

General Regulations

Every student is expected to be gentlemanly in his deportment at all times and in all places ; to faithfully observe the hours for study and recreation ; to be prompt in attendance at the opening exercises each day and at meals ; to properly observe the Sabbath, and regularly attend public worship and Bible Class ; to be punctual at every recitation, or explain personally why he cannot attend ; to be respectful to teachers ; to make faithful effort to perform every duty assigned ;—such in the main, are the regulations of the School, and every student who applies for admission is received only on condition of agreeing to the same. Students are forbidden to use firearms of any kind or to have them in their keeping while members of the Academy. Profane language is absolutely forbidden. The use of tobacco in the Academy Home or about the premises is forbidden.

A list of regulations is placed in the hands of the students.

Daily Record

A record of deportment and scholarship is kept, and will be forwarded to parents and guardians at the end of each term, if desired. The deportment record will not only determine in part the standing of students as such, but also in part their admission to College. A wholesome discipline is maintained.

Disregard of Academic regulations, improper conduct of any kind, and inattention to study will be promptly dealt with.

Students whose habits are damaging to the welfare of the School will be removed, if milder disciplinary measures fail to effect reform ; the design being to protect the diligent and well-disposed rather than reform the indolent and vicious.

Parents are requested not to send a boy habitually indolent or unmanageable at home.

Principles of Government

1. In seeking the development of right character and the power of self Government in each student, the Golden Rule, "Do unto others as they should do unto you," is made the foundation of every requirement.

2. The relation of teacher and student involves a pledge on the part of each to regard the interests of the other as sacred, which
