"Newfoundland" Taken to Task.

SHAREHOLDER SAYS HIS FACTS AND FANCIES ARE ALL WRONG.

Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir:—The ignorance of a correspondent signing himself "Newfoundlander" in yesterday issue of the Telegram is so obvious, that but for his thinly veiled slurs at myself and others, I would not venture to reply to such a puerile attempt at the pen, who jousts so refreshingly with the English language. Evidently he must be one of the directors of that so much advertised St. George's Coal Fields, Ltd., or if not a member of that august but famously useless body, he at least has been commissioned to scrawl in their defence. Whether or not he is a shareholder is not germane to the issue. Apparently he is one of the type of literary mongers who while welcoming criticism of the class with whom he associates, yet fears the genuine, honest article. He asks the shareholders of St. George's Coal Fields to look carefully into "what has been done during the past three years to destroy confidence in the possibilities of these unquestionably valuable coal areas." Well the shareholders have looked and so far as they can see it would need a microscope to discover anything that has been done to give investors a return for the money they sincerely spent in the purchase of stock ostensibly for development and promotion purposes. Newfoundland is altogether wrong in his premises. No shareholder wishes to tear down the fabric which his or her money helped create. The very thing which is objected to is that the directors have no say in the matter, hence they are helpless inasmuch as they do not appear to know how to break down the individual influence against them. That is why I asked that the shareholders appoint a directorate (if they are allowed) who do know how to begin to overcome the curse of one man government, even to an appeal to the court of last recourse if necessary. Newfoundland is not at all happy in his references. Neither are his opinions his own. There are more things in connection with the St. George's Coal Fields than are dreamed of in his philosophy, and I may take pleasure in telling him some of these some day.

Yours truly,
SHAREHOLDER.

Coaker's Day is Done.

Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir:—In the editorial of the Evening Advocate under date of Nov. 1st, which has just come to hand, we notice the copy of a message supposed to be sent to Mr. E. J. Wornell of this place, cancelling signatures of those who signed Fishermen's Resolutions at Amherst Cove, Newmann's Cove, and Birch Cove. Mr. Wornell did receive a collect message (and on its non-acceptance by him was afterwards paid) with no signature, and the first information received as to who sent the message was in the issue of Advocate of date mentioned.

The fishermen of this side of the Bay cannot realize that any body of their fellow fishermen even if they belong to a small section of the District, after hearing the Resolutions read two or three times and explained as well as any layman could do so, for them to sign, and a few hours after ask for their signatures to be cancelled. We cannot believe such to be the case, and can only think that if the one who should have signed the telegram received, which according to the Evening Advocate is John Elliott, who was our Chairman of the meeting held at Newmann's Cove, we say that if this man did sign the copy of message he must have been easily led by the faction which we always supposed to be the friends of the underdogs, but now since we have started this fight for "Sinn Ceilge" we find that they are our enemies.

Our Resolutions gave the present Government a chance to make good their many promises to us, as the fishermen's friends, and in our opinion we are asking only that which is possible to be granted with retrenchment, and which some of our leading business economists say is quite possible to be done, and now in fear of losing their self-voiced large salaries they have turned traitors to the political platform on which they were elected again and again until they assumed the reins of Government. Mr. A. B. Morine seems to be the man they are afraid of, the man who was chosen by our delegates, who visited St. John's, and who was afterwards accepted as our adviser as we believe he understands our needs—more than any other man at this time—to keep the fisheries on a paying basis so that we may be able to maintain our families in some comfort. Now, men of Amherst, Newmann's and Birch Coves, who signed those Resolutions don't be misled by those whom now we know to be the enemies of every man who takes a good from the water, and when you have won the victory, be able to hold up your heads like men, and say: "We did our bit to win it."

same issue of the Advocate before mentioned it is asked who E. J. Wornell is and in reply for your information we beg to say that E. J. Wornell is one who was appointed from the fishermen of the North side of Bonaville Bay as one of their committee and not chosen by Mr. A. B. Morine. He was afterwards asked by that Committee to accompany the Brags to Bonaville to assist them in putting the Resolutions before the people. Now Mr. so-called-Union this is our answer to your query and further you are likely to know who a good many more Northern fishermen are before the movement is ended. We also wish to inform you that E. J. Wornell was not expelled from the F.P.U., but withdrew from that body as hundreds more of Greens-pond men have done, leaving them now with about a score of members. If the Advocate editorials are W. F. Coaker's thoughts that the Fishermen's Movement is falling flat he will be a much surprised man in the near future. The fishermen are in this to a finish, and one parting word to the Editor of that rag is that the Northern fishermen are in no mood at this time to be A-mew-d. (For the Committee)
