Seven Seedlings for Planting Out.

Selected by Robert Stark.

1. Prayer.—"The empty vessel is by prayer carried to the full fountain."—St. Augustine.
2. Joy.—"Ours is a sunny religion, born of Divine love; and one of the fruits of the Holy Spirit is joy. A joyless Christian is a libel on his profession. We ought to walk so close to Jesus as to be always in His sunshine, and make so little of earthly ills and vexations and losses as never to let them envelop us in an atmosphere of arctic midnight. Every follower of Christ should strive to make his daily life a song as well as a Gospel sermon."—Rev. Theodore L. Cuyler, D.D.
3. Intercession.—"Intercession is the very safety-valve of love. When we feel that we really can do nothing at all in return for some remarkable kindness and affection, how exceedingly glad we are that we may and can pray."—Frances Ridley Havergal.
4. Influence.—"The true Christian is like the sun, which pursues his noiseless track, and everywhere leaves the effects of his beams in blessing upon the world around him."—Luther.
5. Truth.—"The importance of truth, and of the knowledge of truth to all men, was unknown in any practical way to heathenism, and may be considered as due essentially to Christianity."—Rev. Frederick Myer.
6. Our Life.—"Life is a building. It rises slowly, day by day, through the years. Every new lesson we learn lays a block on the edifice which is rising silently within us. Every experience, every touch of another life on ours, every book we read, every conversation we have, every act of our commonest days, adds something to the invisible building."—Rev. J. R. Miller, D.D.
7. Individuality.—"Our paths are like the path of a ship—a line of dancing foam, which sparkles in sunlight a few moments, and then closes in darkness. The ship that follows must cleave her own way as if the sea had never been sailed on before."—Rev. Alexander Phimister, M.A.
