THE MAN ON THE BOX

HAROLD MACGRATH

Author of "The Puppet Crown"
 "THE MAN ON THE BOX" is Harold MacGrath's rollicking story of a Washington escapade. On the stage it would be voted a clean, spirited and clever society comedy. In book form it deserves no less complimentary rating. The author seems to have been in the very best of humor with himself, his characters, and his audience. He takes us into his confidence with an engaging unconventionality that almost goes to the point of winking at us over the lovers' shoulders. — Life

The Great "Race Problem" Novel

THE LAW OF THE LAND

By EMERSON HOUGH

Author of "The Mississippi Bubble"

"This romance, written with slashing strokes, sets forth a charming love story; introduces typically fearless Americans; and is such a vigorous exposition of the race struggle that it must set national law-makers thinking." — Buffalo Courier

MISS WALSH TOO STRONG OF ARM

Dorothy Dorr Knocked Senseless When Hurlled Back by Her in New Play.

Rochester, Feb. 2.—"The Woman in the Case," by Clyde Fitch, was produced here recently. In the third act, where the heroine discovers the secret that will free her husband from the charge of murder, Blanche Walsh, as Margaret Rolfe, hurls the brazen woman, impersonated by Dorothy Dorr, away from her, in the fever of her act, Miss Walsh hurled Miss Dorr backward into a chair with much force. Miss Dorr struck her head against a piano and was rendered unconscious.

The curtain was lowered and kept down until the deafening applause faded it up. Miss Dorr lay where she had fallen. The curtain was lowered again and she lay down, despite the continued vociferous applause.

Miss Dorr was revived, but after being carried off the stage she fainted twice. The play was somewhat delayed, but she recovered in twenty minutes and was able to continue. A physician examined her head and said she might easily have suffered a fracture of the skull that would have killed her. The accident worked the audience up to a great pitch of excitement.

The play scored a triumph. Its daring, up-to-date and startlingly realistic plot fascinates after the style of a thrilling detective story. It is a tale of love and intrigue, and abounds with strong scenes, admirably acted. George Pawcett shares the honors with Blanche Walsh and Dorothy Dorr, as Claire Foster, the brazen woman who caused her lover to shoot himself and then charged the crime as murder committed by a former lover, did difficult work splendidly.

Clyde Fitch was called before the curtain and thanked the audience.

REJECTED BY DEATH

Scaffold Refused to Work and Alleged Murderer Is Reprieved.

London, Feb. 2.—It is stated that John Lee, the footman who was convicted in February, 1885, of the murder of his mistress, Miss Keyse, at Babbarcombe, near Torquay, will be released.

Three futile efforts were made at Exeter to carry out the death sentence.

Lee was placed on the scaffold, the lever was pulled, but the drop refused to act. The executioner and the wardens did all they could for eight minutes to make it work, and then Lee, who had been praying all the time, was led away to a corner of the execution shed.

There, with the white cap still over his face, he could hear the hammering and sawing on the scaffold.

Once again he was led out to death, and once again the drop refused to work.

He was led away again, while the wardens worked. "It is sure to go down this time," they said.

For the third time the drop refused to act.

Then Lee was led back to his cell, and was eventually reprieved.

A story was told at the time of a white dove—a symbol of innocence—which hovered over Lee's head, and then settled on the scaffold as the executioner drew the lever for the first time.

It is also stated that on the night before the abortive execution Lee dreamed that there was no move, and he would fall.

Lee is now 42 years old and it is suggested that if the terms of his license permit it, he will go on the stage.

STILL NO NEWS

Cabinet Met Wednesday, but There Was Nothing for the Reporters.

Toronto, Ont., Feb. 1.—At the close of the Ontario Cabinet council this afternoon the reporters were again informed that there was no news. The cabinet will hold another meeting tomorrow. Mr. J. P. Whitney, who left for Morrisburg this morning, will not be stated, return to Toronto until he has received the call from the Lieutenant-Governor, which he expects to get on Saturday next. It is believed that he has received this call from Hon. G. W. Ross.

