MICHIGAN MAN IS NEW LIGHTWEIGHT CHAMPION

AD. WOLGAST BATTERS NELSON TO A PULP AND GAINS DECISION IN FORTIETH ROUND

"Michigan Wildcat" in Trouble But Once in Long Mill, Wears Down "Durable Dane" in Terrific Battle.

NEW WORLD'S LIGHTWEIGHT CHAMPION FINISHED STRONG. BAT IS CARRIED OUT

Loser Unable to See or Hear at the End, and Referee Humanely Stops the Unequal Contest.

[By Associated Press.]
San Francisco, Feb. 23.—The total receipts of the Nelson-Wolgast fight yesterday, amounted to $37,000. Wolgast received $3,700, and Nelson $12,000, both amounts having been guaranteed in advance.

San Francisco, Feb. 22.—Ad. Wolgast, of Cadillac, Mich., made pugilishistory here this afternoon by defeating the redoubtable Battling Nelson in one of the hardest fought contests seen in this part of the country in over two decades. Wolgast is now the lightweight champion of the world, and the Dane merely an ex-champion who clearly and decisively illustrated that the Nelson was not knocked out, but he was so near it that the intervention on the part of the referee in the 40th round was as wise as it was humane. Two Good Games Bowled in the City The encounter was originally scheduled for 45 rounds. It surely could not have last much longer considering the condition of Nelson.

old adage of the pitcher going to the well too often still holds good even

A PITIFUL APPEARANCE. The one time peerless battler presented a pathetic sight. His face two City League games box was one mass of cuts and bruises. His right eye was completely closed National Alleys last night: and blood streamed down his cheeks and covered his body. He was th typical spectacle of the fallen champion. Nelson fought with the same gameness and spirit that has char acterized all of his fights. He was the same old battler when it came rushing and taking punishment. He was, too, the same old Nelso who was willing to take five blows in order to get home one punch However, the old sting was lacking, for only once during the encounterwas Nelson able to put the Dutchman down.

DONE AFTER THIRTIETH ROUND.

From the thirtieth round until the end, Nelson's star seemed have set. His leads were weak and he could not see in order to land, was the beginning of the end and the storts realized that a new champio was in sight. When the fight was stopped, in the fortieth round, Nelso game to the last, stood in the centre of the ring and though he could hard ly raise his hands, begged to be allowed to continue. He was led to his content heartbroken. In the opposite corner of the ring, the new lightweigh Wolgast, was lifted to the shoulders of his trainers, while

Only once did Nelson have a chance. In the twenty-second round, with a stinging right cross to the jaw, he staggered Wolgast and before the round closed, he dropped Wolgast in the middle of the ring with a similar

Wolgast Took Three Seconds.

He staggered and hung on. In Robinson Had Right Dope. In the thirty-eighth round John R. Robinson, Nelson's manager, wanted to throw the sponge into the ring, but Ab-dul, the Turk, another of the seconds, Wolgast Took Three Seconds.

Three seconds were tolled before Wolgast regained his feet. The crowd prepared to leave the arena as the word went from bench to bench that another boy had fallen victim to the wonderful durability of the Dane. But in the next round Wolgast recuperated and from them on slowly but surely wore Nelson down. For 12 rounds before the finish. Nelson seemed bewildered, and his blows were delivered as though his arms were stiff. From the thirtieth round, Nelson could fight Wolgast scampered out of the rim Nelson could fight Wolgast scampered out of the like a schoolboy and galloped through the mud to his training room.

Taken out on the arms of his seconds. As had displayed.

Statements After the Battle. Referee Smith made the following statement: "Wolgast fought Nelson at from his hands and threw it into his own game and beat him fairly and

Two men will buy a Russell this year for every one who bought a Russell last year. In other words we have doubled our output.

Even with our last year's output and our factory working 23 hours a day, some will be disappointed. Our orders to date are so heavy that belated buyers must run their own risk. Early decision on your car means sure satisfaction and prompt delivery.

TWO RECORD-BREAKING MODELS

_RUSSELL ''30''-

$2,350, fully equipped.

Look at the material of this car, look at the workmanship, look at the power plant, a marvellously fine engine; look at the style and finish. Is it any wonder that we are able to prove that this car is the finest value on the

RUSSELL SEVEN-PASSENGER

$2,760, fully equipped.
Another of the year's sensations. Extra long wheel base of 120 inches, extra large wheels 36x4 inches all around. A wonder for power. Light in weight and therefore light in upkeep cost. The two extra seats in tonneau easily removed when not wanted. For the first time a strictly high-grade seven-passenger touring car is available at this price.

