WORLD OF SPORTS AS SEEN BY A CRITICAL EYE

Army, Navy and Civilian Board of Boxing Control Assumes the Reins—Announces Recognized Champions' Weights and Rules.

Now the Walker boxing bill has become a law in New York state, the Army, Navy and Civilian Board of Boxing Control and its offspring, the International Sporting Club, has assumed charge of the sport in this country. Its first move is to announce the rules which are to govern the game under its immediate control and the names of those who are recognized American and world ring champions. It will be gratifying to the followers of Johnny Wilson, whose home is given as New York, to learn that the board recognizes him as the new middleweight champion of the world, displacing Mike O'Dowd.

Six of the seven classes rated as world's titlholders are accredited to America. Jimmy Wilde, designated from London, England, being the only other holder. Herman Kilbane, Leonard Britton, Wilson and Dempsey being the chosen set. The board has left the American flyweight class vacant, there being no incumbent, and here is a chance for Patsy Wallace to get busy, claim the title and defend it against all comers at 112 pounds, the limit set by the board.

New Weights Adopted.
All struggles over weights should now be set at rest. Sportsmen throughout the United States must or should recognize the governing board. It is entitled to every consideration. It should play no favorites and the public, which after all makes the sport possible, should demand that the board play the game fair, punish the guilty and rigidly enforce its rules. If a boxer takes, stalls, disappoints and does not protect the public he should be set down for a stipulated period the same as a crooked jockey. On the other hand if a matchmaker, promoter or referee does not toe the mark and honor the code he should be similarly punished. Here are the new American weights by which all championships shall be decided, weighing-in time being eight hours before the contest:

Junior flyweight 105 pounds
Flyweight 112 pounds
Junior bantamweight 115 pounds
Bantamweight 118 pounds
Junior featherweight 122 pounds
Featherweight 126 pounds
Junior lightweight 130 pounds
Lightweight 135 pounds
Junior welterweight 140 pounds
Welterweight 147 pounds
Middleweight 160 pounds
Light heavyweight 175 pounds
Heavyweight, all over 175 pounds

Real Value of Boxing.
The new rules have been adopted with the chief idea that there are a few forms of sport that are the equal of boxing in its value as a means of developing agility, quickness of eye, good balance and control of temper, so that in general the object of the rule is to bring about a definite improvement in the administration and status of boxing. To abolish abuses that have prevented the public from recognizing its value to young men as a form of training and recreation.

Many of the rules are familiar to those adopted by Director of Public Safety Cortelyou for the government of the sport in this city such as the taping of the hands, adjusting the gloves in the ring, the proper apparel and conduct of attendants. They all make for the best of the sport.

William A. Gavin Retires.
Coinciding with the announcement of the rules comes a statement from the directors that William A. Gavin, in whose fertile mind the Army, Navy and Civilian Board was virtually conceived has been obliged to retire from the management to attend to his own private business. He has labored unselfishly for nearly two years to help bring the board and his pet the International Sporting Club to the front. When the club is opened it is believed that the directors will be able to induce Mr. Gavin to again place his services at the disposal of the organization.

Pal Moran, of New Orleans, who is being schooled as a possible successor to Benny Leonard, was driven from the ring at Lawrence, Mass., on Saturday in his bout with Mel Coogan in the sixth round. The referee declared it "no contest." Lawrence, Mass., is a city of clean sports. The patrons of boxing are drawn from the best of the New England city. What protection are they given from a repetition of the Moran-Coogan incident? Here is the first case for the new governing board. Set them both down for six months unless they can give a satisfactory excuse. Maybe

UNION BOAT CLUB BOUND FOR ENGLAND

Boston, June 3.—Officials of the Union Boat Club of this city announced tonight that the crew representing the club which is to compete in the English Henley Regatta for the Grand Challenge Cup will sail for England on the Rotterdam on June 10. Members of the club comprise Harvard University undergraduates.

they were "stalling" for a return bout. There have been other instances during the last two weeks not 100 miles from Philadelphia.

Have Upset Ring Tradition.
Probably in no other sport do champions pass so quickly as in boxing. A few years on the average and they are gone into the discard, rarely to return to a place at or near the crest. Yet two of those who hold crowns in stanzas somehow have managed to weather the storms of passing years. They are Johnny Kilbane, world's featherweight champion for the last eight years, and Jack Britton, the thirty-seven year old king of the welterweights. These are the two exceptions to the rule that champions of the ring do not last and both because of their cleverness and clean living have upset tradition.

Resolute Won The First Race

First of Three Races to Determine Yacht to Defend America's Cup Yesterday—Vanitie Over Five Minutes Behind.

Newport, R. I., June 3.—The Resolute defeated the Vanitie today in the first of the three races to determine which yacht shall defend the America's Cup against Sir Thomas Lipton's challenger, Shamrock IV. The race was sailed over a 28-mile windward and leeward course in a moderate breeze, the Resolute crossing the finish line the victor by four minutes and seven seconds elapsed time, and five minutes and three seconds corrected time.

Both yachts had slight accidents during the race. Vanitie's main sheet boiled, which delayed her for a few seconds; while in the Resolute the jaws on the gaff jumped out of the mast as she was turning the outer mark. Both boats made repairs in the harbor tonight, and will meet again tomorrow over a triangular course.

Skipper Charles F. Adams, of the Resolute, won the honors at the start, when he berthed his yacht on the weather of the Vanitie and obtained a commanding lead in the first five minutes. Vanitie was handicapped seven seconds at the start.

On the beat along the Narragansett shore Vanitie drew up on the Resolute in a smooch with three runners on the outer mark, and at one time the two yachts were almost even terms.

Manager Emmens, of the Resolute, said afterwards that his gain was due to short hitches along the out-of-bounds line which the two managers had arranged along this part of the course. During the trial races the yachts will keep outside a line drawn from Beaver Tail Light to Point Judith. The Resolute was three minutes and forty seconds ahead of her rival at the turn. Manager Hoyt, of the Vanitie, explained this gain by stating that his boat ran into a soft air pocket off Point Judith.

After the Resolute's accident, as she