Col. Matheson, Messrs. Kidd, Fox, Pearce and several other Conservative members-elect, have returned to their homes. Dr. Willoughby, the Conservative whip, who arrived in this city yesterday, accompanied Mr. Whitney to Morrisburg.

BETRAYED BY HER MUSICAL SKIRTS

Music Box That Burst Into Tune Causes Woman's Arrest as a Thief.

New York, Feb. 2.—A music-box that insisted on playing most inopportunistly betrayed Mrs. Della Lewis yesterday afternoon in front of a Sixth avenue store and caused her arrest by Daniel Kash, a store detective, on a charge of shoplifting.

Detective Kash said he watched Mrs. Lewis collect various articles in the store and carry them to the retiring room. Finally she came out with the evident intention of leaving the store. She had nothing in her hands, and the detective was mystified. Calling a salesgirl, he told her to search the room for any missing goods. This she did, but could find nothing.

Detective Kash followed Mrs. Lewis out on the street. She was walking with a peculiar gait, and the detective became suspicious. Suddenly there was a faint tinkle, followed by the ruffled waverling notes of what seemed to him to be "Good-Bye, Little Girl, Good-Bye."

The woman colored a deep crimson when the detective spoke to her. At first she refused to go back to the store, but he insisted, and she finally returned with him. She was handed over to one of the ladies' room, where she was searched.

Hidden under a wealth of petticoats and kept from falling by baby-bus ribbons tightly tied, was found, the detective asserted, an assortment of goods to the value of $21.88. Among the articles was a silver waist, two silk corset covers, a pair of silk stockings, a ruby cross, a string of pearl and metal beads, a bottle of cracker and a small music-box.

At the station house Mrs. Lewis, the police said, confessed to the things, pleading that her husband was out of work and she had to steal to keep from starving.

VANDERBILTS TO BUILD TUNNEL

Definitely Decided by the Big Roads to Place One Beneath Detroit River.

Detroit, Mich., Feb. 1.—The News this afternoon says that it is able to state upon reliable information that as a result of the unification of the New York Central, Lake Shore, Michigan Central and Big Four Railroad systems, a tunnel will be immediately constructed under the Detroit River to facilitate the transportation of cars and avoid the delays that are caused by the ice every winter. The tunnel will be built by the Vanderbilt interests independent of other roads.

The News says that all necessary data has been gathered for the construction of the tunnel, the equipment of which is to be the finest that engineering skill can devise. The Michigan Central rights of way on both sides of the river will be used for the tunnel, and there will be no changes in the present terminals.

Prominent engineers have already sunk test pits, gathered all the necessary data, and they have learned considerable by watching the progress of the works. The tunnel will be constructed. Electric locomotives are to be used, and the entire equipment of the tunnel will be taken up by the Vanderbilt interests. Construction will begin the near future.

The paper says it is also informed that within this year, a very informal single track between Detroit and Chicago on the Michigan Central will be double tracked.

Stock Records.

Toronto, Feb. 1.—The Shire Horse Association carried a resolution at its annual meeting this morning similar in character to that passed by the hackney men yesterday, indorsing the plan to nationalize all stock records. The effect of such action, as proposed by the horse societies will be to move the head office of the associations from Toronto to London, and that annual meetings sometimes will be held in other centers in the different provinces.

Drowsiness After Meals

A PERSISTENT SYMPTOM OF NERVOUS DYSPEPSIA—CURE IS OBTAINED BY USE OF

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food

Many a sufferer from chronic dyspepsia dates his ailment from the time he began to feel "drowsiness after meals."

The blood is weak and there is not sufficient nerve force to carry on the work of digestion and supply the vital force required for mental and physical activity.

Headache, dizzy spells, defective memory, inability to concentrate the mind, brain fog, irritability of temper, nervousness and sleeplessness are the resulting symptoms.

Owing to defective digestion the body is not deriving proper nourishment from the food eaten, and the result is a lack of strength must be employed.

