

Laid to Rest

Yesterday afternoon the funerals of G. J. Whitty, M.C., Lieut. W. M. R.A.F., and Mr. Clinton Duder, victims of Monday night's tragedy, took place. Despite the inclemency of the weather, thousands of citizens gathered to pay their last tribute of respect to the departed. The funeral of the late Lieut. King took place at 2.30, from the residence, Tor Cottage, Waterford Road, to the General Protestant Cemetery. The hearse bearing the casket, was draped in the Union Jack, and was preceded by the C.L.B. Band. The cortege formed up as follows: Detachment of ex-Soldiers, Guard of Honor from Avalon Lodge, A.F. & M., a detachment of Veterans carrying many wreaths, representatives of the Government, the Mayor, and a large gathering of citizens. As the sad cortege moved off, the C.L.B. Band rendered "The Dead March in Saul." The service at the cemetery was conducted by Rev. R. J. Fairbairn, assisted by Rev. Hammond Johnson. The G.W.V.A. Ritual was recited, during which the Executive of the Association dropped a wreath in the grave, whilst the Misses also dropped a sprig of acacia. The procession reformed and wended its way to the funeral of the late Captain Whitty, Waterford Bridge Road. The cortege left the deceased's residence at 2.30 and the processional order was the same as that of Lieut. King, with the addition of a Guard of Honor from the C.C.C. whilst ex-Captains of the Regiment acted as Pall-bearers, while many citizens brought flowers to the rear. As the cortege proceeded down Water Street, the C.L.B. Band played "The Dead March in Saul," "Nearer My God To Thee," and other solemn music, whilst thousands lined the thoroughfare and bowed their heads as the funeral passed by. During the National War Memorial procession made a brief halt, when several wreaths were placed on the Memorial as a tribute to the deceased's memory. The cortege then proceeded via Cochrane Street and Military Road to the Cathedral where prayers for the dead were recited by Rev. Dr. Carter, assisted by Rev. Frs. Ryan, Savin, Murphy, McGettigan and Kennedy. At the conclusion of the service, the "Dead March in Saul" played forth from the organ. Leaving the Cathedral, a detachment of naval soldiers in charge of two officers from HMS Constance joined in the procession to Belvedere Cemetery, where the funeral took place. The funeral of the late Clinton Duder took place from the residence of Mr. W. F. Joyce, Barnes Road, at 4.30 p.m. and was attended by a large concourse of citizens. Interment took place at the General Protestant Cemetery. The service at the graveside was conducted by Rev. R. J. Power, of the Presbyterian Church, and Rev. A. B. Stirling, of St. Mary's.

Holds World's Slow Record

At Wembley may be seen what is regarded at the world's slowest moving creature, the Tuatara lizard. This strange creature which often stays still for as long as two weeks without even moving its eyelids, is to be added to the exhibits in the New Zealand pavilion at Wembley. It has the remains of a third eye on the top of its head, and is the slowest breathing animal in the world. If two of the species are menaced by a rat, the small jumps on the back of the larger. If, then, the rat approaches too near, the big Tuatara grabs it in its jaws and goes to sleep, leaving the rat no alternative to a gradual extinction.
