The meteorological report of the Weather Bureau for Thursday says: "The weather will continue fine through; out the country for the next few days." This will be very acceptable news to those who were beginning to fear that the weather had got into a chronic state of wetness from which there was fittle hope of recovery for some time to come. It is to be hoped that "Old Prohabilities" will have his prediction verified.

The lightness of the sentence which the County Judge saw fit to impose on the rascals who committed the late robbery at Mr. Smith's jewellery store in this town is adversely criticized by many of our citizens. Had Burton, who was evidently and old hand at the business, got three years instead of three months; it would have been thought none to severe punishment for him. Unless, got three years instead of three months; it would have been thought none to severed through dread of the punishment awaiting law breakers.
