent harbor, and the great inland bay, Bedford Basin, crowded with hundreds of ships from all parts of the world. Everywhere can be seen all manner of craft for the shortage of ships due to U-boat ravages has brought out all types of craft. One sees great Ocean Liners that before the war called only at New York and Liverpool. One sees small, wizen, dirty little tramp ships; one sees schooners, barques, brigantines, full-rigged ships; one sees long, funny-shaped oil tankers; one sees Dutch, American, Norwegian, Swedish, French, British, Canadian, Danish ships, the neutral craft bearing their names and the names of the country to which they belong painted in huge letters on their sides. And nearby one sees Britain's Bull Dogs, great fighting ships guarding all, or preparing to sail once more for the open sea to protect the sea lanes and keep food, munitions, and men going in a steady stream to Great Britain and her allies.

TRAIN MISSION TRAINS

No finer sight can be imagined than its magnificent harbor, and the great inland bay, Bedford Basin, crowded with hundreds of ships from all parts of the world. Everywhere can be seen all manner of craft for the shortage of ships due to U-boat ravages has brought out all types of craft. One sees great Ocean Liners that before the war called only at New York and Liverpool. One sees small, wizen, dirty little tramp ships; one sees schooners, barques, brigantines, full-rigged ships; one sees long, funny-shaped oil tankers; one sees Dutch, American, Norwegian, Swedish, French, British, Canadian, Danish ships, the neutral craft bearing their names and the names of the country to which they belong painted in huge letters on their sides. And nearby one sees Britain's Bull Dogs, great fighting ships guarding all, or preparing to sail once more for the open sea to protect the sea lanes and keep food, munitions, and men going in a steady stream to Great Britain and her allies.

TRAIN MISSION TRAINS

No finer sight can be imagined than its magnificent harbor, and the great inland bay, Bedford Basin, crowded with hundreds of ships from all parts of the world. Everywhere can be seen all manner of craft for the shortage of ships due to U-boat ravages has brought out all types of craft. One sees great Ocean Liners that before the war called only at New York and Liverpool. One sees small, wizen, dirty little tramp ships; one sees schooners, barques, brigantines, full-rigged ships; one sees long, funny-shaped oil tankers; one sees Dutch, American, Norwegian, Swedish, French, British, Canadian, Danish ships, the neutral craft bearing their names and the names of the country to which they belong painted in huge letters on their sides. And nearby one sees Britain's Bull Dogs, great fighting ships guarding all, or preparing to sail once more for the open sea to protect the sea lanes and keep food, munitions, and men going in a steady stream to Great Britain and her allies.

TRAIN MISSION TRAINS

No finer sight can be imagined than its magnificent harbor, and the great inland bay, Bedford Basin, crowded with hundreds of ships from all parts of the world. Everywhere can be seen all manner of craft for the shortage of ships due to U-boat ravages has brought out all types of craft. One sees great Ocean Liners that before the war called only at New York and Liverpool. One sees small, wizen, dirty little tramp ships; one sees schooners, barques, brigantines, full-rigged ships; one sees long, funny-shaped oil tankers; one sees Dutch, American, Norwegian, Swedish, French, British, Canadian, Danish ships, the neutral craft bearing their names and the names of the country to which they belong painted in huge letters on their sides. And nearby one sees Britain's Bull Dogs, great fighting ships guarding all, or preparing to sail once more for the open sea to protect the sea lanes and keep food, munitions, and men going in a steady stream to Great Britain and her allies.

TRAIN MISSION TRAINS

No finer sight can be imagined than its magnificent harbor, and the great inland bay, Bedford Basin, crowded with hundreds of ships from all parts of the world. Everywhere can be seen all manner of craft for the shortage of ships due to U-boat ravages has brought out all types of craft. One sees great Ocean Liners that before the war called only at New York and Liverpool. One sees small, wizen, dirty little tramp ships; one sees schooners, barques, brigantines, full-rigged ships; one sees long, funny-shaped oil tankers; one sees Dutch, American, Norwegian, Swedish, French, British, Canadian, Danish ships, the neutral craft bearing their names and the names of the country to which they belong painted in huge letters on their sides. And nearby one sees Britain's Bull Dogs, great fighting ships guarding all, or preparing to sail once more for the open sea to protect the sea lanes and keep food, munitions, and men going in a steady stream to Great Britain and her allies.

TRAIN MISSION TRAINS

No finer sight can be imagined than its magnificent harbor, and the great inland bay, Bedford Basin, crowded with hundreds of ships from all parts of the world. Everywhere can be seen all manner of craft for the shortage of ships due to U-boat ravages has brought out all types of craft. One sees great Ocean Liners that before the war called only at New York and Liverpool. One sees small, wizen, dirty little tramp ships; one sees schooners, barques, brigantines, full-rigged ships; one sees long, funny-shaped oil tankers; one sees Dutch, American, Norwegian, Swedish, French, British, Canadian, Danish ships, the neutral craft bearing their names and the names of the country to which they belong painted in huge letters on their sides. And nearby one sees Britain's Bull Dogs, great fighting ships guarding all, or preparing to sail once more for the open sea to protect the sea lanes and keep food, munitions, and men going in a steady stream to Great Britain and her allies.

TRAIN MISSION TRAINS

No finer sight can be imagined than its magnificent harbor, and the great inland bay, Bedford Basin, crowded with hundreds of ships from all parts of the world. Everywhere can be seen all manner of craft for the shortage of ships due to U-boat ravages has brought out all types of craft. One sees great Ocean Liners that before the war called only at New York and Liverpool. One sees small, wizen, dirty little tramp ships; one sees schooners, barques, brigantines, full-rigged ships; one sees long, funny-shaped oil tankers; one sees Dutch, American, Norwegian, Swedish, French, British, Canadian, Danish ships, the neutral craft bearing their names and the names of the country