THE luxuries of to-day are the necessities of to-morrow. Morse's 40c. tea is a luxury and yet it becomes a necessity immediately you begin to use it. If, therefore, you wish to avoid the habit of drinking tea of the best quality, beware of trying Morse's 40c. Once you try it you will never be satisfied with cheaper grades.

Mr. Borden Kept His Word.

Mr. Borden during his Western tour last summer gave the avowed reciprocitarians of the Prairie Provinces distinctly to understand that he would not rather be right than be made Prime Minister of Canada, that he felt sure he was right in opposing reciprocity, and that he would not accept that post though such acceptance should ensure his attaining the highest political place in the Dominion.

That courageous adherence to principle in the face of public opposition, won Mr. Borden the respect of the West, and it is now remembered to his credit, and makes the Western mind impervious to the Laurier stories that the new Prime Minister is a weak man easily influenced from outside, and already made the tool of the corporations and 'big interests.'

Death's Harvest.

Word was received here, with painful suddenness, last Saturday evening in a cable to Mrs. A. M. O'Key Fitzgerald, conveying the sad intelligence that her daughter, Mrs. Percy C. Woodworth, died in a hospital in New York City. Mrs. Woodworth left here about three months ago to secure treatment by the world-famed physicians and surgeons of Paris and for some time her recovery was hopefully looked for. For several weeks past, however, slight hopes, if any, were entertained for her recovery. Her husband, Dr. P. C. Woodworth, left here about four weeks ago, and was with her at the time of her death as was also her sister, Madame Labori, wife of the Paris lawyer famous in the Dreyfus case. The funeral was held on Monday and the remains interred in the Labori family vault at Paris.
