fortified places, and of adding to the most important of them an entrenched camp, capable of accommodating a division of infantry. In fact, it is stated that this system of entrenched camp is to be carried out on a large scale, and to act of the military positions in Poland. This among other matters is the cause of the visit made by General Deham, his governor of the town and citied of Cronstadt to Field-Marshal Packiewitsch at Warsew, in order to confer with him on a grand plan of defence for the whole length of the Vistula, and thence to News, in case of an invasion during the assuing sampaign.
