Special Order Received Which Leaves No Room for Evasion of the Law -Some Military Notes.

A special order was received at camp yesterday from Ottawa, prohibiting absolutely the sale of "Localo" and "Lagerine" within the precincts. The Mr. Stevely Is Missing, as Is officers state that no attempt has been made to sell the beverages so far, and explain that the order is simply a further addition to their already strict instructions regarding the sale of any kind of liquor in the camp. A Small Camp.

The camp this year is the smallest ever held in this city, and the roll shows there are only 1,612 men under canvas on Carling's Heights. Former ly there were never less than from 2.000 to 3,000 in camp.

Things, however, are going along in splendid shape, and the men are working hard at their training exercises They take particular interest in the shooting, and every day as many as can be accommodated on the range at the heights, and on the ranges at the weighty matters of state have taken Coves, are given instruction and allowed to practice. Some good scores are being made.

The Mocha Temple Shriners had a are all well and happy. They left Louisville this morning, and will arrive n Cincinnati this afternoon, spending a day in that city.

The Louisville newspapers have devoted much space to the London visitors. In the Evening Post of Tuesday, appears a cut of Ill. Potentate A. L. Davis, and also a cut of the Highland Pipe Band of this city.

Londoners "Caught On."

The latter has made a great impression among the Southerners, and is reckoned one of the finest pipe bands that has ever visited that city. Winnipeg has a pipe band, and Lexington, Ky., has the famous Forty-Eighth Kilties' Band of Toronto. There are one or two more, but the Londoners have made the hit of the convention. Among the notices in the Louisville Evening Post are the following:
