

WLS 457

Am indeed interested to know that your father and mother have passed their fiftieth wedding anniversary. I wish I had known at the time and I would have wired them.

Very best wishes to you,

Yours sincerely,
Miss Lily Seale,
Hodgson, Man.

As to Don, I have no doubt at all on the list. There are a large number of applicants, as is quite understandable at this time, but as times get tough some will drop out, and he may be called sooner than you think. I will speak to General MacBrien at the first opportunity and emphasize especially the service of his father in earlier years, which I think will be more effective than anything else I can say. I am very doubtful whether anything will be effective or not.
