Bulletin News Service.

Rev. F. A. Bowen, superintendent of the White Whale Lake, presided, and Rev. Dr. Riddell preached very eloquent sermons at both services.

The church is a neat little building, centrally large, for the young and energetic pastor.

The building would cost, under ordinary circumstances, about $1,100, but as a great deal of the work, lumber, stone and other material were donated, the actual cost in cash was a little over $400.

Most of this was provided for at the opening services, very little debt remained.

On Monday evening Rev. Mr. Hagan preached and Rev. F. Priestley presided. A feature which added greatly to the hearty singing.

The people of Pine Ridge are to be congratulated on the success which has attended their enterprise, and wish them greater success in the future.