Both Russell "30" and Russell Seven-Passenger have shaft drive, selective transmission, full floating type of rear axle, etc. The Russell is made as good as we can make it, and the selling price is studied down to the quality limit.

Call and see these cars and arrange for a demonstration.

Canada Cycle and Motor Co., Ltd.

MAKERS OF HIGH-GRADE AUTOMOBILES. Branches: Toronto, Hamilton, Montreal, Winnipeg, Calgary, Vancouver, Melbourne, Australia.

squarely. Nelson complained at times of Wolgast's butting, but I paid little heed, as it was simply the case of one battler getting the worst of a game where both were equally quilty. were equally guilty.

"Both men fought the same, but one

"Both men fought the same, but one had youth, the power to come back, vigor, life and all that goes with it, while the thirteen years of fighting through which Nelson had gone had sapped his strength and left him without the old snap, dash and stamina." Wolgast Talks.

Wolgast said after the fight: "My fight Wolgast said after the fight: "My fight today was like a training bout. Only once did he bother me, and that was in the twenty-second round. Nelson hurt me more by butting me than anything else, and I felt funny for just a few seconds. I cannot say anything as to my future plans, but I am ready to give deserving lightweights a chance."

When Nelson was able to talk, he said: "I am sorry they called the fight off when they did. I think I could have stayed they deserved they have no complaint to make."

GANS CHALLENGES. Baltimore, Md., Feb. 22.—Joe Gans, ormer lightweight champion, tonight is used a challenge to Ad. Wolgast for a 20-round contest, to be fought anywhere

MURRAY'S CUBS AND

League Last Night-The Scores.

Following were the scores of the the count was finished. two City League games bowled on the

he '	Young Pirates.
	Smith122	174	144 -	440
r-	Hennessy 151	151	166-	468
to	Cluff144	162	192	492
on	Jenkins 143	157	173	473
h.	Young 181	189	185	355
er
	741	833	860-2	,434
	Cubs.
to	Ayars 175	158	214	547
It	Brown171	169	181-	521
on	Trick207	181	194	582
n,	Jinek 159	181	199	539
d-	Murray160	219	169-	546
)r-	borner on
ht	872	908	955	2,733
he	Ideals.
ith	Whitehall 153	157	148-	458
he	Smith 122	220	150 -	49
lar	Dawson203	184	168	555
i ai	Fraser179	200	192	571
	Graham 179	177	179	533
he	product as	•		•
en.	836	938	840	2,61
ith	Culham's Giants.
his	Scarbrook 148	186	205	539
he	Oliver189	170	187-	546
ess	McKay204	169	191	56
ne.	McMurphy160	180	158	49
nd de.	Culham158	196	188	54
nd		-	•
the	859	901	929-	2.68

WINGHAM WINS HONORS OF NORTHERN GROUP NO.2

Final Score Was 8 to 4 in Match at Listowel-Contest Was Fast and Rough.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
Listowel, Feb. 23.—Wingham won from the local hockey team in the deciding ame of Group 2 of the Northern League ere last evening by 8 to 4. The wingers were accompanied here by a crowdler.

Swenth Round.

Gown corner and scored on stomach with a tremendous left that sent the crowd howling. A moment later he sent in another to the same place. The round closed with the honors in favor of Wolgast swung several times over the kidneys, and they roughed it, Nelson receiving the lion's share of the punishment. Wolgast kept pegging away with here last evening by 8 to 4. The win-ners were accompanied here by a crowd hundred fans and a band, on a The contest was exceedingly fast and as rough in spots. Half-time score was to 2. The teams: to z. The teams: Listowel—Zinkham, goal; H. Roos, point; C. Thompson, cover; Burt. rover; Hay, centre; H. Thompson, left; E. Roos, ight.
Wingham—D. McGillivray, goal; Rose, pint; J. McGillivray, cover; Johnston, over; Marlett, centre; Elliott, left; Mcean, right. Referee—Hern, Stratford.

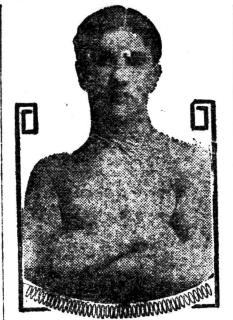

SMITH WINS AGAIN Speedy Young Ice Skater Turns Mil in 3:25 at Jubilee Rink.

