The City Council Wrestling with the Railway Bill.

The Syndidate Consents Not to Mortgage Its Property. But Want the Clause by Which the Rent is Paid Last.

Mr. Hyman Presents the M. C. R Claims-The Latter Want a Reduction in the Cost of Running Powers - The Syndicate Will Put Up $10,000 Security for the Rent.

A special meeting of the City Council commenced at 1 o'clock this afternoon to discuss matters relating to the L. and P. S. R. Bill. Those present were Mayor Essery, Ald. Taylor, Connor, Heaman, Coo, J. W. Jones, Moule, Thos. Jones, Carrothers, Stevely, Jas. Fitzgerald, Scarrow, Garratt, Dreaney, Welford, F. J. Fitzgerald, Parnell, Shaw and Pritchett. Messrs. Miller, and Hellmuth & Ivey represented the syndicate, and Mr. T. G. Meredith was present in the interests of the city.

Mr. Miller was closeted with the mayor and city solicitor for some time prior to the meeting. Then Mr. Miller left the room, and the council filed into the mayor's office where a private conference was held.

The crowd in the hall kept gradually getting larger as the time went by, many prominent business and railroad men, among whom were Murray Anderson, ex-Ald. Jeffrey, J. A. Nelles, S. F. Glass, John Cameron, C. S. Hyman, M.P., ex-Mayor Hodgens, A. M. Smart and others being present.

Cameron, C. S. Hyman, M.P., ex-Mayor Hodgens, A. M. Smart and others being present.

There was a whole hour of private confab in the mayor's office between the two parties. It was 2:05 when the council filed in, and the mayor took the chair. He called on Mr. Meredith to explain the situation to those present. The latter immediately went into clause 12, in which was the dispute. He was satisfied that it would be futile to ask the railway committee to make the rents a first charge if the clause giving the power to borrow went through. If the clause were struck out altogether, then the syndicate would withdraw altogether. This was what they wished to consult the council about. There were two other clauses that Mr. Ivey struck out—that giving the syndicate power to mortgage the slip-dock and also part of paragraph 5. He (Mr. Meredith) could not agree with Mr. Ivey where they wanted power to override part of the lease. With regard to the paying up of at least $100,000 capital stock, he thought that rather peremptory and suggested that some time should be given—six months if possible after the passing of the act—and if it was not paid up by that time then the syndicate to forfeit the $25,000 security.

Mr. Essery asked the city solicitor if he

Mr. Parnell then moved that Mr. Ivey be heard. The latter corroborated the offer which was made on the consideration that the council approve of the bill as drafted by them; the $10,000 to remain security for the rent and to bear interest at 6 per cent.

Ald. F. J. Fitzgerald then asked on what understanding the syndicate proposed that

Ald. F. J. Fitzgerald then asked on what understanding the syndicate proposed that the council should approve of the bill, with or without the amendments.

Mr. Ivey then went over the amendments up to clause 9. Here he wanted the same time to pay up the capital stock as they were allowed in the lease, namely, six months. In clause 12 he asked a few changes in the wording. All the amendments after that correct figures. The agreement between the G. T. R. and M. C. R. had been on a sliding scale, but if the amount could be agreed upon this afternoon he would be willing. For the syndicate's part they preferred to retain in the city the M. C. R. and their terminal facilities. They preferred to give the M. C. R. running powers sconer than do their hauling. They could not possibly on the apur of the moment with only one of the syndicate on this side of the water, arrive at the amount in fifteen minutes or in a few hours. He thought that it was unreasonable to ask the syndicate to pay $8,000 more rent to begin with, and then bonus an opposition road to enter into competition with them. They were willing to meet them anywhere as far as it was in their power to do so.

The mayor then moved that the deputation from the Board of Trade, formed the case of the M. C. R. They were simply there from the Board of Trade, recognizing the immense importance of the matter. The situation of affairs was simply this, that under arbitration the M. C. R. had been obliged to pay a certain sum of money into the city of London, and they found this sum toe much and consequently had taken advantage to withdraw at the gyndicate should charge the M. C. R. for running powers. He also suggested after that had been agreed upon that an amendment be made in the Ports Stanley Bill binding them to give reasonable and usual rates and running mowers for the consideration of a certain the Sullivan-Kilrain fight at Richurg, Miss., in July, 1889. Two deputy-shrifts who are after the reward are expected this morning. The Crescent City Club will fight the effort to deliver the English fighter to the Mississippi officials.

Petition Against His Appointment to the St. Thomas Postmastership — Will Meredith Resign?—Rumored Change in the Provincial Leadership.

Specially reported for the ADVERTISER by ou editorial representative at the Capital.]
OTTAWA, March 6.—Mr. Lister this afteron gave notice that he will ask whether there is a vacancy in the postmastership o there is a vacancy in the postmastership of St. Thomas, and whether the Government has received a petition that the vacancy be promptly filled. I understand that a large number of Conservatives, learning that Mr. Ingram, M.P., had nominated himself for the vacant job, have petitioned that the vacancy be at once filled, and that no appointment be made that would cause a bycelection in East Elgin. This is a bad slap at Mr. Ingram. at Mr. Ingram.

Sir John Thompson told a friend of minyesterday that he expected to be back from Paris before Parliament rises. This means either the session will be prolonged or Sir John's business abroad will be speedily transacted. Sir John holds to the first-mentioned view.

Richard Armstrong, president of the Young Men's Conservative Club of Toronto was here on Saturday and yesterday. He had interviews with the leaders of the Con-servative party here, and I am told a con-ference was held at which the future of the ference was held at which the future of the Conservative managers with regard to logal legislative affairs was mapped out. It is expected that within the next month or two a convention will be held, at which a new programme will be propounded on somewhat different lines from those laid down by Meredith, who, I understand, will really retire from the leadership, which will be given to either E. F. Clarke, M.P.P., or Wm. Laidlaw, Q.C., of Toronto. The latter has not a seat, but it is expected would be put up for a constituency near Toronto. It is said Sir John Thompson and his associates while outwardly professing differently will not very much regret Meredith's retirement.

A ROW IN CHURCH.

Priests in Swedesboro, N. J., Defy Their Superiors.

Swedesboro, N. J., Feb. 6.—Rev. Wm. Treacy and his brother, the deposed priests, yesterday created a scene in the church when Rev. Father Leahy, who was sent here by Bishop O'Farrell to take charge of the parish, attempted to read the bishop's letter to the parishioners. Rev. Wm. Treacy strode dramatically upon the altar and loudly commanded Father Leahy not to read the letter. The priest was accompanied by Deputy Sheriff Garrison and Constable Taylor, who were ordered to arrest Father Leahy if the latter persisted in reading the letter. There was instant excitement in the church and a serious outbreak was imminent. Father Leahy saw excitement in the church and a serious outbreak was imminent. Father Leahy saw that the priests and officers were in earnest and quietly withdrew. The Traceys are in possession of the rectory here and openly defy the authority of Mgr. Satolli and Bishop O'Farrell. Legal means will be taken by Father Leahy to secure possession of the rectory.
