Sir,

In reply to your letter of the 11th ultimo, applying for a credit to meet outstanding cheques I have to inform you that no further credit can at present be granted. You should forward all accounts and requisitions for salaries to head quarters. The manner of adjusting your Bank account will have to be decided at some future time when the culpability of the Bank in cashing Mr. Wright's cheques has been ascertained.

I am

Sir,
your obedient servant