Eddie Smith, a speedy youngster, who annexed the first heat of the mile race for the city skating championship at the Jubilee Rink a few days ago, copped again last night, turning the mile in 3:25, and beating Mustill, the second man, by over a lap.

Stuart was third and Dunn was unplaced.

STRATHROY AND THE MEDS. The management of the Jubilee Rink in lead. this city; and the Strainroy Fink, nave put up a handsome trophy for a series between the London Meds. and the Strathroy Intermediates, the total number of goals to decide the winner. The first match will be played in this city Monday, and the next Friday, March 4. WESTON GOING 53 MILES A DAY.

[By Associated Press.]
Albuquerque, Feb. 22.—Weston, walking from Los Angeles to the Atlantic coast, from Los Angeles to the Atlantic coast, took time today to visit the Peterfield forest, near Holbrook. He passed the night at Holbrook, covering 53 miles yesterday, and left there this morning. He planned to walk twenty miles today, stopping at Ademan tonight.

AD. WOLGAST.

FRANKIE COULEY PUT ATTELL AWAY IN 42ND

Sponge Before the Count Was Finished.

Monte Attell, of San Francisco, today in the forty-second round of a 45round fight. Attell was severely punished, and when Conley knocked him down in the forty-second round his seconds threw up the sponge before the count was finited as the forty-second threw the forty-second before the count was finited as the first sponge before the count was finited as the princess the count was finited as the first sponge before the count was finited as the princess the count was finited as the princess that the princess the count was finited as the princess that the princess the count was finited as the princess that the princess the count was the coun

STRATFORD TEAMS BEATEN BY LONDON

Local Basketballers Outplayed Visitors and Copped Both Games.

Scores 35-19, and 83-18-Intermediates Had It Easy, But Seniors Won in a Runaway.

Stratford basketball teams were beaten by London in two fast games at the Y. M. C. A. last evening. The local inter-mediates copped the first by 35 to 19, while the seniors won in the main event by 83 to 18. The London men put up sensational

The teams lined up as follows:

Intermediates. London-Gough, r.f.; Jones, l.f.; Eckert. :: Hamilton, r.g.; Davldson, l.g. Stratford—Gerry, r.f.; G. Bradshaw, .f.; Turner, c.; Monteith, r.g.; H. Bradshaw, l.g.
Goals—Gough 8; Jones, 4; Eckert, 4;
Gerry, 2; G. Bradshaw, 1; Turner, 4;
Monteith, 2. Goals from fouls—London 3,

Seniors.

London-Morris, r.f.; Smith, l.f.; George, c.; Maudsley, r.g.; Martin, l.g. Stratford-J. Preston, r.f.; Chantler, l.f.; Cawston, c.; Chenoweth, r.g.; Dun-[Special to The Advertiser.]

Los Angeles, Feb. 22.—Frankie Conley, of Kenosha, Wis., knocked out [Special to The Advertiser.]

Los Angeles, Feb. 22.—Frankie Conley, of Kenosha, Wis., knocked out [Special to The Advertiser.]

Lit.; Cawston, C.; Chenoweth, r.g.; Dunlop, Lg.

Goals—Morris, 20; Smith, 7; George, 6; Maudsley, 7; Martin, 1; J. Preston, 1; Chantler, 3; Cawston, 3; Chenoweth, 1. Goals from fouls—London 1, Stratford 2. Referee—Valentine, of Stratford 2. pire, Wickett; timekeepers, Parker and Bradshaw.

A SCORELESS TIE.

LONDON TEAMS ARE - DOING TALL BOWLING

No. 2 Five Won From No. 1 in Practice Match Yesterday at National.

London No. 1 was defeated by London No. 2 on the National alleys yesterday afternoon in a workout for the American Bowling Congress, which will be held in Detroit soon. The following were the Ayars 153 170 197 520 POLICE ARE SATISFIED Sheere 196 158 171 525 Primeau 163 159 167 489 Tambling 158 165 179 502 B. Bell 183 205 203 591 Head of Board of Supervisors, a For-853 857 917-2,623 No. 2 Team. 180 202 201— 583 179 201 195— 575 193 176 198— 567 190 213 171— 574 202 255 193— 650 Arthurs Murray

LOSES TO COLLINGWOOD

Latter Having Taken Round by Five Goals, Now Goes Into Finals.

