

FROM ALL OVER THE MARITIME PROVINCES

NEWCASTLE

Newcastle, Aug. 28.—The body of Marjorie, infant daughter and only child of Mr. and Mrs. Donald C. Grimmer, was taken to St. Stephen for burial yesterday.

The body of Charles, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Elkanah Delano, of Douglstown, was interred in St. Mary's cemetery here yesterday.

John Stothart, who died suddenly in Vancouver on the 17th instant, was a native of Ferry Road in this parish, where his mother, Mrs. David Stothart, and his sister, Mrs. Mary McMurtry, still reside. The only surviving brother is D. W. Stothart, general merchant, of Newcastle. Deceased had been in Vancouver about eight years, and at the time of his death was in the grocery business. He was but 51 years old. Geo. S. Stothart, head of the Stothart Mercantile Co. of Newcastle, is an uncle of deceased.

Principal and Mrs. L. R. Hetherington are home from attending L. O. G. T. grand lodge in Queens county last week. Miss Alice Harrison has returned to Summerside. P. E. Quinlan, who was visiting from St. John, has returned to Summerside.

Miss Helen MacMichael returned Saturday from Rogerville, accompanied by Miss Helen Maloney, who spent Sunday with her.

Miss Annie Bell has returned from a visit to Amherst, and Miss Josie Jeffrey from Taboulinac.

Newcastle, Aug. 27.—Newcastle schools opened yesterday with several changes in the teaching staff. Arthur H. Barry, of Fredericton, teaches grade VIII. in place of Walter S. Doherty, who moved to Woodstock. Miss Jennie MacMaster, grades I. and II. in Adams school, vice Miss Craig, who went on leave. Miss Irene McCook, grades III. and IV. in Adams school, in place of Miss Davidson, transferred to grade I. Harkins Academy, formerly taught by Miss Minnie Pedoff, resigned.

Douglstown Superior school reopened with same staff of teachers, each of whom were re-engaged for coming year at an increased salary.

L. B. McMurdo, who up to 1910 was a successful clothing merchant and tailor here, and then removed to the west, finally settling in Calgary, has returned with his family. He will stay in New Brunswick, probably settling in Moncton.

Miss Eastwood, of Toronto, is visiting Miss Beale Crocker.

Miss Maggie Driscoll, of Bangor (Me.), is visiting her uncle, George Driscoll, of Douglstown.

Miss Kate Driscoll, of Douglstown, is teaching at Grandfield.

SALISBURY

Salisbury, N. B., Aug. 28.—Miss Miller, of St. Martins, arrived in Salisbury Monday morning and will enter upon her duties on the Salisbury school teaching staff on Tuesday. Miss Miller is a new principal, is in Ottawa, and will not reach here until September 1.

Edward Taylor, of Melrose (Mass.), is visiting at Salisbury, the guest of his brother, General Taylor, and his sister, Mrs. Herbert Parker.

Miss Isabel Foster, teacher, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Foster, left on Saturday evening for St. John, to enter upon the city school teaching staff.

Mrs. Douglas Steves, an aged and prominent resident of Salisbury, who has been in a critical state of health for some time, passed away on Saturday evening the 28th inst., at the home of her eldest son, James Steves. She is survived by a grown up family, several of her sons being located in the West. Jarvis Steves, of Moncton, and Sutton Steves, of Boundary Creek, are brothers of the late Mr. Steves. James Steves, of Coverdale, and Gabriel Steves, of Allison, are half-brothers, and Mrs. Frank Steves, of Boundary Creek, is a half-sister. The funeral, which was conducted by Rev. F. G. France, took place Monday afternoon, interment in the cemetery at Boundary Creek.

HOPEWELL HILL

Hopewell Hill, Aug. 28.—The three masted schooner Eddie Theriault has arrived at the Cape with a cargo of molasses for Moncton. The schooner has the reputation of being a fast craft, and some time ago made the run from Sandy Hook to Halifax in sixty hours, which it said, has remained the record for such a trip. She is commanded by Capt. Theriault.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hutchins, of Rimford Falls, are visiting their former home at Hopewell Cape, after an absence of fifteen years.

