"Count Your Blessings"

WOULD you be willing to go back to the standards of living that prevailed in 1812?

In spite of all the praise of "the good old days," would you be content to give up the many conveniences we have gained in the past century?

Former generations knew nothing of the luxuries of modern travel with its observation cars, individual lights in Pullman berths, phonograph recitals, rich appoint ments, home-like comforts, and special safety devices with which the modern railway system surrounds its passengers.

The rural telephone now places the farmer in instant communication with the source of the latest market reports, and saves him many hours of precious time in the event of sickness or accident.

The introduction of the typewriter and adding machine has lightened the load and lengthened the day of the business office.

It was Advertising that first proclaimed the usefulness of these devices, that created an immediate and universal demand for them, that established a world-wide distribution which made them readily accessible to us

McCormick invented the reaper and thereby made himself an everlasting benefactor of the farmer. But it was Advertising that carried the wo.iderful news with its far-reaching significance to the "man with the hoe."

You know what housework used to be. Realize what it is now, since the advent of sanitary plumbing fixtures, hot-water heating, vacuum cleaners, and electric household appliances. Advertising has brought these things into your home. It has eliminated drudgery.

Advertising is service. Science, invention, commerce, are all indebted to its aid. It has raised the standard of living, elevated business ethics, and put us within reach of more real comforts, more real blessings, than we ever enjoyed before.

The region in this locality is replete with natural beauty and loveliness, and comprises some of the most beautiful water stretches and picturesque land-scapes for which that vast portion of Northern Ontario is becoming so famous with the ever-increasing army of tourists who each year are looking for fresh fields to explore. Very few people even in Ontario realize that Canada possesses such a magnificent pleasure ground as this. Excellent train service from London as follows: Train leaving London 6 a.m. daily (except Sunday) makes direct connection at North Parkdale with express leaving Toronto 10:15 a.m., daily (exce Sunday) for Huntsville and Lake Train leaving London 7:30 a.m. daily Bays points.
