

The Charlotte Herald

NEW SERIES

CHARLOTTETOWN PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 10 1891

VOL. XX NO. 32

The Charlotte Herald
—IS PUBLISHED—
Every Wednesday
—BY—
Jas. McIsaac, Editor & Proprietor
FROM THE "HERALD" OFFICE,
CONNOLLY'S BUILDING,
Queen Street, Charlotte-
town, P. E. I.

Subscription: One Year, in Advance, $1.00

ADVERTISING RATES.—50 cents per inch for first insertion, and 20 cents for each continuation. Special notices 10 cents per line for each insertion.

Contracts made for Monthly, Quarterly, Half-yearly, or Yearly Advertisements, on application.

Remittances may be made by Draft, P. O. Order, or Registered Letter.

Correspondence should be addressed to

THE EDITOR OF THE "HERALD."

She Placed

the can of BAKING POWDER upon the stove, and AMMONIA in a few moments betrayed its presence.

She Now Uses

WOODILL'S GERMAN BAKING POWDER, AND SO SHOULD YOU.

With British and Mercantile

FIRE AND LIFE

INSURANCE COMPANY

—OF—
EDINBURGH AND LONDON.

ESTABLISHED 1809.

Total Assets, 1886, - $50,576,004.

TRANSACTIONS every description of Fire and Life Business on the most favorable terms.

This Company has been well and favorably known for its prompt payment of losses in this island during the past twenty-two years.

FRED. W. WYNDHAM, Agent.

Old Merchants Bank of P. E. I., 17 Water St., Charlottetown, Jan. 21, 1891.

VALUABLE REAL ESTATE FOR SALE.

THE Farm, formerly owned by Mr. Peter McIsaac, at Mill View, in Queen's County, consisting of about

315 Acres of Land, with the Dwelling House, Barns, Cloth, Carding and Saw Mills thereon. This property is situated in a fine farming settlement, convenient to Churches, Schools, &c. It will be sold on time, or in lots to suit purchasers.

For terms and particulars apply to C. B. MacNeill, Solicitor, Charlottetown July 23, 1890.—17

A Word With You, Sir!

If your liver is out of order and you are troubled with biliousness, headache, indigestion, &c., &c., send to your nearest drug store and procure a box of

EVERYBODY'S PILLS.

Take no other, as these pills are the best on the market for the purposes for which they are intended.

Prepared only by

A. S. Johnson,

Corner Kent and Prince Streets, CHARLOTTETOWN, Charlottetown, April 1, 1891.

GRATEFUL—COMFORTING.

EPPS' COCOA

BREAKFAST.

By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavored beverage which may save us many doctor's bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal ailment by having ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame.—"Civil Service Gazette."

Made simply with boiling water or milk. Sold only in packets, by Grocers, label the name.

JAMES EPPS & Co., Homoeopathic Chemists, London, England.

17, 111, - 17

GOOD TEA

—FOR EVERYBODY AT—

BEER & GOFF'S

Our Tea, as a rule, have given excellent satisfaction, but the lot that we are retailing this season has turned out to be the best value that we have ever imported.

Our 24c. is the Strongest and Finest-Flavored Tea for the money on P. E. Island.

Reductions Made on Parcels of 5 Pounds and Upwards.

BEER & GOFF,
April 8—17
QUEEN & KING SQUARE STORES

Spring Goods Now Open

—AT—

PERKINS & STERNS'

The finest lines of Spring Millinery, Mantles, Jackets, Dress Goods, Prints, Sateens, Silks, Ribbons, Parasols, etc., etc. to be found in the City. Our Prices will be remarkably low, considering the quality of the Goods. We have some rare bargains this season, and it will pay you all to see our goods before you decide to buy.

PERKINS & STERNS.

Charlottetown, April 15, 1891

—OF—

EDINBURGH AND LONDON.

ESTABLISHED 1809.

Total Assets, 1886, - $50,576,004.

TRANSACTIONS every description of Fire and Life Business on the most favorable terms.

This Company has been well and favorably known for its prompt payment of losses in this island during the past twenty-two years.

FRED. W. WYNDHAM, Agent.

Old Merchants Bank of P. E. I., 17 Water St., Charlottetown, Jan. 21, 1891.

VALUABLE REAL ESTATE FOR SALE.

THE Farm, formerly owned by Mr. Peter McIsaac, at Mill View, in Queen's County, consisting of about

315 Acres of Land, with the Dwelling House, Barns, Cloth, Carding and Saw Mills thereon. This property is situated in a fine farming settlement, convenient to Churches, Schools, &c. It will be sold on time, or in lots to suit purchasers.