Lester Fale, of Amherst, is the guest of his cousin, James E. Fale, at the Hill.

Mrs. Geo. Kierstead and Miss Ethel Creary have returned to St. John, after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cote.

Miss Ethel Stevens returned recently from Leamington (N. S.), where she has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Geo. Nelson, for several months.

Principal Scamman and Miss Patterson will be engaged by the Riverview Consolidated School, the new members of the staff being Miss Addison, Miss

Dunn, Miss McIntyre and Mr. McKeown

Hopewell Hill, Aug. 28.—The steamer Nith arrived at Grandstone Island this morning to load deals for J. Nelson Smith and J. L. Peck.

George Wallace, a former well known Albert county resident, now of Picton (N. S.), is visiting relatives at Hillsboro.

Mrs. and Mrs. Percy Nelson, of Lower Cape, have returned from a quite extended visit to Nova Scotia.

Walter S. Jones and Captain John Lunn, of Grand Ledge, were present at Grand Ledge meetings at St. John this week.

Mrs. Robert Macfarlane, of Woburn (Mass.), who was in this week of her sister, Mrs. J. C. Stevens.

Hopewell Hill, Aug. 28.—John K. Dixon has sold his property at Mountville, consisting of a farm, a mill, and a sawmill, to Mr. and Mrs. Lorenzo Milton, of Lynn (Mass.), who have been visiting relatives hereabouts.

Miss Mary Russell returned yesterday from a visit to Mills (Mass.).

Miss Amelia Nelson, of Leamington (N. S.), is visiting her brothers at Lower Cape.

F. J. Newcomb, railway mail clerk, of St. John, spent a few days at his old home here this week.

Miss Nora McLeod, of Albert, has returned from an enjoyable two weeks' visit to Hampton.

Miss Mary Russell is in the village today inspecting the equipment of "G" company, 14th Regiment.

Hopewell Cape, this week, is in the possession of the Seventh Day Sabbath Keepers, the maritime convention being in full blast. Six or seven preachers among the most eloquent of the sect are present, and a large number of delegates from points throughout the maritime provinces. The delegates conduct a dining room of their own and lodgings are had among the villagers. Meetings are held three times a day, and appear to find considerable favor outside their own persuasion, one local minister offering his pulpit on Sunday to one of the visiting preachers.

FREDERICTON

Fredricton, Aug. 28.—It is generally understood that the late Alexander Gibson died a poor man.

Nominations for the York municipal election took place yesterday. In Kingsclear the councillors were returned unopposed. In Stanley Councillor Griffin retired and ex-Councillor C. W. Pond was elected. In St. Marys, ex-councillor Forbes was nominated in opposition to the old councillor but it is not believed he will remain in the field.

John Scott is being tried before Judge White at Fredericton today. The defence is in connection with jambering and plaintiff seeks to recover $200 which he claims was overpaid to defendant. The defence claims that there is a balance due him.

W. H. Allen has returned from Ontario, where he guided a party of American divers. Misses Burns, of New Brunswick, who were on the trip but who claim they are not as plentiful there as in New Brunswick.

John H. Hart, a seriously injured Moncton man, who was in a boat on the day of the explosion, is being treated at the hospital. He is recovering and is expected to be discharged in a few days.

Mrs. Nason, widow of Ex-Cong. Abraham Nason, died at New Maryland yesterday.

NORTON

Norton, N. B., Aug. 28.—Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Carson have gone to Toronto for a few days.

Mrs. McLaughlin and Miss Jane McLaughlin, of Sussex, are spending a few days with Mrs. John Jamieson.

Miss Mackenzie, of Ipswich (Mass.), is spending a few weeks at the home of her sister, Mrs. Harmer.

