9 Geo. 4, c. 2.—AN ACT for the Relief of the Religious Societies therein mentioned.

[Passed 25th March 1828.]

WHEREAS religious societies of various denominations of Christians find difficulty in securing the title of land requisite for the site of a church, meeting-house or chapel, or burying-ground, for want of a corporate capacity to take and hold the same in perpetual succession: And whereas it is expedient to provide some safe and adequate relief in such cases; be it therefore enacted, by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and Assembly of the Province of Upper Canada, constituted and assembled by virtue of and under the authority of an Act passed in the Parliament of Great Britain, intituled, "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Act passed in the 14th year of His Majesty's reign, intituled, 'An Act for making more effectual Provision for the Government of the Province of Quebec in North America, and to make further Provision for the Government of the said Province,'" and by the authority of the same, that whenever any religious congregation or society of Presbyterians, Lutherans, Calvinists, Methodists, Congregationalists, Independents, Anabaptists, Quakers, Menonists, Tunkers, or Moravians, shall have an occasion to take a conveyance of land for any of the uses aforesaid, it shall and may be lawful for them to appoint trustees, to whom and their successors, to be appointed in such manner as shall be specified in the deed, the land requisite for all or any of the purposes aforesaid may be conveyed, and such trustees, and their successors in perpetual succession by the name expressed in such deed, shall be capable of taking, holding, and possessing such land, and of commencing and maintaining any action or actions in law or equity for the protection thereof, and of their right thereto.

Preamble.

Provision in behalf of certain religious societies, allowing lands to be held for their use by trustees and their successors in perpetual succession.

2. And be it further enacted, by the authority aforesaid, that there shall not be held in trust for the purposes aforesaid more than five acres of land for any one congregation.

No one congregation shall hold more than five acres.

3. And be it further enacted, by the authority aforesaid, that such trustees shall, within 12 months after the execution of such deed, cause the same to be registered in the office of the register of the county in which the land lies.

Trust-deeds to be registered.

4. And be it further enacted, by the authority aforesaid, that all conveyances made before the passing of this Act, for all or any of the purposes aforesaid, shall be good and valid in law, in like manner as if the same had been made after the passing of this Act, and subject to the provisions of this Act, provided such conveyance shall have been already registered, or shall be hereafter registered as aforesaid, within 12 months after the passing of this Act.

Conveyances heretofore made for the purposes of this Act made valid.

Registry.

1 Will. 4, c. 1.—AN ACT to make valid certain Marriages heretofore contracted, and to provide for the future Solemnization of Matrimony in this Province.—[Passed March 1829.]

(The Royal Assent to this Bill was signified, by Message of his Excellency the Lieutenant-governor, to the Legislative Council and Assembly of this Province, on the 2d day of March 1831.)

WHEREAS doubts have arisen respecting the legality of certain marriages heretofore contracted and solemnized in this Province: And whereas the parties thereto, and their issue, may be subject to disabilities unless such marriages be confirmed by law; in order therefore to afford relief to such persons, and establish the legitimacy of their issue, be it therefore enacted, by the King's Most
