"EDITION LA PLUS COMPLETE" says BRUNET. This good old monk and successful author was born in Paris in 1663. He went in 1694 as a missionary to the West Indies, and after twelve years of continuous and devoted labors returned to Paris and published the above capital description.

Canadian Biography. The Canadian Portrait Gallery, by John Charles Dent, assisted by a staff of contributors. Profusely illustrated by very fine full page lithographed portraits. 4 vols, 4to, cloth gilt, gilt edges. as new, 15.00. Toronto, 1880-81. 3

The above is out of print, published at 20.00, and is rapidly rising in value.

"This is by long odds the best work of Canadian biography. It is written with a genuine enthusiasm for the subject, and not as a mere compilation with the main object in view of extorting money from the pockets of those whose portraits were engraved. The portraits are very fine, indeed much the best of the kind ever produced in Canada."

Acts of Parliament 1761-1767. ABOVE ONE HUNDRED INTERESTING OLD ACTS, with separate titles, and above 1700 PAGES OF GOOD ENGLISH Black Letter, running consecutively; also 171 pages of abstract in "pica." Two thick folio vols, rough law calf; with the ARMS OF GEORGE III. on a large red label on the four covers. 10.50. Basket, 1766-7. 4

These rare old volumes contain the Acts for which Americans should be thankful. Here are the titles:

For the free Importation of Corn, etc., from America; For Repeal of the American Stamp Duties; For securing the Dependency of the British American Dominions; For amending and rendering more effectual the Mutiny Act in America; For establishing certain ports in Jamaica, etc.; For repealing certain Duties in the British Colonies; Exportation of non-enumerated goods from the British Colonies in America; For allowing the importation of Wheat Duty free from the British Colonies in America; For appointing resident Commissioners of the Customs in America; For granting certain Duties in the British American Colonies, and for discountenancing the drawbacks on china earthenware, etc., exported to America, etc.: FOR RESTRAINING THE GOVERNOR, COUNCIL and HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF NEW YORK FROM PASSING ANY ACT OR RESOLUTION, TILL PROVISION BE MADE FOR FURNISHING THE KING'S TROOPS WITH ALL THE NECESSARIES REQUIRED BY LAW.

It was in 1768 the troops landed at Boston; Lord North became Prime Minister 1770, and the fatal affray between the English soldiers and the Boston people, same year. The taxed tea was thrown into the sea 1773.

Cobbett. (William.) PORCUPINE'S WORKS. Writings and selections exhibiting a faithful picture of the United States of America; of their Governments, Laws, politics and resources; of the characters of their Presidents, governors, legislators, magistrates, and military men; and of the customs, manners, morals, religion, virtues and vices of the people. Comprising also a complete series of HISTORICAL DOCUMENTS, from the end of the war, in 1783, to the election of the President in March, 1801. 12 vols, 8vo, half calf, a good copy of the BEST LIBRARY EDITION, 14.50. Lon. 1801. 5