Miss Jessie Burns has gone to New Glasgow (N. S.), to visit friends.

Mr. Bush has arrived from New Hampshire to spend a few weeks with his family, who are summering here.

Mrs. Warren Baxter and family, who have been spending a few weeks with friends here, returned yesterday to their home in St. John.

DORCHESTER

Dorchester, N. B., Aug. 28.—A band of gypsies, hailing from Quebec, and travelling through New Brunswick, when a few miles this side of Moncton yesterday morning, made a brutal assault upon a man named Williams, beating him unmercifully. Williams went to Moncton today and swore out a warrant against a number of the band before the proper authorities.

This afternoon Officers Webb and Belliveau, of the Moncton police force, arrested a number of the gypsies, and a few miles from town. Officer Holland had received word from Moncton to be on the lookout for the gypsies with the result that the capture of them was an easy matter for the Moncton police. The officers left town by the evening train taking with them one woman and four men.

The condition of Justice Landry is considerably improved this evening.

WOODSTOCK

Woodstock, N. B., Aug. 27.—At a meeting of the directors of the Galtic Black Fox Breeding Company, Ltd., held here Aug. 25, a dividend of 30 per cent was declared. This company, composed of Woodstock business men with local capital, was organized less than nine months ago.

G. B. Farrell, a civil engineer, who arrived only a few days ago from Ontario to take up his duties on the Valley railway, was seized with sudden illness at his hotel here yesterday.

Miss Flora Allison was yesterday to Westmorland county to teach school. Mr. and Mrs. Charles McCafferty, who were visiting Mr. McCafferty's mother, have returned to their home in St. John.

Miss Edna O'Leary went to Kent Junction yesterday, where she will teach school. Mr. J. S. Clark has returned from a visit to relatives in Kouchibouguette, and is again visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Robertson.

Miss Annie McKeown, of Moncton, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Robichaud.

Miss Annie McKinnon, of Boston, is spending a few days with her mother, Mrs. Hugh Dalgle.

ST. GEORGE

St. George, Aug. 28.—Bishop LeBlanc, of St. John, arrived here yesterday. He is accompanied by the vicar general, Rev. Father Chapman. The bishop's visit is for the purpose of attending to the affairs of the diocese. He will be in St. George for a few days.

An impressive feature of the service was the giving of a pledge against intoxicating liquors, by the bishop, who spoke very strongly on the evils of intemperance and pledged all the young people to total abstinence until they were twenty-one.

Mr. Hart is a moving picture operator from New York who has arranged for a three months' sojourn at Adam Moore's camp on the Tobique. He will secure pictures of his logs and other scenes.

Mrs. Nason, widow of Ex-Cong. Abraham Nason, died at New Maryland yesterday.

The schools opened this morning. The winning of the high school entrance medal for the county by Louis LeBlanc, of this town, speaks well for St. George's schools, it being the second time in three years the honor has come here.

Preparations for the big Labor day celebration here go on apace. Many of the prizes to be given for the various events are on exhibition in different places.

The baseball game, St. Peter's of St. John, vs. the Border cities' best aggregation of ball tossers, is expected to be a close and exciting. Some of the best players in the province are expected to participate.

A run of suicides, first quality, comprising a good price, is making the waterfront about the Oven Head and Bonabec shores happy.

RICHIBUCTO

Richibucto, Aug. 27.—Miss Grace W. then went yesterday to Sackville, where she will teach the elementary grades in the school.

The grammar school here opened today with only one change in the teaching staff—Miss Ella Kavanagh, who succeeds Mrs. Chas. in the primary department. The principal, Mrs. C. A. Robinson, B. A., of Cambridge, Queen's county, came on Monday.

Miss Agnes Flanagan, who has been spending vacation with her mother, Mrs. Flanagan, returned to Sackville yesterday.