For terms and particulars apply to C. B. MacNeill, Solicitor, Charlottetown July 23, 1890.—17

A Word With You, Sir!

If your liver is out of order and you are troubled with biliousness, headache, indigestion, &c., &c., send to your nearest drug store and procure a box of

EVERYBODY'S PILLS.

Take no other, as these pills are the best on the market for the purposes for which they are intended.

Prepared only by

A. S. Johnson,

Corner Kent and Prince Streets, CHARLOTTETOWN, Charlottetown, April 1, 1891.

GRATEFUL—COMFORTING.

EPPS' COCOA

BREAKFAST.

By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavored beverage which may save us many doctor's bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal ailment by having ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame.—"Civil Service Gazette."

Made simply with boiling water or milk. Sold only in packets, by Grocers, label the name.

JAMES EPPS & Co., Homoeopathic Chemists, London, England.

17, 111, - 17

At No. 238 Upper Queen St.

WE ARE NOW SHOWING

A Beautiful Line of Pantings.

Our Worsteds & Tweed Suits are the cheapest ever offered in this City.

We are always happy to wait on customers.

A. J. MURPHY,
May 13, 1891—17

Local and Special News.

PREACHED BY HIS GRACE, ARCHBISHOP O'BRIEN, IN ST. DUNSTON'S CATHEDRAL, AT THE MONTH'S MEETING OF THE LATE BISHOP MACINTYRE, ON JUNE 10, 1891.

And let the Nehemias be a long time remembered, who were cast down, and set up the gates and the bars, who rebuilt our houses.—Ecclesiasticus XLII:15.

My Lords, very reverend and revered Father and dear brethren:

Frequently as a priest and on several occasions an Archbishop have I spoken from this pulpit, but never under circumstances so trying as those which have gathered around the month's meeting ago when last I addressed you in this church, the face and figure of one, who for a generation had ruled this diocese, graced the sanctuary, and cheered the hearts of many. Somewhat aged, it is true, was that face; but the grand form was still instinct with strength, and that face no longer beamed upon us as of old.

Today that face no longer beams upon us; the stately figure is sadly missed; our friend, our father, our brother bishop is cold in death.

The slow approach of his endowment, and awful in its suddenness, was the Father of Marcellus, fell, and the soul of Bishop McIntyre peopled the void that hangs between the living and the dead.

It is not to be forgotten, however, that there was and mourning in many a home. With the solemn rites of the Church to bless his tomb, and to deprecate the judgment of heaven upon him, you laid him to rest, whilst plentiful tears gave expression to your sorrowing love and softened the poignancy of your regret; I could not then be present to mourn with you, or to pay a grateful tribute of respect to the memory of him who had been a father and a friend.

This was not an additional motive of regret.

To-day we are met to hold solemn service and to offer expiatory sacrifices on the thirtieth day, or, as it is called, to celebrate "Month's Mind." Invited by your Bishop to preach, gratitude to the dead and respect for the living would not permit me to refuse, although I dreaded the task. It is no easy one.

The lavish and indiscriminate praise of friendship in its first outbreak of grief is out of place now, equally with the harsh criticisms of the eager fault-finder. The perfect man need not be sought for on earth; but we are not to overlook or forget the deeds of greatness that may yet show, by occasional glimpses, that they are the work of a man, not of an angel.

When the inspired writer made use of the words of King David, "Let Nehemias be a long time remembered," he did not assert he was a perfect man, filled with every manner of virtue and crowned with all human weakness. No; he claimed recognition of the great deeds done for the good of the Jewish people.

"Let Nehemias be a long time remembered, who raised up for us our walls that were cast down, and set up the gates and the bars, who rebuilt our houses."

These words are eminently applicable in the present instance. What Nehemias of old did for the Jewish nation, the late Bishop McIntyre did for the Catholics of this diocese.

And let Nehemias be a long time remembered, who raised up for us our walls that were cast down, and set up the gates and the bars, who rebuilt our houses."

These words are eminently applicable in the present instance. What Nehemias of old did for the Jewish nation, the late Bishop McIntyre did for the Catholics of this diocese.

And let Nehemias be a long time remembered, who raised up for us our walls that were cast down, and set up the gates and the bars, who rebuilt our houses."

These words are eminently applicable in the present instance. What Nehemias of old did for the Jewish nation, the late Bishop McIntyre did for the Catholics of this diocese.

