

bonfires on the hills & everyone shouting & screaming, & singing "The Elliots are over the border". All our village was illuminated & it really looked lovely when we got to the lodge they took out the horses & pulled us, altogether they were very nice & seemed pleased to see us. I do so envy you having the glorious winter in Canada I do miss it all so much. With love & good with love & good

 the new year

I am sending you my photograph as I promised I wonder if you will think it like me. It does seem such ages
 since we left Canada