Constipation is an enemy within the camp. It will undermine the strongest constitution and ruin the most vigorous health. It leads to indigestion, biliousness, impure blood, bad complexion, sick headache, and other frequent causes of appendicitis. To neglect it is to invite disaster. Dr. Morse's Indian Root Pills is the only reliable remedy for Constipation. They are entirely vegetable in composition and do not weaken, loosen the bowels, or irritate the system. They are the only pills that will cure Constipation. Never allow a ailment to hang in the sunlight, or the backing will become a chronic habit.

PHILIPPA AND KEPT THE RESTIGOUCHE

Suffered Tortures Until "Fruit-a-Lives" Cured Him

McMillan's Corner, Ont., Sept. 20th, 1910. "Your remedy, 'Fruit-a-Lives' is a perfect panacea for Rheumatism. For years I suffered distressing pain from Sciatica or Sciatica Rheumatism, being laid up several times a year for days at a time. I went to different doctors who told me there was no use doing anything—it would pass away. They gave me mustard plasters and other remedies that did no good. I took many advertised remedies without benefit, but fortunately, about two years ago, I got 'Fruit-a-Lives' and they cured me.

Since then, I take 'Fruit-a-Lives' occasionally and keep free of pain. I am satisfied 'Fruit-a-Lives' cured my Rheumatism and they will cure anyone who takes them as directed. If this letter would be of value to you, please write to me.

JOHN E. McDONALD. Indeed, this is of value to us and to the thousands of sufferers from Rheumatism, Sciatica, Lumbago and Neuralgia. It points the way to a certain cure. A box, 50¢; 3 boxes, $1.50. At dealers or from Fruit-a-Lives Limited, Ottawa.

Martin Flanagan, returned yesterday to Moncton, where she is stenographer for a law firm.

Mrs. Chrystal, former elementary teacher here, is spending a few days in St. John.

Miss Flora Allison was yesterday to Westmorland county to teach school. Mr. and Mrs. Charles McCafferty, who were visiting Mr. McCafferty's mother, have returned to their home in St. John.

Miss Edna O'Leary went to Kent Junction yesterday, where she will teach school. Mr. J. S. Clark has returned from a visit to relatives in Kouchibouguette, and is again visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Robertson.

Miss Annie McKeown, of Moncton, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Robichaud.

Miss Annie McKinnon, of Boston, is spending a few days with her mother, Mrs. Hugh Dalgle.

GAVE LIBRARIES TO THEIR OLD SCHOOLS

Gilbert W. Ganong and Charles H. McIntyre the Donors.

Interesting Meeting at Hatfield's Point to Receive the Generous Gifts—Mr. McIntyre Also Instrumental in Raising $900 to Improve the Village Cemetery.

Hatfield's Point, Aug. 26.—A very interesting and instructive meeting of mature nature was held last evening at Hatfield's Point, where the generous gifts of Gilbert W. Ganong and Charles H. McIntyre to the schools were presented to the trustees of the schools, who were bestowing upon the Baptist church.

A splendid programme was presented, consisting of choruses, songs by H. Wetmore, and readings by Mrs. Renick, teacher of elocution at Wolfville Seminary.

Souvenir flags were distributed to the children of the schools. The gift of Warden Nobles, of St. John, but the chief features of the evening were the speeches of Charles McIntyre and Gilbert W. Ganong, who were present in person. They were warmly applauded and thanked for their generous gifts, on behalf of the trustees of the schools by Rev. W. H. Wetmore.

Mr. McIntyre at Hatfield's Point. After a colloquy to the effect that the work just accomplished by Byron, and who sent despatches of the engagement by Wallis to the governor.

Charles H. McIntyre and Gilbert W. Ganong were the generous donors of the libraries given in loving memory of their early education in these schools. Mr. McIntyre at Hatfield's Point. After a colloquy to the effect that the work just accomplished by Byron, and who sent despatches of the engagement by Wallis to the governor.

Mr. McIntyre at Hatfield's Point. After a colloquy to the effect that the work just accomplished by Byron, and who sent despatches of the engagement by Wallis to the governor.

