Children's Service.

AT ANGLICAN CATHEDRAL.

The Children's Service at the Church of England Cathedral on Sunday afternoon last, will surely rank in the forefront of all those connected with the present Synodical proceedings. It was a gathering of the Sunday School children of the four City Parishes, and the spacious Cathedral was crowded to overflowing.

The occasion was the fifth annual presentation of the offering from the Sunday Schools of the Diocese for "Our Own Missionary" in China, Rev. Ives Stocker.

At 3 o'clock, the children being seated, the choir and clergy entered the West door, when Canon Jeeves, Rector of the Cathedral, announced the first hymn, "Brightly Gleams the Banner." As the procession moved along the aisle the effect was most attractive and inspiring, and the heartiness with which the great congregation of children joined in singing showed their delight and enthusiasm in their missionary effort. The Bishop had given a handsome Banner, known as the "Bishop's Banner" which is held by the school contributing the largest collection for the year.

The Parish of St. Mary's, Heart's Content, won it last year, and it was proudly borne by a Heart's Content boy, Ralph, son of Dr. Arthur Anderson. Well done, Heart's Content.

In the Chancel there were about forty of the clergy, and a very full choir, all of which testified to the importance of the service and the interest manifested for its success. To the organist, Mr. King, and his choir, the children are specially indebted for the splendid musical contribution.

The service throughout was conducted by Rev. Canon Smart, who besides being Rector of the Parish holding the Banner of Honor, is also Chairman of the Diocesan Board of Missions, and one of the originators of "Our Own Missionary" in China enterprise. The scripture lesson was read by Rev. C. A. Moulton.

The sermon was delivered by Rev. E. C. Harp, Rector of St. Thomas's who succeeded in riveting the undivided attention of the vast youthful aggregation. Holding up his hand he said, "Just five words for the text—'There is a lad here.'" The keynote of this splendid address was generosity and service, and by pointed illustration and story the lessons of the parable of the Loaves and Fishes was taught with such directness, earnestness and simplicity as commanded the closest listening of every soul within the walls of the sacred edifice. To look out upon such a sea of little faces, all straining to hear the words as they fell from the preacher, must have been inspiring to him, while the listeners felt that they were drawing interesting and useful thoughts, that must be to their profit. It seemed to be one of the sermons not easily reported, but one that cannot soon be forgotten by those who heard.

Following the sermon, the hymn "All Things Bright and Beautiful" was sung, during which the collection was taken. The offering of the Diocese was presented by nine boys in C.L.B. uniform, representing the nine parishes; that of Trinity Hall holding the place of honor as the most generous giver. The general collection was taken by Superintendents of the City Sunday Schools. The procession of collectors, at conclusion of the hymn, walked up to the Chancel and presented the offering to Canon Smart who in turn passed it to the Bishop for presentation at the Altar.

Then followed prayers for our Bishop, the Board of Missions, and "Our Own Missionary" and the Benediction by the Bishop.

The Recessional hymn: "All Hail the Power of Jesus Name" was then sung with wondrous effect, and this service of striking beauty and enthusiasm closed.

Viewing the entire proceedings, considering the throng of youthful servants of the Master, who by the keenness of their attention, indicated their interest and enthusiasm, and remembering that some who are older, do not always or often manifest such commendable service in the religious life, the thought forces itself into prominence here, "A Little Child Shall Lead Them."—Com.

Molasses.

There seems to be some excitement in the West Indies, but the trade in this country seems to have made up their mind not to be excited at all. There has been no change since of late issue in local prices and there is a feeling that in spite of the fact that the remainder of the crop is held in a few strong hands, the market ought not to be any higher. The quantity imported to date is said to be larger than the quantity imported to the same date last year, and quite to the importation in 1920. And it is not to be said that molasses is low in price; as a matter of fact it is higher than ever it was up to say $15, before which it had never, in the experience of people now in plant, been as high as 50 cents a gallon, even when sugar sold from 8 to 10 cents, molasses never sold so high; at today's rate it is only 3 1/2 cents a pound, while molasses is 60 cents wholesale. 1913 when raw sugar was 3 1/2 a pound, molasses was 25 cents. Of course at 25 cents molasses was low, but except for the fact that first cost at Barbados is so great it is to high to-day at present prices. The feeling is that the market should not go any higher at any rate, but apparently the trade cannot base their calculations on the principles that used to work in the markets in pre-war days. At the moment the market is strong and supplies in this country do not seem to be excessive.—Maritime Merchant.

No Coinage for Russia.

SILVER MONEY TO REPLACE PAPER.

PETROGAD, (Associated Press).—New silver money which in time the Soviet Government hopes to put in circulation to replace, partly at least, the paper ruble of to-day is being coined in the Petrograd mint, the only existing plant of its kind in Russia. The mint began operating several months ago; up to the present time it has manufactured 7,000,000 rubles in silver of denominations of 10, 15, 20, 50 copecks, and 1 ruble pieces. The coins contain 90 per cent. silver and 10 per cent. copper, and in general appearance are much the same as those in use before the war. Close inspection, however, shows that the Soviet coat of arms has replaced the old Imperial eagle. Another striking feature is the Bolshevik motto—"Proletariat of the world, unite!" on the reverse side. The new coins are sent to Moscow where they are held as part of the Government reserve. When a sufficient quantity has been assembled the Government contemplates using them as a form of guarantee for paper money to be issued in the future. Ultimately it is hoped to put them generally in circulation, and thus obviate the present necessity of calculating in billions and millions for the needs of every day life.

