CARNEY WON GAME BY TRANSPLANTING

He Switched Himself Over From the of the Game.

Manager William Carney won th rame for his team last evening in with game for his team last evening in with the semi-pros. and the score of seven to one in the league team's favor, by a dazsling, sizzling and very bold exhibition of head work.

Bill went in to pitch for the other side, sort of transplanted from the pros. to the semi-pros.

When Bill went in the box the score was one run each, and when Bill came out just one innings later, the score stood pros. 5, semi-pros. 1. Bill passed four men and this with an error, a single and Clynes' safety to centre field, produced the four talleys. That was more than Carney could stand, and as he put himself in, he took himself out and got Ed. Geehan to finish out the game.

out and got Ed. Geehan to finish out the game.

Up to that time for five innings the game was a good one, and very interesting. Manning for the league team, and Pete for the semi-pros. pitched swell ball. At the end of the fifth the score was only one run a-piece. The pros. in that time got two hits off Pete, and the semi-pros. tallied once off Manning. Then Carney took himself out of his own team at second, placed Pete Standridge there, and signed up with the semi-pros.

Manning in the box, and Pop Gouchee behind the bat made their initial appearance before this season's fans. Del. got a great reception from the crowd, and all enquired anxiously about the crops and the young calves.

Manning showed up well. It took the semi-pros. five innings before they could unfathom his deliveries, and then it was only a single from Steidenbecker's bat. He got the Chandler bunch guessing right from the start, and made them travel to the plate one, two, three, for four innings. Only sixteen men faced him during the five innings.

Chan's bunch got their run in the sixth off Crist. Le Craw got to first on a safe hit to right field, and then Stokes bunted one down to first, but no one covered the bag. Turner went out on an infield fly, and then Chan made a sensation by slapping out a stinger over second and brought in Le Craw.

The pros. got one in the third. Stan-

Stanley came home. They got four in the sixth, as mentloned above, and two mere in the seventh off Geehan.
Geehan's arm was bothering him, and he did not feel in good shape. Standridge, Clynes and Smith all got hits from him, the former a two-bagger,
and this produced the two counts.

The league team appears to be getting in better shape every day. Each workout shows the team better and better. The outfield is fast, and covers a lot of ground. Two or three times last evening the outfielders gave an exhibition of chasing the long ones, and they got there every time.

These two teams will play again on Saturday afternoon. This pros. will again loan their battery to the semipro, team; and this should guarantee
