Among the exhibitors of the Centennial Exhibition may be mentioned the well-known Organ manufacturers of Brattleboro, Vt., Messrs. J. Estey & Co. The 'prominent absence' of such a firm from the "list of awards" has doubtless occasioned many questions as to the reason. The explanation is simple indeed. They did not compete. They simply exhibited their instruments on their own intrinsic merits, with no efforts to obtain recognition except from the public.

We cannot too highly commend such a course, as compared with some exhibitors, whose sole aim seemed to be not to give the public pleasure in examining their wares, but to obtain the bronze

Enquiry elicits the fact that Estey & Co. are the largest manufacturers and the heaviest exporters of their class, one-half of the entire amount of organs shipped to Europe markets being from

RICHARD WAGNER, of whose ability to judge there can be no doubt, writes, "The tone of the Estey Organ is very beautiful and noble and gives me the greatest pleasure. My great friend Franz Liszt is also charmed and delighted withthem." MME. ESSIFOFF says, "I can play with exquisite enjoyment for hours on these beautiful

OLE BULL,—" Excel in fine, powerful tone."

MME. LUCCA,—" I am surprised at their full, noble and organ-like tone." RUBENSTEIN.—" Tone full, noble and exceedingly animating."

There is no doubt about the meaning of such expressions as these from the leading musicians of the age, and Eatey & Co. may well claim to lead

DO YOU KNOW ANYTHING OF IT ? IF

NOT, IT IS TIME YOU DID. There are but few preparations of medi-cine which have withstood the impartial judgment of the people for any great length of time. One of these is THOMAS' ECLECTRIC OIL, purely a prepration of six of the best Oils that are known, each one possessing virtues of its own. Scientific physicians know that medicines may be formed of several ingredients in certain fixed proportions of greater power, and producing effects which could never result from the use of any one of them, or in different combinations. Thus in the preparation of this Oil a chemical change takes place, forming a compound which could not by any possibility be made from any other combination or proportions of Published by the same ingredients, or any other ingredients, and entirely different from anything ever before made, one which produces the most astonishing results, and having a wider range of application than any medicine ever before discovered. It indeed our person all over. In fact, we contains no alcohol or any other velatile took a cracking cold, which brought sore liquids, consequently loses nothing by eva-poration. Wherever applied you get the good wife asserted her authority, plunged benefit of every drop; wherever are the good wife asserted her authority, plunged benefit of every drop; whereas with other preparations nearly all the algohol is lost in that way, and you get only the small quantity of Oils which they may contain.