Mr. McIntyre at Hatfield's Point. After a colloquy to the effect that the work just accomplished by Byron, and who sent despatches of the engagement by Wallis to the governor.

Mr. McIntyre at Hatfield's Point. After a colloquy to the effect that the work just accomplished by Byron, and who sent despatches of the engagement by Wallis to the governor.

Mr. McIntyre at Hatfield's Point. After a colloquy to the effect that the work just accomplished by Byron, and who sent despatches of the engagement by Wallis to the governor.

Mr. McIntyre at Hatfield's Point. After a colloquy to the effect that the work just accomplished by Byron, and who sent despatches of the engagement by Wallis to the governor.

Mr. McIntyre at Hatfield's Point. After a colloquy to the effect that the work just accomplished by Byron, and who sent despatches of the engagement by Wallis to the governor.

How French Girl Aided British Sailor to Escape

A LONG SWIM

Young Man, With Whom She Had Fallen in Love, Nearly Exhausted When Taken Aboard English Ship—The Interesting Site of the Acadia Village of La Petite Rochelle.

(By Margaret Grant Macpherson, in The Westminister for July.)

The Restigouche river—meaning "Five Finger River"—forming part of the boundary between northern New Brunswick and Quebec in America. This quiet, sequestered corner of eastern Quebec witnessed the last throes in the struggle known as the "seven years' war."

The Restigouche river—meaning "Five Finger River"—forming part of the boundary between northern New Brunswick and Quebec in America. This quiet, sequestered corner of eastern Quebec witnessed the last throes in the struggle known as the "seven years' war."

The Restigouche river—meaning "Five Finger River"—forming part of the boundary between northern New Brunswick and Quebec in America. This quiet, sequestered corner of eastern Quebec witnessed the last throes in the struggle known as the "seven years' war."

The Restigouche river—meaning "Five Finger River"—forming part of the boundary between northern New Brunswick and Quebec in America. This quiet, sequestered corner of eastern Quebec witnessed the last throes in the struggle known as the "seven years' war."

The Restigouche river—meaning "Five Finger River"—forming part of the boundary between northern New Brunswick and Quebec in America. This quiet, sequestered corner of eastern Quebec witnessed the last throes in the struggle known as the "seven years' war."

The Restigouche river—meaning "Five Finger River"—forming part of the boundary between northern New Brunswick and Quebec in America. This quiet, sequestered corner of eastern Quebec witnessed the last throes in the struggle known as the "seven years' war."

The Restigouche river—meaning "Five Finger River"—forming part of the boundary between northern New Brunswick and Quebec in America. This quiet, sequestered corner of eastern Quebec witnessed the last throes in the struggle known as the "seven years' war."

The Restigouche river—meaning "Five Finger River"—forming part of the boundary between northern New Brunswick and Quebec in America. This quiet, sequestered corner of eastern Quebec witnessed the last throes in the struggle known as the "seven years' war."

The Restigouche river—meaning "Five Finger River"—forming part of the boundary between northern New Brunswick and Quebec in America. This quiet, sequestered corner of eastern Quebec witnessed the last throes in the struggle known as the "seven years' war."

The Restigouche river—meaning "Five Finger River"—forming part of the boundary between northern New Brunswick and Quebec in America. This quiet, sequestered corner of eastern Quebec witnessed the last throes in the struggle known as the "seven years' war."

The Restigouche river—meaning "Five Finger River"—forming part of the boundary between northern New Brunswick and Quebec in America. This quiet, sequestered corner of eastern Quebec witnessed the last throes in the struggle known as the "seven years' war."

The Restigouche river—meaning "Five Finger River"—forming part of the boundary between northern New Brunswick and Quebec in America. This quiet, sequestered corner of eastern Quebec witnessed the last throes in the struggle known as the "seven years' war."

