of our darling little girl, Edith Stev enson, died Dec. 14th, 1923. In our hearts we mourn the loss,

Of her we loved so dear;

What would we give to clasp her hand Her gentle voice to hear. Her loving smile and welcome voice That were so dear to us;

She's resting now in Heaven above And we think of you dear Edith, While tear-drops dim our eyes; You could not say good-bye to us

Before you closed your eyes.

Dearest Edith you have left us,
Never will your memory fade;
Loving hearts will always linger,
Around the grave where thou art Inserted by her mother and father.

IN LOVING MEMORY of our darling daughter, Florence Jenkins, who died Dec. 14th, 1924. Pe-day brings back sad memories Of that sad and bitter blow; That was cast upon our homestead Just one year ago.

The memory of your dear kind face, Your kind and thoughtful ways; Your constant vision memory brings Shall never fade away.

We mourn for you dear daughter;
No eye may see us weep;
But many a silent tear is shed
While others lie asleep. We watched you night and day Until at last with broken hearts
