Heal Two Weeks Old Baby Of Skin Trouble.

"When about two weeks old my baby turned blue, and in a couple of days broke out in a rash. Then she turned sore around her ears and on the top of her head, and on her arms and legs. The skin was red and she scratched till she made it bleed. She could not sleep. I wrote for a free sample of Cuticura Soap and Ointment. It was a great relief, so I bought more, and I used two cakes of Cuticura Soap and three boxes of Cuticura Ointment when she was healed." The death occurred on Saturday morning Feb. 15, at his home in Tamagouche of John Bonyman in the 76th year of his age. He had been in failing health for over two years and suffered a severe shock at the loss of his wife eleven months ago, so death did not come unexpectedly but as a blessed relief from sorrow and care.

He was an active member of the Presbyterian Church until loss of health prevented him from continuing his duties.

Mr. Bonyman is survived by four sons, George of Prince Edward Island, now in Halifax, who was present at the funeral; Ross, in Saskatchewan; Norman and Sidney at home; also two daughters Ada, who returned from Boston in the early fall and faithfully cared for her father until his death and Mrs. Henry Swan, Milburn.

The funeral took place on Monday 17th. The services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Coffin and were largely attended by friends and relatives of the family to whom deep sympathy is extended in their sorrow.

DIED IN VERMONT

Rev. I. A. Rose.

Rev. Isaac Adams Rose, pastor at East Burke, died Saturday morning, Jan. 24, of pneumonia following an attack of the influenza. Mr. Rose was born in So. Maitland, Nova Scotia, Nov. 17, 1871, was graduated at the Congregational College in Montreal in 1905 and after a year of study in Bangor Seminary took a pastorate in Lee, N. H. From there he came to South Hero, and later for a year to Irasburgh, entering on the pastorate at East Burke, in 1915. His work in the state endeared him to the people of his charges where he proved himself a faithful and energetic pastor. He was one of a group of men who came from over the border to take charge of some of our leading pulpits, all of whom made good, some displaying traits of exceptional brilliancy. Among them he was marked by sterling qualities of character and winning personality.

Shortly before entering upon his early pastorate, Mr. Rose was married, to Miss Leora Fuller, who with one daughter survives him. Both lie seriously ill with the influenza. In consequence services were held in private on Tuesday afternoon, Jan. 28, at the parsonage, conducted by Rev. J. J. Hutchinson, of Lyndonville, local pastors serving as bearers. A public memorial service will be held later.

The above obituary from the "Vermont Missionary" will be read with sorrow by those who knew Mr. Rose and his family. Mrs. Rose, as mentioned above, is the daughter of Mr. J. W. Fuller, who resided in Kingsport, moved to Wolfville. Mrs. Rose and her only daughter were in Kings Co. a year ago last summer and stopped at Kingsport. She and her little girl have been graciously restored to health since the death of Mr. Rose, and the two with Mrs. Rose's father, Mr. Fuller, will return to Nova Scotia, next month, and will place the remains of the departed one in the cemetery at his former home at South Maitland and will then take up their future home in Wolfville.—Windsor Tribune.

WEDDING BELLS

Blair-Donkin.

At Truro on Feb. 11th, 1919, Miss Bessie L., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Donkin, of Folly Lake, was united in marriage to Gilbert S. Blair, of the same place. Rev. D. H. McKinnon was the officiating clergyman.

The happy couple, one of the most popular young couples of this place, was accompanied to Truro by the bride's sister, Miss Jennie M. Donkin, all returning to Folly Lake, by the evening train where they were entertained by a party of serenaders at the bride's home.

After much enjoyment supper was served and music and songs were on the program.

On the evening of the 22nd, friends both young and old numbering about forty, again visited the bride's home for a "surprise" party. Many pretty and useful gifts were received by the bride and groom showing the esteem in which they were held. Dancing and games were the chief amusements until about 11.30 o'clock, supper was served after which all departed for their homes, wishing, Mr. and Mrs. Blair many years of happy wedded life.

TRUE AS GOSPEL.

The Hon. J. A. Calder, Minister of Immigration and Colonization, in Parliament on the evening of Feb. 26th, said:

"the greatest menace which confronts Canada today is the politician abroad looking for votes."

