Dec 16/25--

Dear Mr Meighen,

In reference to your inquiry of 14th - Bahan would not have been invited if I had <sup>had</sup> any idea of certain of his views. My Committee thought it would be a good thing to have a man from Montreal & they knew Bahan's name. He drew 140 to the luncheon including a head table of 22 that I invited myself.

Bahan is a nice chap but politically a lone furrow.

His address was able enough but will have no effect.
It accentuates the feeling engendered by the Hamilton address. Which is misunderstood. That I now think we could have done (over)
