the water. There is water in some places, but it does not run except after a rain. Do you think the cattle have been poisoned by the Paris green? Is there an inspector for such cases?

J. L. B.

Ans.—It is not at all probable; in fact, it is hardly possible that sufficient Paris green could get in the water by the way you describe to cause the trouble. It is more probable the cattle died of anthrax, and, if so, the carcasses should be burned. Cattle die very suddenly of anthrax. In fact, are usually found dead. If seen before death, the symptoms usually resemble those of a severe attack of indigestion. After death, they bloat quickly, and there is usually an escape of bloody fluid or foam from mouth, nostrils and anus. A post-mortem reveals the blood dark and tarry in appearance, and the spleen usually enlarged and dis-integrated, the substance being easily broken down. It is very dangerous to hold post-mortems on such cases. If the trouble continues, if you notify the Department of Agriculture, at Ottawa, of which Dr. Rutherford, Veterinary Inspector-General, is the head, an inspector will be sent to investigate.

ENLARGED TEAT.

Mare produced a filly on June 1st. One of her (the filly's) teats was much too large, and it has continued to enlarge as the foal has grown. It is not sore, and apparently does no harm.

K. C. MCP.

Ans.—It is not probable this will prove serious. If the growth of the teat continues until it becomes unsightly, or any way interferes with the foal's health, it will be necessary to get your veterinarian to dissect out all the diseased tissue. While the occurrence is very uncommon, it is possible this is a malignant mammary tumor; but I am of the opinion it is not, and will not prove serious. Applications will do no good. The condition is congenital, and if intra-vention becomes necessary, dissection is the only way to treat.

ENLARGEMENT FROM WOUND.

Last-year colt got leg wounded just above the hoof. The wound has healed, but an enlargement of a hard, bony consistency remains. Colt is not lame.

R. J. M.

Ans.—If this enlargement is bony, it cannot be removed. If it be fibrous, the following will reduce it: Take 4 drams each of resublimed crystals of iodine and iodide of potassium and 4 ounces each of glycerine and alcohol. Mix. Apply a little, with smart friction, once daily. Keep up the treatment for two or three months, as these enlargements are very hard and tedious to reduce.

RHEUMATISM.

Cow is all stiffened up; her legs are quite stiff; sometimes she can hardly walk. There does not appear to be any soreness in feet or legs. She has failed in flesh and milk supply.

A. C.

Ans.—The symptoms indicate rheumatism. Purge her with 2 lbs. Epsom salts and 1 ounce ginger. Follow up with 2-dram doses of salicylic acid three times daily, and rub the joints well, three times daily, with camphorated liniment.

DUROC-JERSEY HOGS WANTED.

Kindly print in your paper the address of some one that has Duroc-Jersey pigs for sale old enough for service in December, and oblige.

Sask.

A. D.

Ans.—We are unable to give the addresses of any Duroc Jersey breeders in this country. If there are any herd of this breed their owners do not use the advertising columns of any agricult paper we know of to bring their stock to the notice of the purchasing public. Neither are they exhibited at fairs. It strikes us there are one or two herds in Alberta but their location we do not know. Your best plan would be to get an American live stock paper in which there are usually plenty of Duroc breeders advertising and get in touch with some of them. There seems to be a greatly increased enquiry for this breed of swine lately.

KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE

The Horseman's Friend —Safe and Sure.

If you have a lame horse, get Kendall's Spavin Cure. If you have a horse that you can't work on account of a Sprain, Strain or Bruise, get Kendall's Spavin Cure. If you have a horse, that even the veterinary can't cure of Spavin—or any Soft Bunches or Swellings—get Kendall's Spavin Cure. Be sure you get KENDALL'S. Two generations—throughout Canada and the United States—have used it and proved it.

"I have been using Kendall's Spavin Cure for the last 30 years, and always find it safe and sure."