In Dr. Chase's Nerve Food the most effective blood-building and nerve-strengthening elements of nature are contained in condensed form, so as to be easily taken into the blood.

Under this treatment you soon find that the appetite is sharpened, digestion improved, and the vitality of mind and body greatly increased.

It takes time to thoroughly cure dyspepsia and its accompanying symptoms, but you can be sure that each dose of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food is of some benefit to you, and that the cure will be complete and lasting.

TOPICS OF TALK IN THAMESFORD

Interesting Discussion at the Literary Society's Meeting—Cheese Output.

Thamesford, Jan. 31.—The fourth meeting of the Thamesford Literary Society was held in the town hall on Friday night, when a large number of the members were present. After a few opening remarks by the chairman, Mr. E. B. McCarthy, Mr. Lutz gave a vocal solo which was well received. The programme consisted chiefly of a paper on "The Most Preferable Occupation for a Young Man to Choose Business, Professional or Farm Life?" Those chosen for leaders were: For business, Dr. Spence and Dr. Torrie; for professional, Dr. Morrison and W. J. Johnston; for farm life, Allan McDonald and Harold Hogg. Owing to his high duties neither Dr. Spence nor Torrie were able to be present, and their places had to be filled by choosing from the audience. Mr. McDonald's assistant, Mr. Hogg, was also unable to be present, and Mr. McDonald had to uphold his side unaided, which he did in clever style. The judges, Messrs. Alex. Wallace, A. P. Bain and O. M. Alger, and Misses Seelen and Lawrence, gave their decision in favor of the business life. The neighbors are due the two young men who led their side to victory. Following the decision, Mr. Fred Kester gave a vocal solo in his high tenor. The next meeting of the society will be held on Friday night, Feb. 3. Dr. Tracey, of Toronto University, will be present and will lecture on "The Mind of the Child." Dr. Tracey is a very popular lecturer, and all members should make a special effort to be present.

The annual tea-meeting of St. Andrew's Church, Thamesford, under the auspices of the W. F. M. S. and King's Daughters, will be held on St. Valentine's Day, Feb. 14. An excellent programme is being arranged, in which some first-class vocalists and speakers will take part.

We regret to record the serious illness of Mr. Edward Sims, who is in a very bad way.

A very sad and sudden death took place this afternoon, that of Mr. William Empey, of the Governor's road. He had been suffering from a long illness, and was taken ill while on his way to work. He was found by his wife, and died shortly afterwards. He was a well-known man in the community, and his death is a great loss.

THE MARTINEAU FORGERIES

Court Holds Bank of Montreal Responsible for $75,000.

Toronto, Feb. 2.—The Bank of Montreal must bear the loss occasioned by the forgeries of A. Martineau, the former employee of the militia department, Justice Anglin handed out judgment to this effect today. The forgeries amounted to $75,000. The Bank of Montreal disclaimed liability for this large sum, and a writ was issued on behalf of the Government in November, 1903, the case being heard at Ottawa. The judgment makes the Bank of Montreal liable for $75,000, less $12,450, received from Martineau at the time of the latter's arrest. The Quebec Bank and the Royal Bank are included in the judgment for trivial amounts arising out of costs of the transaction.

THE CATTLE EMBARRO

Mr. Chaplin Denounces the Liberal Promise to Lift It.

London, Feb. 1.—Mr. Chaplin, M.P., speaking at Oshkum, made some observations about Canadian cattle. He said the importation of live stock from abroad was also of great importance. Cattle disease had been stamped out at enormous expense and trouble, yet Mr. Campbell-Bannerman had declared that he would vote for the free importation of Canadian cattle. If that were done, agriculturists in this country would again have their herds decimated by disease, and the history of the matter gives us good ground for thinking that Mr. Chaplin means more than this when he speaks of the importation of cattle as "ruinous to the cattle feeders."

The Westminster Gazette, commenting on the relatively minor matter of disease, there is, of course, no more to be said, but the history of the matter gives us good ground for thinking that Mr. Chaplin means more than this when he speaks of the importation of cattle as "ruinous to the cattle feeders."