This good Liberal, he affirms he is still a Liberal tho for the time being in the Unionist Government, gauges the political outlook correctly.

We have seen this menace, perhaps a cloud, no bigger than a man's hand in the sky at present, but it is in existence.

When we hear men in Parliament commencing to squeal over the loss of "political patronage"—then look out—the menace is commencing to operate and it is the part of good citizens to do all in our power to counter-act and nullify this menace.

DR. JOHN M. HARPER KILD IN QUEBEC.

With great regret many old-time acquaintances will learn of the death of John M. Harper, B. A., Ph.D., etc. who died in Quebec city on the 28th shortly after being struck by a street car. Dr. Harper was at once time Principal of the Model Schools in Truro. He was one of the most brilliant educationists in Canada; and was clever writer in both prose and poetry.

INSURANCE OMITTED.

From the list of insurance on Town property we omitted the following:

C. A. Armstrong $1,000.00 on Poor House.

C. A. Armstrong $5,000.00 on Civic Building.

In the Third Division of Canadian troops, the first contingent of which will sail from Liverpool today, March 1, there are about 22,000 men.

PREVENTION OF CRUELTY.

D. A. Moser, agent of the society, and Dr. P. A. Gough, who have just returned from a place in King's County, report they found there twenty-eight head of cattle in starving condition. They say that they had never seen such a terrible case before. The animals had to be put on their feet, and it was difficult to get them up after they once fell down. The agents of the Society gave them good feed and care and they removed them from the care of the owner. A great many other cases throughout the country have been demanding the attention of the Society.—Digby Courier.

This is simply shameful in a country of wide extending hay fields and rich grass lands.

If those animals had been turned out into the neighboring forests they would have fared far better than in this starvation stable.

We are, indeed, thankful for this noble S. P. C. Society.

In his immediate family, eight are left to mourn Mr. Kent's death, a widow, five sons and two daughters. The sons are: Arnold H. Kent, of the Electric Garage; Seldon Kent, a student at the University of Florida; and Alexander, Leith and Frank Kent. The two daughters are Miss Olga, attending the Florida State College for Women at Tallahassee and Miss Avis, at the homestead.

Mr. Kent is also survived by one sister, Miss May G. Kent, of Ninth Street, Miami, and by three sisters in California; Mrs. Frank Hosteller, Mrs. Margaret Whytal and Mrs. George W. Moon. Mr. Kent will be missed by hundreds of friends in Florida and in his native province.

The funeral was held on Sunday Feb. 16, from the Union Congregational Church, Cocoon Grove, Rev. Geo. B. Spalding, pastor of the church officiating, in which church the deceased was a member of the board of deacons as well as of the board of trustees.

Interment was in Woodlawn Cemetery.

The deceased was a son of the late James Kent, Esq., Lower Truro, and Colchester relatives and other friends will regret to hear of his death.

Luther Reid, Truro, had the pleasure of meeting one of his "pals" at the station on February 17th, Corporal George Pickering 3rd Battalion Toronto, who arrived on the S. S. Juliana, and was on a troop train going home. Cpl. Pickering was a prisoner of war in Germany for over three years, and made his escape into Holland and soon after Pte Reid. They had many interesting experiences together, in different prison camps. Canada is proud of them and gladly welcomes home "her boys."

THE RECEPTION TO THE COLORED VETERANS A GRAND SUCCESS.

The reception given the returned colored soldiers in the Y. M. C. A. Thursday evening was most enthusiastic. A large number being present to extend a welcome to the men.

Rev. W. Constantine Perry, was in the chair, and in his opening remarks, he touched upon the relationship of the colored soldiers to the wars in United States, the gallant soldiers who fought under Napoleon, and the part played by the colored men in the Great War for democracy, over the successful termination of which we had all rejoiced. Mr. Perry reminded the men of the principles for which they had fought and strongly exhorted them to live true to the selfsame principles.

A solo was then rendered by Mr. Alfred Kenney, Miss Gibson was the accompanist.

The Chairman then called upon Mayor Coffin to speak. The Mayor, in opening, remarked that it was the first time he had been called to speak in his official capacity and emphasized the pleasure it gave him to extend an official welcome to the returned colored soldiers of our community. The speaker then recalled some impressions of the training days and the departure of our colored battalion overseas. He saw an earnest of the civic character of the men in the fact that in the recent riots in Halifax no colored soldiers had taken part. He congratulated the men on the part, they had taken in the great War.

