SER JOHN AND LADY MADDONALD AT rived at St. Andrew's, N. B., on Friday afternoon last, the 5th inst. The great-est preparations had been made for his reception. A magnificent arch spanned the street through which he was driven from the steamer, bearing the legend, "Viclome to St. Andrewe." Smaller arches bore the words, "Sir John Macdonald and Lady Macdonald." As the veteran Premier, in company with Bir Leonard Filley, drove through the archway, he was literally bombarded with boquets of flowers, thrown at him archway, he was literally bombarded with boquets of flowers, thrown at him by a hundred young Misses. After Sir John and Lady Maedonald, Hon. Mr. Boyd and Mrs. Boyd, and Mr. Jones, M. P. for Digby, had arrived at Sir Isonard's residence, the ladies'in charge of the floral arrangements waited on Lady Maedonald, and by the hands of a pretty little girl of less than five years, presented her with a beautiful boquet, in the evening the party were serenaded by the St. Andrew's Brass Band. On Monday an address, in behalf of the ditiens of St. Andrew's, was presented to Sir John at the Court House.
