THE CAPE TO CAIRO ROAD

ONE OF THE LATE CECIL RHODES DREAMS NEARING A REALITY.

Tourist Tickets to Victoria Falls Are Being Issued and Another Long Stretch of Travel Will Soon Be Under Rapid Construction-Map Shows How the Cape to Cairo Project Stands at Present Time.

Writing in 1900 to Ewart S. Grogan, a plucky young traveler who had just completed a journey from the Cape to Cairo, Cecil Rhodes

the Cape to Cairo, Cecil Rhodes said:

"Every one supposes that the railway is being built with the only object that a human being may be able to get in at Cairo and get out at Cape Town. This is, of course, ridiculous. The object is to cut Africa through the centre, and the railway will pick up trade all along the through the centre, and the railway will pick up trade all along the route. The junctions to the East and West coasts which will occur in the future will be outlets for the traffic obtained along the route of the line as it passes through the centre of Africa. At any rate, up to Buluwayo, where I am now, it has been a payable undertaking, and I for by the Cooking Club magazine: One cupful of sifted flour slightly salted and turned into a deep bowl. Make a hole turned into a deep bowl.

BRIDGE OVER ZAMBESI GORGE. still think it will continue to be so as we advance into the far interior. as we advance into the far interior. We propose now to go on and cross the Zambesi just below the Victoria Falls. I should like to have the spray of the water over the carriages."

If Ceeil Rhodes were still alive he would soon see this last wish well.

NOTHING LIKE EXPERIENCE.

"One truth learned by actual experience does more good than ten experiences one hears about." Tell a man that Chemberlain's Golic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy will cure cholera morbus, and he will most likely forget it before the end of the day. Let him have a severe attack of that disease, feel that he is about to die, use this remedy, and learn from his own experience how quickly it gives relief, and he will remember it all his life. For sale by all druggists. If Ceeil Rhodes were still alive he would soon see this last wish realized, for the railway from the South has been carried from Buluwayo through the Wankie coal fields to the edge of those wonderful falls, which are twice the height and more than double the width of the Falls of Niagara, while a bridge consisting of a single span of 500 feet is now being constructed over the gorge bea single span of 500 feet is now being constructed over the gorge below the falls, and will be completed by the end of the year.

The bridge will have the distinction of being the highest in the world, the rail level being 420 feet above the river, of 55 feet higher than the dome of St. Paul's. While the construction of the great span is in progress the rails for the extension northward will be conveyed across by aerial gear to avoid de-Harry had been forbidden by his grandfather to play with the pump, which play invariably ended in a which play invariably ended in a drenching. is in progress the rails for the extension northward will be conveyed across by aerial gear to avoid delay.

It was originally intended to carry the line from Buluwayo due north through the Mafungabusi coal district, crossing the Zambesi at the Kariba Gorge. It was found, however, that the country north of the Zambesi at this point offers immense difficulties for railway construction, and that the value of the coal deposits is not to be compared with that of the Wankie coal fields.

The certainty of a large tourist traffic if the line were carried to the Victoria Falls formed a further inducement to choose the western route, and accordingly the line northward from Buluwayo was begun in May, 1901. Last year it reached Wankie, and the additional seventy-five miles to the falls have been constructed in less than a twelve-month. Tourist tickets to the Victoria Falls are being issued, and among the visitors next year will be two hundred and fifty members of the British Association, who have An AGGRAVATED COUGH CURED.

A customer of ours who had been suffering from a severe cough for six months, bought two bottles of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy from us and was entirely cured by one and a half bottles of it. It gives perfect satisfaction with our trade. — Haynes-Parker's Co., Lineville, Ala. For sale by all druggists.

connection with Kituta, at the southern end of Lake Tanganyika, where the Chartered Company's sway terminates. Survey work here is now in progress, and there is no doubt that within a few years this link will be made.

From this point onward, however, Rhodes' scheme has had to be modified as the nature of the country around the chain of lakes stretching from the Zambesi to the Nine came to be known. As Grogan pointed out, Lake Tanganyika is hemmed in by steep mountains offering wellnigh insurmountable difficulties to railway construction, but on the other hand, the lake itself offers a magnificent waterway of four hundred miles on the direct line between the Cape and Cairo. It may be taken as granted, therefore, that this part of the journey will be made by water, and that passengers will be carried by steamboat from Kituta to Usambara, at the north end of the lake. From here to Lake Kivu is minty miles, offering no serious obstacle to a railway beyond a rise in level of two thousand feet. Lake Kivu is sixty miles in length, and this sheet of water also is surrounded by high and precipitous mountains, so that another break in the line will have to be made and the water-way utilized.

THE ANGLESEY ESTATES.

Marquis, After Six Years' Possession, Re-

linguishes to Trustees to Pay Debts. The Marquis of Anglesey finds him-The Marquis of Anglesey finds himself in money difficulties, and at a recent meeting of creditors a deed of assignment placing the family estates in the hands of trustees to meet the diabilities was accepted. One of the recent London auctions was largely attended, as it was whispered abroad that some of the Marquis' jewels, of which he had made a great collection, were to be disposed of in the sale.

Henry Cyril Paget, fifth Marquis, is a great grandson of the Waterloo Field Marshal, one of Wellington's generals. He was born in 1875, and came into possession of the estates in 1898, marrying in the same year his cousin Lilian, daughter of Sir George Chetwynd.

He appeared in "Aladdin" and an L'Aiglon, and his costumes were lavishly decked with jewelry. The Marquis private box in the gallery facing the stage is copied from the Royal Opera House in Dresden. The estate is beautifully situated on the Merai Straits, and the view over the water and to Snowdonia is splendid. Menai Straits, and the view over the water and to Snowdonia is splendid. Wonders of Memory.

The memory may be cultivated to an extraordinary degree, as all are aware. Seneca, the Roman rhetorician, was able to repeat 2,000 words upon once hearing them, each in its order, though they had no dependence or connection on each other. Pontius Latro retained in his memory all the orations he had ever spoken, without failing in even a single word. Cyneas Ambassador to the Romans from King Pyrrhus, in one day so well learned the names of his audience that the next morning he saluted the whole Senate and all the populace assembled, each by his name. Cyrus knew every soldier in his army by name, and Scipio had a speaking acquaintance with all the citizens of Rome. Herr von Nieublin, a celebrated German scholar, was once clerk in a bank of Copenhagen, in which capacity he gave proof of miraculous memory by restoring from recollection alone, the entire contents of a leaf in the bank ledger which had been accidentally lost by fraud or accident.

Height of the Sea Breeze.

Observations as to the height of the sea breeze, although few in number, are of considerable importance. By means of a captive balloon, sent up from Coney Island a number of years ago, it was found that the average height at which the cool inflow from the ocean was replaced by the upper warm outflow from the land was from 500 to 600 feet. At Toulon, in 1893, the height of the sea breeze was found to be about 1,300 feet, and the distinct off-shore current was found between 1,900 and 2,000 feet. More recently (1902), on the west coast of Scotland. Dines, using kites, has noted that the kites would not rise above 1,500 feet of aunny afternoon, when the on-hore breeze was blowing.