Newfoundlander Receives Degrees.

GRADUATES AT BOSTON UNIVERSITY.

Amongst those on the list of graduates for the degree of Bachelor of Religious Education, at the Boston University to Mr. Ronald Thomas Moore of New Bay, Newfoundland. Mr. Moore completed his three year course in theology at Toronto University, and then transferred to Boston University to specialize in Religious Education under Dean Walter Scott Athearn, who might be termed the Dean of Religious Education in America.

Mr. Moore returns to Newfoundland for ordination, and takes with him one of the most popular and most coveted degrees a clergyman can possess. Religious Education whose function is to train Christian leaders for all phases of work is admitted by theologians to be the foundation of the church of the future. Boston University has an enrollment of 3,833 students, and more than 700 students in extra mural courses. This year's commencement exercises were held in Symphony Hall and 658 students were given degrees.

Wedding Bells.

MARTIN-NEWS.

The profusion of bunting flying at Bell Island on Thursday afternoon, was evidence of something more than usual happening, and moving along Main Street, opposite the business premises of J. B. Martin, a prominent business man we learned that at the Methodist Church, three o'clock, his eldest daughter, Hazel, was being united in hymen's bonds to Mr. J. L. Mews of the Surveying Staff of the British Empire Steel Corporation. The Rev. Mrs. F. Curtis performed the ceremony, and the many friends of the contracting parties filled the church; which had been tastefully decorated for the occasion. The bride was beautifully attired in a gown of Canton crepe, with Radium lace and pearl, and carried a bouquet of white carnations and maiden hair fern, and was attended by her cousin Miss Marjorie Butler of St. John's, and Mr. Cecil Mews, brother of the groom, was his best man. Millicent Mews, a sister of the groom and Master Roy Cramm, nephew of the bride were flower bearers. During the signing of the register Mr. Harry Courtenay sang that fine tenor solo "Because." As the bridal party left the church Gordon Christian Esq. played the Wedding March. The wedding party then proceeded to a large marquee which had been erected on the lawn near the residence, where ice cream, cake, etc. was served and the customary toasts were duly proposed by the Minister, and others, and responded to in a right royal way by the happy party, and after pleasant greetings were exchanged by the Bell Island friends, to the St. John's visitors, which were about forty, adjournment was made to the house where a further reception was tendered by the bride's mother, and a bountiful supper provided. The presents were very many, and valuable, including some cheques from her father and others. At seven p.m. the entire company which had swelled to large numbers enjoyed the fine trip on "St. Mary" to Portuguese Cove. It was just delightful on the blue waters of Conception Bay as the sun was setting, and the whistle blew farewell to Wabana. The happy couple then motored to Topsail and will spend their honeymoon at Salmonier. We wish Mr. and Mrs. Mews many happy years together.

Royal Yacht Squadron.

ELECT NEW MEMBERS.

LONDON, (Associated Press).—The Royal Yacht Squadron, styled the most exclusive club in the world, has just elected eight members, a majority of whom are peers. To achieve membership in the Royal Yacht Squadron is equivalent to obtaining a certificate of social position far more widely recognized than the patent of nobility. Wealth alone, as very rich men have discovered, will not suffice to secure admission to what some detractors have termed the last stronghold of "snobocracy" in England. Tradesmen, however, philanthropic or patriotic are barred. Sir Thomas Lipton has issued several challenges for America's cup, and no man in the country has done anything like as much to encourage yacht building and designating as he has. But because he is a tradesman, it is said, he has never

Gibsol Universal Antiseptic Ointment,

Made in Ireland.

One would gather from all that is being written on the art of advertising that it is only necessary to advertise extensively to sell almost any quantity of any commodity. But it is enduring quality alone that will stand the test of time. As a long-dead wiseacre had it "You may fool some of the people sometimes, but you'll never fool all the people all the time."

Though we have given our Ointment due publicity in all the countries into which we have introduced it, we find that our best advertisement is the testimony of those who have used it to those who need it. Merit alone has carried it to the great portion of fine continents. English, Scotch, Dutch, German, French, Portuguese, Russian, Spanish, all use it and are glad to use it. Irishmen swear by it.

Medical men all through the world use it and recommend it.

It bears the Irish Trade Mark, the guarantee not of an individual or a firm, but of a nation.

Armenians Will Change National Music.

CONSTANTINOPLE. — A radical change in the national music of the Armenian people is being planned by the native teachers who are in charge of the educational work of the orphanages in the Armenian Soviet Republic. They purpose to eliminate the "note of sadness and submission," and substitute a more joyous spirit, according to L. Ray Ogden, Oakland, Cal., superintendent of the American Industrial School where 2,000 Armenian orphans are learning native trades. "Many generations of suppression and persecution have left an indelible impression on the popular music and folk songs of the Armenian people," said Mr. Ogden recently. "The native dances, poems, and plays are all in a distinctly minor key which is bound to have a depressing effect on the youth of the country. But with the dawn of a new freedom, this note of sadness ought to be changed, so far as possible, into a spirit of inspiration and enthusiasm. In the schools, we have agreed to eliminate some of the most depressing of the national folk-songs, replacing them with other national music revived from the ancient songs of the shepherds and farmers."