[G. N. W. Service.] Cobourg, Feb. 22.—Before the largest crowd of the season the Cobourg team tonight defeated the Collingwood seven by

JEFF AND JOHNSON

The Promoters Held Conference Yesterday and Decided on California City.

mer Fighter, Attended the Meeting.

[By Associated Press.]
The Johnson-San Francisco, Feb. 23.—The Johnson-Jeffries tight will take place before the Broadway Athletic Club, of which Griffin 914 1,047 958-2,949 is the manager. It was organized only The fact that this club is to get a fight from the board of supervisors caused Rickard and Gleason to come to an un-Rickard and Gleason to come to an understanding by which the contest between the heavyweights will be staged under the auspices of the club.

Herget, better known as "Young Mitchell." a former fighter, who is chairman of the police committee of the board of supervisors, participated in the conference. His presence is taken to mean that there will be sufficiently in the conference. that there will be no difficulty in obtaining a permit for 45 rounds.

Gleason did not attend the conference.

PENETANG BONSPIEL.

No reason was assigned.

the score of 11 to 8. Collingwood thus wins the round by 5-goals. The stick handling of the locals was great. The the first round of the curling bonspiel

Ad. Wolgast's Victory---The Fight By Rounds

Nelson swung his left high on the head and a moment later planted a solid left to the jaw and a moment later planted a solid left to the jaw and a moment later planted a solid left to the jaw, and the second with his right on the jaw and head away as the Dane rushed wolgast stood with his back against the ropes and flayed the Batter with short-arm jabs on the face. Nelson forced the fighting, landing right and left on the jaw and face. Wolgast swung right saveral powerful wallops on the champion's jaw and nose. It was an even round.

Second Round.

Nelson started the round with a left smash to the face, and forced his man against the ropes. Wolgast swung twill. Nelson's face was a mass of blood as he took his seat, with the honors of the round against him.

Twelfth Round.

Twenty-First Round.

Nelson opened the round with a vicious studget right and left on the jaw, and wolgast sought refuge in a clinch. Nelson then jaw, and he advantage of the round. Wolgast almost backed to the ropes. Nelson forced the fighting, landing right and left to the jaw, and face wolgast, maddened, fought back fiercely, landing several powerful wallops on the champion's jaw and nose. It was a rover and face, landing almost at will. Nelson's face was a mass of blood as he took his seat, with the honors of the round against him.

Twelfth Round.

Nelson opened the round with a vicious straight right to the jaw, and Wolgast almost backed to the ropes. Wolgast swung right and left to the jaw, and left on the jaw, and wolgast sought refuge in a clinch. Nelson then jaw, and left on the jaw, and wolgast surght right to the jaw, and wolgast the round. Wolgast almost backed to the ropes. Wolgast saud for this on the countries of the round with a vicious straight right to the jaw, and wolgast frequency. Nelson ferge in a clinch. Nelson the jaw and the advantage of the round.

Thirty-Second Round.

The men came up slowly and inmediation the paw, Nelson sampled right to the jaw, Nelson sampled right and left to the jaw, Nelson sampled right and l or professionalism is based on this affidavit.

Nelson rebuking him with a punches.

Nelson forced his man around the ring. Wolgast smiled, and delivered a telling right smash on the jaw to which Wolgast responded in for the past few days, it is said, in an effort to secure evidence against any London player, and a counter charge may be made at the meeting today.

WINCHAM WINC HONDO

Sixth Round. Wolgast talked to his seconds as Nelson battered away at him. After Wolgast had landed two rights to the jaw and a left swing to the same place, Nelson closed in, and an exchange of shortarm rights and lefts to the head followed. Nelson swung a hard right to the jaw, which the Battler duplicated a moment later. Wolgast backed into his man about the ring, only to be remouth. Nelson, outpointed badly, continued to force the pace, all the while the target for Wolgast's well-timed swings. Nelson missed a terrific swing that was labeled knockout, and this taught Wolgant that he had better be careful. It was another tame round. moment later. Wolgast backed into his own corner and scored on stomach with Seventh Round.

