Mr. Malvin Wiltsie, who left for the West last July to inspect his homestead, returned home on Thursday last. His location in the vicinity of Quill Lake in the new province of Saskatchewan, about 18 miles from Watson station on a new branch of the C. P. R. In his neighborhood several from this section have homesteaded, including Mr. Archie Lee, father and brother of Addison; Messrs. S. Y. Bullis and son Frank, Charles Stevens, Delorna Wiltsie, and Stanley Palford, Athens; and Messrs. Henry Johnston and son Roy of Frankville—about fifteen altogether. During the short time that Mr. Wiltsie was there he put down a well, excavated a cellar, erected a house on his claim, and broke about four acres. The present post office of our colony is Vossen, a village at Watson station. Though only about a year old, Vossen is already a thriving business centre. A railway will shortly pass within five miles of Quill Lake and arrangements are now in progress for an improved postal service. Experiments made with the growing of various kinds of cereals this season have proved very satisfactory, and all are well pleased with the outlook.

An Ounce of Prevention IS BETTER THAN a Pound of Cure

Farming, like all other business, has proved a science. Fortunately all farm produce is commanding a remunerative price. Good results can only be had from any source when we have done our best toward obtaining them. The most successful farmers have proved beyond doubt that profitable results come from feeding Poultry and all other Stock not only good grain, hay and ensilage but such Blood-makers and Tonics as Herbageum, International Stock Food, Poultry Food, Kow Kure, Horse Tonic, Linsed Meal, Oil Cake, The Great English Calf Food-Cream Equivalent, Granulated Bone & Oyster Shell for Hens.

All of the above are guaranteed to produce results that will pay a good dividend for the cost of them.
