family affair, all the relatives of the Man Who Was Paralyzed Finds Relief—A Wonderful Case in New York.

One of the rarest operations that has ever been performed in America took place last week in the Red Cross Hospital, New York, on Joseph Lafferty, a motorman of the New York and Long Island Traction Company, and is interesting to Londoners on account of the entire case, except the operation, being in charge of Miss Winnifred Ashplant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Studley Ashplant, of the Victoria

Miss Ashplant has been training at the Red Cross Hospital for some time, and has been exceptionally brilliant in her studies. It was very largely on ecount of her skill and proficiency that she was intrusted with such an important case.
