Cincinnati Chief Roasts "Brokerage Business" of Three Eyes Club Owner Concerning Torrey.

Cincinnati, O., Nov. 12. - Richard Kinsella, of the Springfield Three Eyes League Club is given credit by Garry Herrmann with being a clever baseball financier and one worth watching. On Wednesday Kinsella flashed a contract signed by Bill Torrey, of Chicago, be-fore the meeting of the National Association at Memphis, and said that Torrey had been stolen from the Springfield club by the national commission. President Herrmann today winked his eye, smiled, and told the newspapermen to keep their eyes on Kinsella. What Garry Says.

GRIDIRON ITEMS

If Art Moore has, as the Hamilton Herald states, made his farewell appear-ance in football, Tigers' chances for the ance in football, Tigers' chances for the Canadian championship haven't improved any. Moore's zigzag runs helped to make Hamilton famous, and his retirement at this crisis in its career promises to play a prominent part in the Ambitious City's return to seclusion. With Ballard gone it was bad enough. It was his quick brain that a year ago interpreted 'Varsity's since and it was he who nicked the that a year ago interpreted 'Varsity's signals, and it was he who picked the critical moment to slip along the line and greet Lawson before the big fellow got into his stride. Now, without Ballard's defensive work and Moore's runs, Tigers don't look like the photos that were taken

A dispatch from Hamilton last night stated that the Tigers, realizing they will have a hard game with Argonauts at Rosedale, will only make one change on the team, that being Davy Tope at full back, while the halves will be Ben Simpson, Art Moore and George Sith. However, it is not sure whether Jack Gray will be able to play on the wing line; if not, he will be replaced by Bramer, moving Bethune into the scrimmage. The dispatch also adds that R. Of course, we expect to go to Canada for our players at that time, nd we will get them. They will be glad to come. Toronto will be in the

NEGROES BACK JOHNSON

Start to Raise $10,000 in New York to

Bet on Fight. New York, Nov. 12.—While followers f fistic crown wearers and aspirants or the title are flocking to the support of Jeffries, the negroes of New York are active. Barron D. Wilkins, a stanch supporter of the present titleholder, began today to raise a $10,000 pool to wager on Johnson at even money, when the club conducting pitcher has always claimed Memphis as the championship battle is decided upon Dec. 1. Within a few hours $2,000 was subscribed. Enough to make the total amount $10,000 could have been gained had Wilkins accepted bets of comparatively small amounts.
