or sometime I would get hurt," said Jack, the smallest boy in the crowd.

"Ba-ah! I wouldn't be tied to my mother's apron strings. What does she know about it? Why, I've been having rides ever since I was four years old, and never got hurt yet!" exclaimed Dick, scornfully.

Jack loved his mother, but when the other boys called him a "coward," as they started toward the wagon, he followed them.

No sooner had the last boy climbed on the tail-board than the driver turned around and began lashing at the boys right and left with his long whip. Jack received a blow across his eyes, and fell backward on to the road.

The next thing he knew he was lying on the sofa. How his head and eyes ached! He thought they would burst. His mamma was crying beside him. But she smiled as he looked up into her face, and said: "I was afraid you would never come round."

The doctor was there, too, and he said that, apart from being badly bruised, a bone was broken in Jack's ankle, and he would be unable to walk without a crutch for several weeks.

Several days after his accident he had a long talk with his mother about "cowards," and before it ended he decided that the boy who lets anyone shame him into disobeying his mother is a real coward, while he who is tied tight enough to his mother's apron strings, that the boys may call him a coward all they want to, and still be unable to force him to disobey her—that kind of a boy is a real little soldier.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

The most convenient and cheapest of all disinfectants to use in the cellar is quick lime. It may be placed in dishes, in bins, or in cupboards, or scattered loose in dark, damp corners.

Save one or two turkey wings. They are the best brushes in the world to use around a stove, and splendid for sweeping closet shelves. Wring the wing tip with iron until it dries.

Flat irons should be set on the end when put away. Irons having been red hot never retain heat.

HOW TO SECURE THE GUIDE PATTERNS

To secure any of the patterns published in The Guide, all that is necessary is to send 10 cents to the Pattern Department, Grain Growers' Guide, Winnipeg, and state the number of the pattern, giving bust measure for waist patterns, waist measure for skirt patterns, and the age when ordering patterns for Misses or children. It will require from ten days to two weeks to secure these patterns as they are supplied direct from the makers. No new worker need be nervous or afraid to use The Guide patterns. They are accurate and perfectly and plainly marked. Full directions for making are given with every pattern you buy; also the picture of the finished garment to use as a guide.

Kettles may be cleaned by boiling potato peelings in them? To prevent the forming of a crust inside kettles, put in a small well-scrubbed oyster shell. A raw sliced potato rubbed over knives and then polishing with brick dust makes them like new, while a stained knife should be rubbed, dipped in knife powder or bath brick, then polished in the usual way.

In an English constituency a canvasser happened upon an artisan busy reading the posted addresses and studying the pictured faces of the two candidates. "Well, what do you think of them?" asked the canvasser. The voter shrugged his shoulders, and said nothing. "Which candidate would you like to vote for?" persisted the other. "Don't know nothing about none of 'em," replied the British elector, "but by what I can see of 'em, I thank 'eaven as only one of 'em can get in."
