Letter From the Trenches

The following letter was received by Mrs. Burton Bennett Canning, from her son, Pte. Harry Bennett::
France, June 16, 1916.
My Dear Mother:
I now sit down to write you.

In the passing away at Pittsburgh, Pa., on July, of Alice Augusta, only daughter of the late John E. and Martha (Eaton) Starr of Starrs' Point, a host of friends in this her native place as well as in the neighboring Republic are saddened by the sense of a personal loss.

Her childhood and young womanhood were passed in the family home but following the death of her parents inclination led her into the world of business where without special training her natural aptitucand and versatility, her executive and versatility, her executive and responsibility where she never failed to make good.

In the New Homepathic Hospital at Pittsburg, Pa., where she has passed the last five years, she was held in the highest esteem by all—There in her last illness everything that medical skill and trained service could do was gladly done and it was believed she was making a good recovery when a relapse placed her beyond human skill.