And let Nehemias be a long time remembered, who raised up for us our walls that were cast down, and set up the gates and the bars, who rebuilt our houses."

These words are eminently applicable in the present instance. What Nehemias of old did for the Jewish nation, the late Bishop McIntyre did for the Catholics of this diocese.

And let Nehemias be a long time remembered, who raised up for us our walls that were cast down, and set up the gates and the bars, who rebuilt our houses."

These words are eminently applicable in the present instance. What Nehemias of old did for the Jewish nation, the late Bishop McIntyre did for the Catholics of this diocese.

And let Nehemias be a long time remembered, who raised up for us our walls that were cast down, and set up the gates and the bars, who rebuilt our houses."

These words are eminently applicable in the present instance. What Nehemias of old did for the Jewish nation, the late Bishop McIntyre did for the Catholics of this diocese.

And let Nehemias be a long time remembered, who raised up for us our walls that were cast down, and set up the gates and the bars, who rebuilt our houses."

These words are eminently applicable in the present instance. What Nehemias of old did for the Jewish nation, the late Bishop McIntyre did for the Catholics of this diocese.

And let Nehemias be a long time remembered, who raised up for us our walls that were cast down, and set up the gates and the bars, who rebuilt our houses."

These words are eminently applicable in the present instance. What Nehemias of old did for the Jewish nation, the late Bishop McIntyre did for the Catholics of this diocese.

And let Nehemias be a long time remembered, who raised up for us our walls that were cast down, and set up the gates and the bars, who rebuilt our houses."

These words are eminently applicable in the present instance. What Nehemias of old did for the Jewish nation, the late Bishop McIntyre did for the Catholics of this diocese.

And let Nehemias be a long time remembered, who raised up for us our walls that were cast down, and set up the gates and the bars, who rebuilt our houses."

These words are eminently applicable in the present instance. What Nehemias of old did for the Jewish nation, the late Bishop McIntyre did for the Catholics of this diocese.

And let Nehemias be a long time remembered, who raised up for us our walls that were cast down, and set up the gates and the bars, who rebuilt our houses."

These words are eminently applicable in the present instance. What Nehemias of old did for the Jewish nation, the late Bishop McIntyre did for the Catholics of this diocese.

And let Nehemias be a long time remembered, who raised up for us our walls that were cast down, and set up the gates and the bars, who rebuilt our houses."

Local and Special News.

PREACHED BY HIS GRACE, ARCHBISHOP O'BRIEN, IN ST. DUNSTON'S CATHEDRAL, AT THE MONTH'S MEETING OF THE LATE BISHOP MACINTYRE, ON JUNE 10, 1891.

And let the Nehemias be a long time remembered, who were cast down, and set up the gates and the bars, who rebuilt our houses.—Ecclesiasticus XLII:15.

My Lords, very reverend and revered Father and dear brethren:

Frequently as a priest and on several occasions an Archbishop have I spoken from this pulpit, but never under circumstances so trying as those which have gathered around the month's meeting ago when last I addressed you in this church, the face and figure of one, who for a generation had ruled this diocese, graced the sanctuary, and cheered the hearts of many. Somewhat aged, it is true, was that face; but the grand form was still instinct with strength, and that face no longer beamed upon us as of old.

Today that face no longer beams upon us; the stately figure is sadly missed; our friend, our father, our brother bishop is cold in death.

The slow approach of his endowment, and awful in its suddenness, was the Father of Marcellus, fell, and the soul of Bishop McIntyre peopled the void that hangs between the living and the dead.

It is not to be forgotten, however, that there was and mourning in many a home. With the solemn rites of the Church to bless his tomb, and to deprecate the judgment of heaven upon him, you laid him to rest, whilst plentiful tears gave expression to your sorrowing love and softened the poignancy of your regret; I could not then be present to mourn with you, or to pay a grateful tribute of respect to the memory of him who had been a father and a friend.

This was not an additional motive of regret.

To-day we are met to hold solemn service and to offer expiatory sacrifices on the thirtieth day, or, as it is called, to celebrate "Month's Mind." Invited by your Bishop to preach, gratitude to the dead and respect for the living would not permit me to refuse, although I dreaded the task. It is no easy one.

The lavish and indiscriminate praise of friendship in its first outbreak of grief is out of place now, equally with the harsh criticisms of the eager fault-finder. The perfect man need not be sought for on earth; but we are not to overlook or forget the deeds of greatness that may yet show, by occasional glimpses, that they are the work of a man, not of an angel.

