McFADDEN-JOHNSON.
A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Johnson, Tupperville, on Wednesday evening, Nov. 15th, when their youngest daughter, Miss Margaret Lillian, was united in marriage to Mr. Joseph Wesley McFadden, of Camden. EARLY FLYING MACHINE.

Remarkable Invention by a Portuguese Which Failed to Work.

In The London Evening Post, dated Dec. 20 and 22, 1909, is an interesting description of a flying ship then lately invented by a Portuguese priest. Unfortunately for the glory of Portugal it did not fly, as was expected, 200 miles in twenty-four hours or at all. In order that the deeply scientific among our readers may understand the cause of its failure we quote a few extracts from its specifications. The ship was fitted, in the first place, with "sails where the air is to be divided." It had also two pairs of bellows, "which will be drawn toward the wind, and must be blown when there is no wind." At opposite ends of the hull were "the globes of heaven and earth, containing in them the attractive virtues." These served as covers to "two loadstones placed in the upper pedestals to draw the ship after them."

We have not yet exhausted the list of motive powers carried by this remarkable invention. Over the whole was a cover made of iron wire in form of a net, on which are fastened a good number of large amber beads, which by a secret operation will help to keep the ship aloft, and by the sun's heat (certain mats) that line the ship will be drawn toward the amber beads. It is strange that a flying ship fitted with so many alternative appliances should have failed to fly at all. Possibly the amber beads tried to fly one way, the globes another, the wind and the bellows worked in yet other directions, and thus stable equilibrium resulted.—London News.

Cured of Drunkenness

How a Montreal lady cured her husband of drunkenness with a secret home remedy.

"I want to tell you that tasteless Samarra Prescription has entirely cured my husband of his drunkenness so quickly and so simply that I am astonished. How I am astonished! I wrote for your free sample package. The sample tablets I got when you checked his drinking, and before I had used the full treatment he was permanently cured. He gave him the remedy in his tea, and it had no taste. I am so glad to know he was taking it. I want others to know, so you can use this letter, but please not my name yet. I may say that my husband's health is better every day than for years. Free Package, particulars, testimonials and price sent in plain sealed envelope. Correspondence accepted confidential. Address: MRS. SAMARRA REMEDY CO., 11 Jordan Chambers, Jordan St., Toronto, Canada."

Many a good resolution is wabbly because it hasn't sufficient backbone.

THAT OVER WORKED, PLAYED OUT FEELING AMONG WOMEN

There are thousands of females all over our land who are broken down in health and drifting on a miserable existence, overburdened with disease peculiar to their sex, apparently growing old while yet young. Often they have pale or sallow complexion, hollow, sunken eyes, with a lifeless look; the face has a pinched and haggard appearance; they are weak, weary and trembling, often extremely nervous, starting at every little noise. Many are apparently bloodless, with cold hands and feet, while others are flushed by an unequal circulation of the blood, dizziness, and sometimes dimness of vision, loss of memory, and often loss of appetite and sleep, and are wearied with terrible dreams. Palpitation of the heart, nervous prostration, smothering and sinking spells, shortness of breath and the sensation of pins and needles are all indications of a weakened condition of the heart or nervous system, and should any of them be present we would strongly advise the use of

MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS

A BRIGHT COMEDY.

One of the brightest plays, in dialogue and characters true to nature, on the stage to-day, is Daniel L. Hart's "Parish Priest," in which Dan Sullivan has made the success of his life. Mr. Hart is a young journalist of Wilkes-Barre. In conjunction with C. E. Callahan, who is the author of "Fog's Ferry" and "A Romance of Con Hollow," Mr. Hart has written a dramatic story of his native state, the plot of which turns upon a law peculiar to mining sections, under which a conveyance of land passes only title to the surface, and not to underlying ores. The characters in "Slaves of the Mine" are borrowed from real life in the locality where the tale is laid, near Wilkes-Barre, and together with the dialogue which gives them being, are like those in natural. The new play is full of stirring incidents, and contains one very sensational scenic effect, depicting the destruction of a coal mine by a tremendous explosion of fire damp. "Slaves of the Mine" will be given at the Grand Opera House to-night. Prices 25, 35c and 50c seats.

MARKS BROS. HERE NEXT WEEK

London Advertiser says: "Marks Bros. are paying their annual visit to London this week, and are filling the Opera House every night. On Tuesday every seat was sold, as well as 250 standing room tickets, and at least 300 were turned away. For the price charged Marks Bros. always put up a good show, and their company this year is stronger than ever. Some good specialties are given." The company opens a week's engagement here on Monday next. Opening with their new play, "In Old Kentucky."

This season they are carrying seven vaudeville acts and give a continuous performance. There will be the usual Wednesday and Saturday matinee.

HUFFMAN'S CORNERS.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. George Cundie, Communication Road, Harwich, was the scene of a very pretty wedding last evening. The bride, Naomi, was united in marriage to Charles Morrow, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Morrow, also of Harwich. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. W. J. Waddell, of Huffman's Corners, in the presence of about twenty-five guests. The bride party entered the parlor to the strains of the wedding march, played by Miss Pearl Morrow, sister of the groom.

The bride looked lovely in a gown of white silk, and the bridesmaid wore white organdie. Both wore white tulle veils. Miss Jennie Cundie, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, and Mr. James Morrow, brother of the groom, filled the office of best man. A nicely served supper awaited the guests at the close of the ceremony.

The young people are well known and well liked in this neighborhood, where they have always resided, and have always taken part and helped in church work, and also in all the young people's amusements.

The presents were many and valuable, showing the high esteem in which their many friends were held by wishing them much happiness in their new home on the tenth line, Harwich. The happy couple left for old shore.

The groom presented the bridesmaid with a handsome gold brooch, and the groomsmen with a pretty stick pin.

"SIMON."

To those who are interested in the culture and production of thorough-bred and fast horse-flesh, there is perhaps no horse better known than "Simon," who, possessing both the sterling qualities, has been listed the best the country knows.

To illustrate the foregoing statement, a few are mentioned whose parentage is that of the horse referred to above. Simon is the sire of

"Free Bond"..... 2.04% "Irene D"..... 2.15%
"Simple Simon"..... 2.16% "Princess Simon"..... 2.17%
"Billy S"..... 2.18% "Joe Letter"..... 2.18%
"Topsy Simon"..... 2.24% "In Bond"..... 2.19%

And a dozen others that have shown fast.

The recent owner of "Simon" has kindly supplied a few facts that are very convincing of the horse's merits.

We have raised just twelve colts and fillies by Simon on our farm, breeding in a small way, and have sold five of them for $2,740.00, an average of $548.00 each. Who says that it does not pay to raise trotting horses. "FREE BOND" was sold in New York for $6,000 and IRENE D. was sold the past season for $1,200.00.

We still have seven of these colts and fillies now as good or better than those mentioned above, and all as good or better than a mile in 2.25 or better any time. The others, of course, are younger and have not been handled very much.

But why would not SIMON get speed? The records show. SYDNEY DILLON and JOE PACHEN are the greatest sires of extreme speed the world has ever produced. Joe Pachen is the sire of Dan Pacn (1.55 1/4), pacing, and Sydney Dillon is the sire of Lou Dillon (1.58), trotting. Simon's breeding on the sire's side is the same as that of Sydney Dillon, but much better on the dam's side, and we cannot see why under similar conditions, but that he would be as great a sire as Joe Pachen or Sydney Dillon.

We have sold the stallion "Simon" to JAMES BLYTHE, Chatham, Ont., for a good price.