The Restigouche river—meaning "Five Finger River"—forming part of the boundary between northern New Brunswick and Quebec in America. This quiet, sequestered corner of eastern Quebec witnessed the last throes in the struggle known as the "seven years' war."

The Restigouche river—meaning "Five Finger River"—forming part of the boundary between northern New Brunswick and Quebec in America. This quiet, sequestered corner of eastern Quebec witnessed the last throes in the struggle known as the "seven years' war."

The Restigouche river—meaning "Five Finger River"—forming part of the boundary between northern New Brunswick and Quebec in America. This quiet, sequestered corner of eastern Quebec witnessed the last throes in the struggle known as the "seven years' war."

The Restigouche river—meaning "Five Finger River"—forming part of the boundary between northern New Brunswick and Quebec in America. This quiet, sequestered corner of eastern Quebec witnessed the last throes in the struggle known as the "seven years' war."

The Restigouche river—meaning "Five Finger River"—forming part of the boundary between northern New Brunswick and Quebec in America. This quiet, sequestered corner of eastern Quebec witnessed the last throes in the struggle known as the "seven years' war."

The Restigouche river—meaning "Five Finger River"—forming part of the boundary between northern New Brunswick and Quebec in America. This quiet, sequestered corner of eastern Quebec witnessed the last throes in the struggle known as the "seven years' war."

The Restigouche river—meaning "Five Finger River"—forming part of the boundary between northern New Brunswick and Quebec in America. This quiet, sequestered corner of eastern Quebec witnessed the last throes in the struggle known as the "seven years' war."

The Restigouche river—meaning "Five Finger River"—forming part of the boundary between northern New Brunswick and Quebec in America. This quiet, sequestered corner of eastern Quebec witnessed the last throes in the struggle known as the "seven years' war."

The Restigouche river—meaning "Five Finger River"—forming part of the boundary between northern New Brunswick and Quebec in America. This quiet, sequestered corner of eastern Quebec witnessed the last throes in the struggle known as the "seven years' war."

SLIT SKIRT FINDS LITTLE FAVOR HERE

St. John Women Do Not Care for Paris and New York Extremes

MORE CONSERVATIVE

Fine Compliment Paid Them by an American Visitor Tuesday—What Some of the Buyers Have to Say—Some of the Latest Things in Dress.

Wednesday, Aug. 27. The remark of an American visitor to St. John, J. K. McDonald, started a Telegraph reporter yesterday on his quest for the arbiters of fashion in the Brunswick metropolis. The remark was: "St. John women dress more conservatively than any body of women in the world, with the possible exception of London. Paris with only a touch of the extremes of New York is dowdy. The women of London are adopting the French styles more and more and are, in fact, even becoming more during the Parisienne."

"New York women dress absurdly, not fashionably. They are ignorantly displaying the conception for England and St. John women are more dowdy. The women of London are adopting the French styles more and more and are, in fact, even becoming more during the Parisienne."

"New York women dress absurdly, not fashionably. They are ignorantly displaying the conception for England and St. John women are more dowdy. The women of London are adopting the French styles more and more and are, in fact, even becoming more during the Parisienne."

"New York women dress absurdly, not fashionably. They are ignorantly displaying the conception for England and St. John women are more dowdy. The women of London are adopting the French styles more and more and are, in fact, even becoming more during the Parisienne."

"New York women dress absurdly, not fashionably. They are ignorantly displaying the conception for England and St. John women are more dowdy. The women of London are adopting the French styles more and more and are, in fact, even becoming more during the Parisienne."

"New York women dress absurdly, not fashionably. They are ignorantly displaying the conception for England and St. John women are more dowdy. The women of London are adopting the French styles more and more and are, in fact, even becoming more during the Parisienne."

"New York women dress absurdly, not fashionably. They are ignorantly displaying the conception for England and St. John women are more dowdy. The women of London are adopting the French styles more and more and are, in fact, even becoming more during the Parisienne."

