

BELL & COCKBURN'S EMPIRE REWARDS FOR BOYS AND GIRLS.

Cr. 8vo, average length 270 pp., with Frontispiece in Colours, and charming illustrations in duo tone by leading artists.

Price 75 cents per vol.

THE TREASURE HUNTERS. By JOHN MACKIE.
A bracing story of quest and adventure.

JUNK AHOY. By W. C. METCALFE.
One of Mr. Metcalfe's best sea stories.

THE FORTUNES OF JOYCE. By L. E. TIDDEMAN.
A delightful girls' story.

THE PERILS OF PETERKIN. By ROBERT LEIGHTON.
A delightful story of adventure in the Canadian Rockies.

THE KING'S PARDON. By ROBERT OVERTON.
One of Mr. Overton's best stories.

THE GIRLS OF ST. BEDE'S. By GERALDINE MÖCKLER.
A charming school story for girls.

COMMON CHORDS. By RAYMOND JACBERNS.
A story for girls, of great force and charm.

---

Extra crown 8vo, average length over 300 pp., with Frontispiece in colours, emblematic end papers, and several charming illustrations in duo tone by leading artists.

Price $1.00 per vol.

FAIRY GROUND. By LADY MACALISTER.
A splendid story for boys and girls.

THE FOURTH FORM AT WESTBOURNE. By CHAS.
J. MANSFORD. A fine healthy school story for boys.

FAGS AND THE KING. By CHAS. J. MANSFORD.
A delightful story for placing in the hands of any boy.

THE BRIG 'JANE MARY.' By FRANCIS MARLOWE.
No boy could wish for a better book.

THE WILD RUTHVENS. By CURTIS YORKE.
Probably Curtis Yorke's best book.

THE REBELLION OF MARGARET. By GERALDINE
MÖCKLER. Undoubtedly one of Miss Möckler's best efforts.

---

TORONTO: BELL & COCKBURN