New Advertisers The attention of our readers is called to the advertisement of Rus- sell & Morrison, which will appear weekly in these courses, to advertise their extensive lines of men's and boys' furnishings and their tailoring business. Having disposed of their boot and shoe department to Mr. Walter Amy, who will carry on the same under his own name, Messra. Russell & Morrison will now have a better opportunity to look after the clothing end of their business, and be in a better position to keep their many patrons supplied with all the latest novelties in dress. Co., 132nd, with a Buglers' Band, four bugles and five drums. The timely and appropriate gift was made through Mr. R. H. Armstrong, and was presented to C. Co. on Fri- day afternoon. Mr. Crane was re- presented by Mr. Armstrong, who in a neat speech conveyed to the sol- diers Mr. Crane's declaration ithat if he were not too old he would go with the Battalion himself. In ac- cepting the gift, Mayor J. W. Howe and Capt. A. L. Barry expressed the thanks of the Company. The Com- pany then marched through the streets, the Band making good use of	Recruits for C. Co.