Nelson appeared to have slowed down a bit. Wolgast swung two lefts to the face, and a mid-ring rally followed, the men exchanging right and left swings to the head. Wolgast met the oncoming Battler with two uppercuts to the jaw, and finally a tremendous drive caught Nelson's jaw. Nelson never wavered, but closed it, Nelson never wavered, but closed it, wolgast the total punch for punch. Nelson swung left and right to the body, and forced his antagonist against the ropes, landing several times with right and left on the jaw. Nelson went to his seat dancing.

Seventeenth Round.

Wolgast kept pegging away with right and left to the jaw and first to the jaw, and finally a tremendous drive caught Nelson's jaw. Nelson never wavered, but closed it, and an instant later swung twice with right and right or the jaw. Nelson went to his seat dancing.

Seventeenth Round.

Wolgast kept pegging away with right and left to the jaw, and finally a tremendous drive caught Nelson's jaw. Nelson never wavered, but closed it, and or the jaw. Nelson went to his seat dancing.

Seventeenth Round.

Wolgast backed away, Nelson throwing himself at him with great vim. Wolgast backed away, Nelson fought hard and never stopped. Finally Wolgast swung a terrific right to the jaw and never stopped. Finally wolgast swung a terrific right to the jaw and never stopped. Finally wolgast swung a terrific right to the jaw and never stopped. Finally wolgast hard never stopped. Finally wolgast swung a terrific right to the jaw and never stopped. Finally wolgast hard never stopped.

Eighth Round.

Nelson rushed in, planting his right solidly on the jaw. He forced the pace but was met with a straight right and left to the face. Nelson never faitered, however, and kept Wolgast constantly at work covering. Nelson started the blood flowing from his man's nostrils as he chased him about the ring, landing several times with the right and left to the face. Wolgast sought a haven against the ropes with Nelson plugging away unceasingly. Wolgast looked tired at this stage of the contest, and his blows seemed to have lost some of their sting. The round closed with Nelson enjoying a good lead.

then shot in a half-dozen right swings over the champion's sore ear. Nelson received a hard left uppercut on the jaw, causing the blood to flow afresh. The men fought every inch of the way.

Eighteenth Round.

"How do you feel?" asked Nelson, as the men came up. "As if I were punching a bag." was the quick rejoinder of Wolgast, with which he waded in, landing right and left on Nelson's sore mouth. Wolgast slipped to his knees in his own corner, but was up in a jiffy. He covered up, with Nelson battering away at him, but failed to land. Wolgast apparently staggered the champion, sending in several vicious right swings to the jaw.

Twelfth Round.

The powerful lefts to the face and a right and left to the jaw at close range, Nelson forced the pace as usual, followed his advantage, landing right and left to the jaw and body. A right swing and left to the jaw and body. A right swing sent Wolgast to his haunches, He was up quickly, but staggered about the ring, the fighting to his opponent, but was met with two hard lefts to stomach and left with almost pendulum precision, which was proposed to be an expectation of the pace as usual, followed his advantage, landing right and left to the jaw and body. A right swing sent Wolgast down the jaw, Nelson apparation of the battle progressed.

Thirty-Third Round.

Thirty-Third Round.

In a chinch Wolgast drive to the stomach. He was up quickly, but staggered about the ring, but wolgast stalled for half a minute and both swung fercely at each other. Nelson's damaged eye. Wolgast the better of the round.

Thirty-Third Round.

The battle progressed.

Thirty-Third Round.

Thirty-Third Round.

The battle progressed.

The battle progressed.

The battle progressed.

Thirty-Third Round.

The battle progressed.

The battle progresse

LONDON OFFICIALS OFF TO SUPPORT PROTEST

Scott, Casselman and Vining Will Appear Before O. H. A. for Locals,

Manager P. H. Scott, Secretary W. Vining and Ken. Casselman left for Toron this merning to represent the London team before the O. H. A. when before the O. H. A. when played for boil to the far against that the growtest against McCarthy, who played for out this grant for the grant that the first against of the grant that the protest against McCarthy, who played for out the grant that the first against the propess will be agained to the grant that the protest will be agained that the protest will be agained that the protest will be agained to the first against of the grant that the protest will be agained to the professionalism is based on this afficulty of the part of the professionalism is based on this afficulty of the part of the professionalism is based on this afficulty.

In the protest against the propes will be agained to the part of the Betting now even money. They whaled away ineffectively at one another, both displaying more caution than in any previous round. Nelson then wrestled his man about the ring, only to be re-ently staggered the champion, sending in several vicious right swings to the jaw. Wolgast deliberately butted the champion Ninth Round.

