

42. Every transportation company that, by or under this Act, is directed to pay detention, deportation or rejection costs or to carry any person who is ordered deported or rejected shall

Duties of transportation companies to carry out deportation directions.

- (a) detain and guard safely the person concerned until he can be placed on board the vehicle on which he is to be carried;
- (b) accept on board such vehicle, guard safely and transport such person in accordance with the deportation or rejection order or other order or direction or any regulations issued or made in that behalf; and
- (c) pay such costs and, subject to any agreement between a transportation company and its passenger respecting return fares, refrain from, directly or indirectly, making any charge to or taking any remuneration or security from the deported person concerned in respect thereof.

43. Where, pursuant to section forty, a transportation company is obligated to pay the costs of deportation of a person who is to be deported, it shall be notified thereof and given an opportunity of conveying him or causing him to be conveyed on one of its own vehicles or otherwise, but, where the transportation company, after being notified, is not prompt in furnishing transportation, the Minister may direct that such person be deported by other transportation at the expense of Her Majesty and the obligated transportation company shall, on demand, reimburse Her Majesty for the transportation expenses and any costs of the detention or safeguarding of the deported person incurred while en route or otherwise.

Transportation of deported persons.

44. A transportation company bringing persons to Canada shall not, upon the arrival of its vehicle in Canada, allow

- (a) any persons to leave the vehicle at a place other than that designated by an immigration officer in charge; or
- (b) individual persons or groups of persons to leave the vehicle until permission has been granted by an immigration officer in charge or by an immigration officer authorized by him.

Duty to prevent passengers from leaving vehicle at unauthorized times or places.

45. Immigration officers may inspect any vehicle bringing persons to Canada, examine the persons carried by it, examine any records or documents respecting such persons and take copies or extracts therefrom and may hold and detain such vehicle until their inspection and examination is completed.

Rights of immigration officers to inspect vehicles, documents, etc.

46. No ship or aircraft bringing persons to Canada shall be granted clearance if the transportation company operating it or the owner or master thereof has, in the opinion of an immigration officer in charge, committed an offence under any provision of this Act or the regulations, but clearance may be granted, in the discretion of the Clearance.
