

1889, having acted all the time as Genl. Secy. of the Ex. Comte. for the Dist. of Montreal. The success of the Lib. party in that dist. at the provl. g. e. 1897, was due almost entirely to his efforts. He m. Jan., 1886, Josephine, 2nd dau. of the Hon. F. G. Marchand, now Premier of Quebec. Mad. D. is a V. P. of the local branch of the National Council of Women of Can., founded by the Countess of Aberdeen, and has read several valuable papers before that body. She is also a V. P. of the Women's Hist. Soc. of Montreal, and hon. French Secy. of the Montreal Comte., organized in connection with the Victorian Order of Nurses. She founded a monthly literary review, Le Coin du Feu, which is in its 4th year, and has published "Les Contes de Noël," a vol. of essays, and 3 comedies: "Une Rancune," "La Carte Postale," and "Le Langage des Fleurs," which were played in Montreal and Quebec.—704 Sherbrooke St., Montreal.

"As a clear-sighted politician and organizer he has no superior."—Herald.

DANIEL, Rev. François (R. C.), was b. at Contance, France, Sept. 6, 1820. Ordained to the priesthood, 1847, he joined the Sulpician Order, and came to Can. the same year. He has throughout been connected with the Ch. of Notre Dame, Montreal, his principal work being to attend to the religious training and instruction of the pupils at the different girls' schs. (R. C.) in Montreal. In his moments of leisure he has prepared for publication, in addition to several educational and religious tracts, a work entitled, "L'Histoire des Principales Familles du Canada" (1867).—Semy. of St. Sulpice, Montreal.

DANSEREAU, Clement Arthur, Dom. civil service, is the eld. s. of the late Clement Dansereau, by his wife, Louise Fiset. B. at Contre-cœur, P.Q., July 5, 1844, he was ed. at Verchères and at L'Assomption Coll. He studied law with the present Mr. Justice Girouard, at the same time following the law course at McGill Univ. (B.C.L., 1865), and was called to the bar the same year. While a student he contributed both in prose and verse to the press, and lectured before the Inst. Canadien and other bodies. Subsequently, he devoted his entire attention to journalism, and he was for 13 yrs. one of the eds. of La Minerve, the leading organ of the French-Can. wing of the Con. party. He eventually succeeded to the proprietorship of the paper, and was of great assistance to his political friends, chief among whom was and is Sir Adolphe Chapeau. After leaving La Minerve, he assumed the editorship of the Chapeau organ, La Presse. He was apptd. a mem. of the Bd. of Arts and Manf., P.Q., Jan., 1880, and Joint Clk. of the Crown and Peace, Dist. of Montreal, Aug. 3, 1880. In 1884 he was commissioned by the Mousseau Govt. to proceed to Europe for the purpose of purchasing books for the Legislative library. In Jan. 1891, he was apptd. to his present office, Postmaster of Montreal. He is the author of an unfinished work: "Annales Historiques du Coll. de l'Assomption" (1864). Mr. D. is a mem. of the R. C. Ch. He m. 1st, Marie Cordelie, dau. of the late J. Hurteau (she d. Aug. 1879); and 2ndly, 1880, the dau. of Stephen Mackay, St. Eustache (she d. Mch., 1897).—600 Dorchester St., Montreal.

DARNELL, Rev. Henry Faulkner, (Ch. of Eng.), is the s. of the late Rev. Jas. Darnell, M.A., rector of Pentlowe and Cavendish, Co. Essex, Eng., and was b. in London, Eng., 1831. Ed. at Trinity Coll., Dublin, and at Queen's Coll., Cambridge, he held for a time the Math. and Classical professorships in the Royal Sch., Raphoe, Irel., which he resigned to enter the ch. He was ordained deacon, 1858, and priest, 1859, by Dr. Musgrave, Archbp. of York, and was curate of Strensall and Bossall, 1858-9. Coming to Can., he was apptd. curate of Trinity Ch., Quebec, 1860; incumbent of Christ Ch., Stanstead, 1861; rector of St. John's, P.Q., 1861: and asst.