Wolgast broke ground before the Battler, ever and anon trying to reach Nelson with right and left to the stomach. Finally they mixed it, fighting at a furlous clip, each landing on the face and jaw. One mix was a repetition of the other, Nelson forcing his man back and Wolgast trying hard to stop the pace leader. Wolgast uppercut to the jaw with his left, and a moment later cut open Nelson's ear with a right swing. Nelson had a shade the best of it.

Tenth Round.

Wolgast deliberately butted the champion with his head, and was quickly rebuked by Referce Smith. The crowd hissed, and the round ended without damage.

Nineteenth Round.

Nineteenth Round.

Nineteenth Round. Nineteenth Round.

The men came up almost as fresh at the beginning. Wolgast time and again jabbed his left to the face, Nelson fighting back fiercely but ineffectively. They battled about the ring. Nelson all the struct open ing. Nelson and Wolgast slowly breaking ground and playing for the face and jaw with shortarn. Nelson with a succession of powerful rights to the jaw. There was no giving way constantly the ropes ack fiercely, be stopped.

Nineteenth Round.

Thirtieth Round.

As the men came up for this round, Nelson's left eye was completely closed. The men roughed it, Nelson hitting rather low. The crowd yelled its disapproval. At close quarters Wolgast drove right and left repeatedly in the stomach, and Nelson covered up. Nelson then swung a terrific right to the jaw, and missed two similar blows. Wolgast swung a right to the jaw, and the champion with Nelson, and as the round ended he tripped to his seat. The round was practically a repetition of its prederically in the stomach, and the champion with a succession of powerful rights to the jaw. There was no giving way the champion with Nelson, and as the round ended he tripped to his seat. The round was practically a repetition of its prederically in the stomach, and Nelson covered up. Nelson then as wung a terrific right to the jaw, and missed two similar blows. Wolgast swung a right to the jaw, and the champion with Nelson, and as the round was prior the face.

The round.

The men came up for this round, Nelson's left eye was completely closed. The men came up for this round, Nelson's left eye was completely closed. The men came up for this round, Nelson's left eye was completely closed. The men roughed it, Nelson hitting rather low. The crowdy yelled its disapproval. At close quarters Wolgast swung and Nelson covered up. Nelson then swung a terrific right to the jaw, and the champion with Nelson, and as the round was proval. At close quarters wolgast drove right and left repeatedly in the stomach, and Nelson covered up. Nelson the proval. At close qu record yelled: Fight, fight! The round ended tamely.

Twenty-Fifth Round.

Nelson dropped his man against the ropes, but his swings were badly directed. They exchanged savage lefts to the face, and Nelson crossed his right to the jaw.

Wolgast set his backers cheering by scoring thrice on the jaw with hard right swings. Soon after he duplicated this performance, but Nelson never wavered. Wolgast appeared to be tiring at this stage. The crowd sent up a great cheer when they realized that Wolgast had lasted the 25 rounds.

Twenty-Sixth Round.

Twenty-Sixth Round.

The latter dameed around the champion like a jumpling jack, senaing in punch after punch. Nelson almost tottered into a clinch, but

Twenty-Sixth Round.

They both wrestled to the centre of the ring and refused to break. Then they battled head to head, Nelsen almost closing Wolgast's right eye with a straight left. After some slugging at close quarters, Wolgast swung a powerful wallop to the Battler's face, and the Livne went to bis corner spitting blood.

Nelson almost tottered into a clinch, but Wolgast fought wally and took no chances of the Battler's staffing. Wolgast played for body and head alternately, but his bloos were not strong enough to a knockout. Nelson almost tottered into a clinch, but Wolgast fought wally and took no chances of the Battler's staffing. Wolgast played for body and head alternately, but his bloos were not strong enough to a knockout. Nelson almost tottered into a clinch, but Wolgast fought wally and took no chances of the Battler's staffing. Wolgast played for body and head alternately, but his bloos were not strong enough to a knockout. Nelson almost tottered into a clinch, but Wolgast fought wally and took no chances of the Battler's staffing. Wolgast played for body and head alternately. But his bloos were not strong enough to a knockout. Nelson almost tottered into a clinch, but Wolgast fought wally and took no chances of the Battler's staffing. Wolgast fought wally and took no chances of the Battler's staffing. Wolgast support of the Battler's face, and the chances of the Battler's staffing. Wolgast staffing and took no chances of the Battler's staffing. Wolgast staffing a knockout. Nelson almost fellows are chances of the Battler's face, and the chances of the chances of the Battler's face, and the chances of the Battler's face, and the chance swung twice with right on Nelson's sore face, and at close range swung left and right to Nelson's mouth, starting the blood. They slowed up considerably, and frequently fought to a clinch. Nelson went to his corner on a trot. No damage. Twenty-Ninth Round.

