CAMPBELL-WILSON.

The marriage took place on Tuesday last by Rev. Llewellyn Brown at Orvace Campbell to Ethel Wilson both of this city.

MARCHMENT-SMITH

A quiet but very pretty wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents, 6 Dundas street, on June 30, at 3 o'clock when their only daughter Otha May Smith, was united in the bonds of holy matrimony to Harry Albert Marchment of Toronto, Rev. L. Brown officiating.

The bride, becomingly attired in a gown of silk crepe de chene and wearing a shower bouquet of white flowers and ribbons of the valley, was escorted by Eva Lister, cousin of the bride, who wore a gown of embroidered Swiss muslin and carried pink roses.

Mr. L. B. Marchment, of Hornby, ably assisted the groom, Little Miss Kathrine Kennedy of Milwaukee, cousin of the bride, made a sweet little flower girl, and carried a basket of sweet peas. The groom's gift to the bride was a sunburst of pearls, to the bridesmaid, a pearl crescent, to the flower girl, pearl beads and to the best man, a watch fob. After the wedding ceremony, the guests sat down to a dainty luncheon. The bride wore when travelling, a neat suit of navy blue serge, and black lace hat. The happy couple left on the 6 o'clock train, amid showers of confetti and good wishes for Toronto, where they will take the boat for the Thousand Islands.

The gifts, both costly and numerous, showed the high esteem in which the bride was held. On their return they will reside at 30 Gillespie Ave., West Toronto.

SEVIER-MONEY.

A quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized at Grace Church, Tuesday afternoon, by Ven. Archdeacon MacKenzie, when William Sevier was married to Miss Maude Money of Aberdeen avenue, Eagle Place. After the ceremony a wedding dinner was served at the home of Constable Cobden, brother-in-law of the groom, Spring street, after which the happy couple left on a short honeymoon to the west. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Sevier will take up their residence at Chestnut avenue.

A Hard Problem.

"That's interesting," said the mild lunatic, "but what did they do for plays?"—Judge.

Lawn Tennis

The tennis season opened yesterday, when Brantford and Delhi clashed in the first match of group 5, for the Western Ontario championship. Although the weather was rather unsatisfactory in the earlier part of the afternoon, the slight rain which fell, interfered very little with the courts, which were in excellent condition. Delhi has a long list of victories to her credit, and fully expected to add another, when they arrived with their six experienced players. They were however, sadly disappointed. Brantford has this year, an excellent tennis team, which is the strongest in years, and will no doubt give a good account of itself. The scores for yesterday's game were as follows.

- Singles
L. Crysler, Delhi, vs. H. V. Gould, Brantford, 4-6, 3-6 (B).
F. G. Hendry, Delhi, vs. T. P. Jones, Brantford, 6-7, 2-6, 3-6 (B).
W. Crysler, Delhi, vs. E. C. Gould, Brantford, 4-6, 8-6, 6-4 (D).
H. C. Kent, Delhi, vs. F. McArthur, 2-6, 6-4, 3-6 (B).
C. Hickling, Delhi, vs. A. M. Dunstan, 4-6, 1-6 (B).
S. Pringle, Delhi, vs. M. F. Wilkes 2-6-5-7 (B).

- Doubles.
L. Crysler and Kent, vs. H. V. and E. C. Gould 1-6, 6-4, 6-4 (D).
W. Crysler and Hendry vs. T. P. Jones and F. MacArthur 6-1, 5-7, 4-6 (B).
Hickling and Pringle vs. Dunstan and Wilkes—unplayed.
Delhi, 2 points; Brantford 6 points.

The Appreciation of Diamonds

More and more diamonds are bought, sold and worn every year. And this in spite of the fact that the tendency of diamond prices is steadily upward. Which last fact makes the purchase of a good diamond a worth-while investment. Our diamond display to-day is away above the average. We import our diamonds direct from the cutters and set them in our own workshop. We are positive we can save you money.