A solo by Miss Gibson, then followed.

Mr. W. S. Kennedy, Solicitor for the Great War Veterans Association of Colchester, then spoke of extending his welcome to the returned soldiers gathered there, he recalled some of the great names in the history of the African race. He complimented the men on their part in the war for democracy and their conduct, consistently good throughout. He was pleased to see Mr. Jerry Jones in the audience and referred to the Military decoration won by Mr. Jones as a cause of pride for his fellow-citizens.

Mr. Kennedy's remarks were aptly enforced with verse and wittily illustrated with anecdote. He felt sure the men before him would exemplify in their civic life the principles on which the G. W. V. A. was founded and for which our Soldiers have been fighting in France and Flanders for the past four years. As Kipling has it "If neither foes nor loving friends can hurt you,"

All men count with you, but none too much, you can fill the unforgiving minute with sixty second's worth of distance run.

Yours is the earth, and everything that's in it, And which is more—you'll be a man, my son."

A duet then followed by Miss Paris and Miss Palfest. Mr. S. W. Chambers, President of the Truro branch of the G. W. V. A. was the next speaker. Mr. Chambers welcomed the men back to Truro and told them he wished to see all of them members of the G. W. V. A. giving also some strong reasons why all returned men, should stand together and work together for the good of all. He thanked the members of the Zion Church for the cordial invitation, extended to the G. W. V. A., to attend their social evening. Mr. Chambers' address was loudly applauded.

A solo by Mr. Samuel Reece was well rendered. Rev. Mr. Knott, and Rev. Mr. Hartley then gave short and pithy addresses, full of hearty welcome to the soldiers.

After the speeches all the returned men and the many visitors partook of an enjoyable feast which was daintily prepared by the ladies of the Zion Church.

All present pronounced the social evening an unequalled success and look forward to many more of the same nature.

LETTERS TO MRS. HOWARD MACDONALD REFERRING TO CORPORAL WALLACE MACDONALD'S DEATH ON THE BATTLEFIELD.

Lieut. Harold F. Beattie, of "A" Company Writes as Below.

France, October 18th, 1918.

Dear Mrs. Macdonald: It is with deep regret that I address you in this your hour of sorrow, but I feel that I must write to express the heartfelt sympathy of all of "A" Company over the loss of your son.

Personally I was down the trench at the time the shell landed, and all I can say is that I believe his end was not painful. We did all that we possibly could for him; but when I went down to see the Doctor subsequently he told me he feared that the case was hopeless, and so, alas, it proved to be.

Corporal Macdonald was a universal favorite in the company, with which he had put in so long a period of first-class service. Always efficient, always willing, he was a hardworking, able soldier, second to none in his own line of signalling; and he set a splendid example of cheerfulness and good temper to all ranks.

I wish his commission could have gone through, but it was not to be and he gave his life in the execution of the duty to which he had so willingly devoted himself.

I know where his grave is, and shall take an early opportunity of visiting the cemetery. If there is any further information that you desire it will, no doubt, be furnished, by the Canadian Records Office, Green Arbour House, Old Bailey, London.

We shall miss him greatly in the Company and can in some measure feel for you in your great sorrow.

Assuring you of the deepest sympathy of all the officers and men, I am,

Yours sincerely
HAROLD F. BEATTIE,
Lieut.

Note From Capt. Daniel.

29th Vancouver Battalion.
Mrs. Howard Macdonald,
Dear Madam:

I am in receipt of your letter with regard to the death of Corp. J. W. Macdonald.

Corp. Macdonald was wounded by shell-fire on the 8th October. He was standing at the time outside his "funkhole" and was evacuated to the Field Ambulance as soon as possible after being dressed by the stretcher bearers, from there he was taken to hospital, and we are advised by the hospital that he died of his wounds on 8th October.

He was one of the few original members of this Battalion, who was still left with us, and his death is deeply regretted by all the members of the Battalion.

The Commanding Officer wishes me to express his sympathy to you in your loss.

Yours truly,
(Sgd.) E. H. DANIEL,
Capt. Adjutant.

Sympathy From General The Hon. S. C. Mewburn.