When the inspired writer made use of the words of King David, "Let Nehemias be a long time remembered," he did not assert he was a perfect man, filled with every manner of virtue and crowned with all human weakness. No; he claimed recognition of the great deeds done for the good of the Jewish people.

"Let Nehemias be a long time remembered, who raised up for us our walls that were cast down, and set up the gates and the bars, who rebuilt our houses."

These words are eminently applicable in the present instance. What Nehemias of old did for the Jewish nation, the late Bishop McIntyre did for the Catholics of this diocese.

And let Nehemias be a long time remembered, who raised up for us our walls that were cast down, and set up the gates and the bars, who rebuilt our houses."

These words are eminently applicable in the present instance. What Nehemias of old did for the Jewish nation, the late Bishop McIntyre did for the Catholics of this diocese.

And let Nehemias be a long time remembered, who raised up for us our walls that were cast down, and set up the gates and the bars, who rebuilt our houses."

These words are eminently applicable in the present instance. What Nehemias of old did for the Jewish nation, the late Bishop McIntyre did for the Catholics of this diocese.

And let Nehemias be a long time remembered, who raised up for us our walls that were cast down, and set up the gates and the bars, who rebuilt our houses."

These words are eminently applicable in the present instance. What Nehemias of old did for the Jewish nation, the late Bishop McIntyre did for the Catholics of this diocese.

And let Nehemias be a long time remembered, who raised up for us our walls that were cast down, and set up the gates and the bars, who rebuilt our houses."

These words are eminently applicable in the present instance. What Nehemias of old did for the Jewish nation, the late Bishop McIntyre did for the Catholics of this diocese.

And let Nehemias be a long time remembered, who raised up for us our walls that were cast down, and set up the gates and the bars, who rebuilt our houses."

These words are eminently applicable in the present instance. What Nehemias of old did for the Jewish nation, the late Bishop McIntyre did for the Catholics of this diocese.

And let Nehemias be a long time remembered, who raised up for us our walls that were cast down, and set up the gates and the bars, who rebuilt our houses."

These words are eminently applicable in the present instance. What Nehemias of old did for the Jewish nation, the late Bishop McIntyre did for the Catholics of this diocese.

And let Nehemias be a long time remembered, who raised up for us our walls that were cast down, and set up the gates and the bars, who rebuilt our houses."

These words are eminently applicable in the present instance. What Nehemias of old did for the Jewish nation, the late Bishop McIntyre did for the Catholics of this diocese.

And let Nehemias be a long time remembered, who raised up for us our walls that were cast down, and set up the gates and the bars, who rebuilt our houses."

These words are eminently applicable in the present instance. What Nehemias of old did for the Jewish nation, the late Bishop McIntyre did for the Catholics of this diocese.

And let Nehemias be a long time remembered, who raised up for us our walls that were cast down, and set up the gates and the bars, who rebuilt our houses."

These words are eminently applicable in the present instance. What Nehemias of old did for the Jewish nation, the late Bishop McIntyre did for the Catholics of this diocese.

And let Nehemias be a long time remembered, who raised up for us our walls that were cast down, and set up the gates and the bars, who rebuilt our houses."

These words are eminently applicable in the present instance. What Nehemias of old did for the Jewish nation, the late Bishop McIntyre did for the Catholics of this diocese.

And let Nehemias be a long time remembered, who raised up for us our walls that were cast down, and set up the gates and the bars, who rebuilt our houses."

These words are eminently applicable in the present instance. What Nehemias of old did for the Jewish nation, the late Bishop McIntyre did for the Catholics of this diocese.

And let Nehemias be a long time remembered, who raised up for us our walls that were cast down, and set up the gates and the bars, who rebuilt our houses."

These words are eminently applicable in the present instance. What Nehemias of old did for the Jewish nation, the late Bishop McIntyre did for the Catholics of this diocese.

And let Nehemias be a long time remembered, who raised up for us our walls that were cast down, and set up the gates and the bars, who rebuilt our houses."

These words are eminently applicable in the present instance. What Nehemias of old did for the Jewish nation, the late Bishop McIntyre did for the Catholics of this diocese.

And let Nehemias be a long time remembered, who raised up for us our walls that were cast down, and set up the gates and the bars, who rebuilt our houses."

Local and Special News.