Twenty-Eighth Round.

Wolgast rushed in, grabbed Nelson with one arm and fought to land on the body with the other. He finally landed several swings over the kidneys, and twice shot his left to the face. Nelson unhooked a left that caught Wolgast over the heart, and the latter winced and groaned. Nelson caught his man straight on the jaw as they rushed to close quarters, and then as they rushed to close quarters, and then followed a succession of clinches. Break-ing, they exchanged terrific left swings to the jaw, and then fought to another clinch, in which position they were at the close of the round.

Nelson went right after his man, and Wolgast fought back gamely. He swung the swung that the swu straight left.

close quarters, Wolgast swung a powerful wallop to the Battler's face, and the Dane went to his corner spitting blood.

Twenty-Seventh Round.

Twenty-Seventh Round.

Wolgast took no chances, apparently fearing that the champion was taking weakness. Wolgast jarred Nelson with Wolgast changed his tactics at the start of this round. He rushed in close three right punches to the jaw and Neland took the fighting to the Dane. Fighting shoulders to shoulder, each landed in mid-ring, with Nelson swinging like a repeatedly to the face. Nelson's left eye babe, and Wolgast landing with good and was almost entirely closed at this stage.

Wolgast clipped Nelson solidly on the jaw the tide was a wonderful exhibition. Wolwith his right, and the spectators cheered. Wolgast closed in and played for the the ropes with a right smash to the jaw Dane's body, but his efforts were blocked Nelson tottered about the ring helplessly, and Nelson broke it up with a stinging and Wolgast sent in smash upon smash right to the face. It was Wolgast's and the bell rang, saving Nelson from a knockout. Thirty-Eighth Round.

Nelson came up with his left cheek badly swollen. They fought at a hot pace, locked in each other's embrace, and were cautioned to break. Breaking, Wolgast his work. John R. Robinson at this stage tried to throw up the sponge, other Nelson seconds took the from him and threw it in the bucket. Nelson, to all intents and purposes, was a beaten man, and it required the use of fgrom head to foot from the Dane's blood, and the arena soon became a shambles. Wolgast peppered away at the champion, the crowd yelling itself hoarse for the Michigan boy to finish his man and the agony. These cries were mingled with expressions of pity for Nelson. Betting 2 to 1 in favor of Wolgast.

Thirty Ninth Round. Wolgast appeared loath to put in the finishing punch. He jabbed in-essantly at the Eattler's anatomy, and again the blood flowed in a stream. Nelson tried to make a last raily, but it was only for a fleeting moment and he again subsided and scarcely could hold his hands up. Wolgast almost sent Nelsor to the floor, landing blow after blow on the defenceless champion's face. Ring fel the detenceiess champion's face, king for-lowers said that never had they seen such an exhibition of gameness as displayed by Nelson. Referee Smith said he would stop the fight in the next round if Nelson's seconds did not.

Fortieth Round.

planned to walk twenty miles today, stopping at Adaman tonight.

Nelson forced the pace, constantly backing his opponent against the ropes. Wolgast, in a corner, got back fercely, but the champion was not to be stopped. To be held Feb. 24 to March 3 In addition there are several other attractions in Toronto, including seven the atrees, hockey matches, etc.

Tenth Round.

Tenth Round.

Tenth Round.

The pace, constantly with Nelson and as the round ended he tripped to his seat. The round was no need the round with a right smash to the champion was not to be stopped. The practically a repetition of its predetion of the round with a right smash to the champion on the jaw with a remaining strength in the blow. Nelson never faitered. Wolgast packed and roughed it from one and again Wolgast landed, but Nelson never faitered. Wolgast peppered to his seat. The round was no ended the round with a right smash to the champion on the jaw with the champion of the practically a repetition of its predetion of the pace, constantly with Nelson and as the round ended he tripped to his seat. The round was no ended the round with a right smash to the champion on the jaw with the champion of the pace, constantly with Nelson and as the round was no ended the round with a right smash to the champion on the jaw with the champion of the practically a repetition of its predetion of its