Dear Mrs. Macdonald, I desire to express to you my very sincere sympathy in the recent decease of No. J 75693 Cpl. John Wallace Macdonald, Canadian Expeditionary Force, who in sacrificing his life at the front in action with the enemy has rendered the highest services of a worthy citizen.

The heavy loss which you and the Nation have sustained would indeed be depressing were it not redeemed by the knowledge that the brave comrade for whom we mourn performed his duties fearlessly and well as became a good soldier, and gave his life for the great cause of Human Liberty and the Defence of the Empire.

Again extending to you in your bereavement my condolence and heartfelt sympathy.

I am,
Yours faithfully,
(Sgd.) S. C. MEWBURN,
Minister of Militia and Defence for Canada.

TRURO IS THE PLACE FOR THE ODDFELLOW'S HOME.

The Grand Lodge of I. O. O. F. are contemplating Maritime Home for aged Oddfellows.

This is a praise-worthy movement and will no doubt be carried to a successful issue.

The matter of location has not yet been seriously considered, but Truro, will certainly be favorably considered, when the time comes to seek a place for this new Home.

There are several good properties in, or near "Hub" that with a little remodelling would make ideal buildings for this contemplated Home.

Let the Truro Oddfellows keep this matter prominently before those in the grand Lodges, who are in charge of this business.

H. J. Logan, K. C., Amherst, who has been seriously ill is much improved and is now out of danger.

A YOUNG TRUROIAN IN LOS ANGELES SAYS WE WANT MORE BOOSTER WORK IN NOVA SCOTIA.

Hotel Ingraham, Los Angeles, February, 17, 1919.

Editor Truro News:— I enclose you some clippings from today's Los Angeles papers, showing how they boom the wonderful climate of California.

We had an earthquake yesterday morning that made the chairs rock in our rooms and the beds move endways but we saw no notice of that fact in the papers this morning.

It is a pity we have not more booster in Nova Scotia, for if we had one tenth part of the "boost" circulating for our "Peerless" Nova Scotia, that we hear in the West we would have more things doing there than have been.

Sunday was a marvellous day, not a breath of wind and beautiful sunshine. There were probably at least 100,000 automobiles travelling on the thousands of miles of perfect roads of Los Angeles County alone.

As for ourselves, we went to church but notwithstanding that the many Christian Churches and numerous kinds of fake religion meeting places, were tolerably well filled; there were probably more people "worshipping" in the open.

One of the first things we need in Nova Scotia is a permanent concrete road of the best construction from the New Brunswick line to Halifax. The people of Nova Scotia have the millions of dollars required to build this road and will gladly lend it to the Government for that purpose.

The enormous benefit that will be derived from the construction of such a road can hardly be imagined by the most optimistic resident that you can find in our choice little province. If the province is small, that is no reason that our people should not be big and bold and up to the times.

The great benefit of good roads in this day of the tractor and the motor truck will come to the farmer directly to say nothing of the immense increase of the value of all kinds of real estate and the great benefit accruing from the expenditures of the tens of thousands of tourists that will be immediately attracted to the unrivalled beauties of our province as soon as we have a reliable road by which they may enter the country.

As to California to give an idea of what the people think of the value of the good roads; notwithstanding that California has at present more completed good roads than any other country in the world according to his population, the state legislature is now contemplating the expenditure of thirty million dollars more for additional permanent roads.

SEYMOUR R. BLACK.

The New Brunswick Board of Underwriters state that on April 1, mercantile insurance will be increased 10 per cent.

The deaths from "Flu" are increasing at an alarming rate in England.

HEART PALPITATED

FAINT AND DIZZY SPELLS.

WOULD FALL DOWN IN FAINT.

Palpitation of the heart is very often accompanied by weak, faint and dizzy spells, and is generally caused by some sudden fright, or associated with conditions of a nervous breakdown, but whatever the cause, it is of considerable importance that the heart should be strengthened, and brought back to its regular beat.

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are just the remedy to do this for you. Mr. Henry Fawcett, Killam's Mills, N.B., writes:—"I have used Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills for heart trouble. I was very weak and run down, my heart would palpitate, I would take faint and dizzy spells, and sometimes I would fall down in a faint. I started to take your pills and I must say they have done wonders for me. I will always speak a good word for your Heart and Nerve Pills."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50c. a box at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.