PREACHED BY HIS GRACE, ARCHBISHOP O'BRIEN, IN ST. DUNSTON'S CATHEDRAL, AT THE MONTH'S MEETING OF THE LATE BISHOP MACINTYRE, ON JUNE 10, 1891.

And let the Nehemias be a long time remembered, who were cast down, and set up the gates and the bars, who rebuilt our houses.—Ecclesiasticus XLII:15.

My Lords, very reverend and revered Father and dear brethren:

Frequently as a priest and on several occasions an Archbishop have I spoken from this pulpit, but never under circumstances so trying as those which have gathered around the month's meeting ago when last I addressed you in this church, the face and figure of one, who for a generation had ruled this diocese, graced the sanctuary, and cheered the hearts of many. Somewhat aged, it is true, was that face; but the grand form was still instinct with strength, and that face no longer beamed upon us as of old.

Today that face no longer beams upon us; the stately figure is sadly missed; our friend, our father, our brother bishop is cold in death.

The slow approach of his endowment, and awful in its suddenness, was the Father of Marcellus, fell, and the soul of Bishop McIntyre peopled the void that hangs between the living and the dead.

It is not to be forgotten, however, that there was and mourning in many a home. With the solemn rites of the Church to bless his tomb, and to deprecate the judgment of heaven upon him, you laid him to rest, whilst plentiful tears gave expression to your sorrowing love and softened the poignancy of your regret; I could not then be present to mourn with you, or to pay a grateful tribute of respect to the memory of him who had been a father and a friend.

This was not an additional motive of regret.

To-day we are met to hold solemn service and to offer expiatory sacrifices on the thirtieth day, or, as it is called, to celebrate "Month's Mind." Invited by your Bishop to preach, gratitude to the dead and respect for the living would not permit me to refuse, although I dreaded the task. It is no easy one.

The lavish and indiscriminate praise of friendship in its first outbreak of grief is out of place now, equally with the harsh criticisms of the eager fault-finder. The perfect man need not be sought for on earth; but we are not to overlook or forget the deeds of greatness that may yet show, by occasional glimpses, that they are the work of a man, not of an angel.

When the inspired writer made use of the words of King David, "Let Nehemias be a long time remembered," he did not assert he was a perfect man, filled with every manner of virtue and crowned with all human weakness. No; he claimed recognition of the great deeds done for the good of the Jewish people.

"Let Nehemias be a long time remembered, who raised up for us our walls that were cast down, and set up the gates and the bars, who rebuilt our houses."

These words are eminently applicable in the present instance. What Nehemias of old did for the Jewish nation, the late Bishop McIntyre did for the Catholics of this diocese.

And let Nehemias be a long time remembered, who raised up for us our walls that were cast down, and set up the gates and the bars, who rebuilt our houses."

These words are eminently applicable in the present instance. What Nehemias of old did for the Jewish nation, the late Bishop McIntyre did for the Catholics of this diocese.

And let Nehemias be a long time remembered, who raised up for us our walls that were cast down, and set up the gates and the bars, who rebuilt our houses."

These words are eminently applicable in the present instance. What Nehemias of old did for the Jewish nation, the late Bishop McIntyre did for the Catholics of this diocese.

And let Nehemias be a long time remembered, who raised up for us our walls that were cast down, and set up the gates and the bars, who rebuilt our houses."

These words are eminently applicable in the present instance. What Nehemias of old did for the Jewish nation, the late Bishop McIntyre did for the Catholics of this diocese.

And let Nehemias be a long time remembered, who raised up for us our walls that were cast down, and set up the gates and the bars, who rebuilt our houses."

These words are eminently applicable in the present instance. What Nehemias of old did for the Jewish nation, the late Bishop McIntyre did for the Catholics of this diocese.

And let Nehemias be a long time remembered, who raised up for us our walls that were cast down, and set up the gates and the bars, who rebuilt our houses."

These words are eminently applicable in the present instance. What Nehemias of old did for the Jewish nation, the late Bishop McIntyre did for the Catholics of this diocese.

And let Nehemias be a long time remembered, who raised up for us our walls that were cast down, and set up the gates and the bars, who rebuilt our houses."

These words are eminently applicable in the present instance. What Nehemias of old did for the Jewish nation, the late Bishop McIntyre did for the Catholics of this diocese.

And let Nehemias be a long time remembered, who raised up for us our walls that were cast down, and set up the gates and the bars, who rebuilt our houses."

These words are eminently applicable in the present instance. What Nehemias of old did for the Jewish nation, the late Bishop McIntyre did for the Catholics of this diocese.