"New York women dress absurdly, not fashionably. They are ignorantly displaying the conception for England and St. John women are more dowdy. The women of London are adopting the French styles more and more and are, in fact, even becoming more during the Parisienne."

"New York women dress absurdly, not fashionably. They are ignorantly displaying the conception for England and St. John women are more dowdy. The women of London are adopting the French styles more and more and are, in fact, even becoming more during the Parisienne."

"New York women dress absurdly, not fashionably. They are ignorantly displaying the conception for England and St. John women are more dowdy. The women of London are adopting the French styles more and more and are, in fact, even becoming more during the Parisienne."

"New York women dress absurdly, not fashionably. They are ignorantly displaying the conception for England and St. John women are more dowdy. The women of London are adopting the French styles more and more and are, in fact, even becoming more during the Parisienne."

"New York women dress absurdly, not fashionably. They are ignorantly displaying the conception for England and St. John women are more dowdy. The women of London are adopting the French styles more and more and are, in fact, even becoming more during the Parisienne."

"New York women dress absurdly, not fashionably. They are ignorantly displaying the conception for England and St. John women are more dowdy. The women of London are adopting the French styles more and more and are, in fact, even becoming more during the Parisienne."

"New York women dress absurdly, not fashionably. They are ignorantly displaying the conception for England and St. John women are more dowdy. The women of London are adopting the French styles more and more and are, in fact, even becoming more during the Parisienne."

"New York women dress absurdly, not fashionably. They are ignorantly displaying the conception for England and St. John women are more dowdy. The women of London are adopting the French styles more and more and are, in fact, even becoming more during the Parisienne."

"New York women dress absurdly, not fashionably. They are ignorantly displaying the conception for England and St. John women are more dowdy. The women of London are adopting the French styles more and more and are, in fact, even becoming more during the Parisienne."

"New York women dress absurdly, not fashionably. They are ignorantly displaying the conception for England and St. John women are more dowdy. The women of London are adopting the French styles more and more and are, in fact, even becoming more during the Parisienne."

"New York women dress absurdly, not fashionably. They are ignorantly displaying the conception for England and St. John women are more dowdy. The women of London are adopting the French styles more and more and are, in fact, even becoming more during the Parisienne."

"New York women dress absurdly, not fashionably. They are ignorantly displaying the conception for England and St. John women are more dowdy. The women of London are adopting the French styles more and more and are, in fact, even becoming more during the Parisienne."

"New York women dress absurdly, not fashionably. They are ignorantly displaying the conception for England and St. John women are more dowdy. The women of London are adopting the French styles more and more and are, in fact, even becoming more during the Parisienne."

"New York women dress absurdly, not fashionably. They are ignorantly displaying the conception for England and St. John women are more dowdy. The women of London are adopting the French styles more and more and are, in fact, even becoming more during the Parisienne."

U.S. Government Aid

Will Preserve S and Let The United and Proper Respected or Be Exacted Received.

Washington, Aug. 28.—The American ambassador in London, Mr. Wilson, is expected to return to the United States in a few days. He is expected to bring with him a report on the state of affairs in the United States.

Washington, Aug. 28.—The American ambassador in London, Mr. Wilson, is expected to return to the United States in a few days. He is expected to bring with him a report on the state of affairs in the United States.

Washington, Aug. 28.—The American ambassador in London, Mr. Wilson, is expected to return to the United States in a few days. He is expected to bring with him a report on the state of affairs in the United States.

Washington, Aug. 28.—The American ambassador in London, Mr. Wilson, is expected to return to the United States in a few days. He is expected to bring with him a report on the state of affairs in the United States.

Washington, Aug. 28.—The American ambassador in London, Mr. Wilson, is expected to return to the United States in a few days. He is expected to bring with him a report on the state of affairs in the United States.

Washington, Aug. 28.—The American ambassador in London, Mr. Wilson, is expected to return to the United States in a few days. He is expected to bring with him a report on the state of affairs in the United States.