LIVELY SCENE MARKS LEGISLATURE OPENING

Function Is Marked by All th-Pomp and Splendor of Pre-War Times.

FIRES ROYAL SALUTE

Lieut.-Governor Is Escorted by 75th Battalion-Women's Gowns Are Lavish.

Special to The Advertiser. Toronto, Jan. 24.-The fourth an last session of the present legislate: of Ontario was opened at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon with all the splendor and ceremony of pre-wa times. His Honor the Lieutenant Governor of Ontario, accompanied 1 an escort composed of officers a:. men of the 75th Battalion, arrive at the Parliament Buildings short! before the official time set for the opening. A royal salute of 21 guns was fired by one of the local artiller

The booming of guns, the decora tions in the assembly chamber, the colorful dresses of the ladies and th glorious sunlight which streame through the long windows of il. legislative chamber made an al.. mated scene.

Mrs. Cockshutt and her daughter and the wives of the cabinet minis ters, made a most attractive picture seated at the right of the thron-Mrs. Cockshutt entered with Hon. L. C. Drury, attended by Captain Thom son, A. D. C., and her daughter also accompanied her. Next her sat Mrs. E. C. Drury, Mrs. W. E. Raney Mrs. Manning Doherty, Mrs. F. C Biggs, Mrs. Peter Smith, Mrs. W. R. Rollo, Mrs. Henry Mills, and Mrs. H. C. Nixon.

Mrs. Cockshutt in Brown. Mrs. Cockshutt wore a gown of cocoa brown chiffon velvet, relieved with touches of brown and green figured velvet, embroidered in gold beads. Her large hat was brown the company of the c also, with a plume, and she wore a sable boa. Miss Cockshutt was in black chiffon velvet, with touches of flame-colored georgette, and wore a small black hat with a pom-pom. Miss Isabel Cockshutt wore a pea-cock blue georgette frock, embroid-ered in many-colored beads. Her hat was of black satin, and she wore a was of black white fox fur.

Mrs. Drury's gown was of French blue, with overdress of alencon lace of an ecrue shade, and wide square sleeves, also of the lace. Her black hat had a mohair crown and brim of net, with a willow plume falling over one side of the shoulder.

Mrs. Raney in Pearl Gray. Mrs. Raney wore a very becoming gown of pearl gray beaded georgette with silver ornaments, and at the waist a gray and cerise flower. Her French hat was of gray chenille and silver, with gray and cerise flowers, wore a gray lace scarf.

Mrs. Doherty was in navy blue can-ton crepe draped to one side, and caught with a cut steel ornament, and steel beads, and faced with pearl gray divetyn. Her long sleeves were faced with the gray, and her hat was of gray velvet also. Mrs. Mills wore a brown tete de negre cut velvet dress over petunia chiffon, trimmed with burnished bronze beads and petunia-shaded corsage. Her hat was small providing for his father who was ill.

Two other arrests on the same in East Toronto election. Rayfield president, and treasurer of the ganization is now treasurer of the ganization is now turn of the money arrests on the same in Eoth Wood and the control of the money arrests on the same in Eoth Wood and the control of the money arrests on the same in East Toronto election. Rayfield president, and treasurer of the ganization is now turn of the money turn of the money arrests on the same in Eoth Wood and the control of the had been out of work since last September, and that practically all the money he had saved was used to pay his mother's funeral expenses. He also stated that he was providing for his father who was ill. duvetyn. Her long sleeves were faced her shoes and stockings were also

INSISTS ON ECONOMY IN ALBERTA AFFAIRS MONTREAL WILL HAVE

Lieutenant-Governor Brett Demands Close Scrutiny of All Public Expenditures.

Canadian Press Despatch. Edmonton, Jan. 24.-The third session of the fifth Alberta Legislature opened at 3 o'clock with all members in attendance and with the usual impressive ceremonies. In the speech from the throne, Lieutenant Governor Brett said in part:

"In view of the grave economic conditions prevailing throughout the province during the past two or three a $2,200,000 bond issue purchased by years, resulting from short crops and S. W. Straus & Company of New that its first consideration should be scrutiny of all expenditures with a view to economizing in every possible way.
"Conditions existing in portions of the province owing to the crop fail-ures, which necessitated the passing of the drouth area relief act, have newhat improved during the past year, but the public will be asked to consider to what extent it will ary to continue provisions of the act for another year.

"Negotiations with the Dominion government for the turning over to province of the natural resources have continued during the past year. My government will continue to urge upon the Dominion government a settlement on terms fair and equitable to the province.

NAME OAKLAND REEVE BRANT COUNTY WARDEN

Special to The Advertiser. Brantford, Jan. 24.—C. McIntyre, reeve of Oakland, is warden of the ty of Brant for 1923. opening of the session at 2 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon.

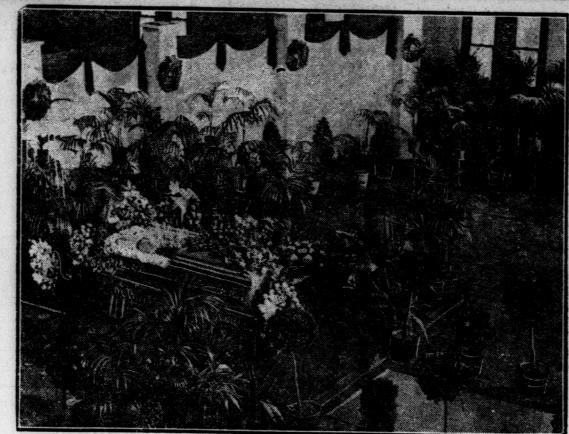

Reeve McIntyre was nominated by Reeve McEwen of Burford and seconded by Reeve McPherson, South Dumfries

Reeve M. Hunter of Onondaga was cominated by Reeve Henry of Brantord and seconded by Reeve Rush,

The vote for McIntyre stood: Yeas—Reeve McEwen, Reeve Mc-Intyre, Reeve Stewart, Reeve Mc-Reeve Summerhayes Second Deputy Reeve Franklin—6.

Nays—Reeve Henry, Reeve Rush,
Reeve Hunter, Deputy Reeve Thomp-

FFERS . PARALYTIC .STROKE Special to The Advertiser. hatham, Jan. 23.—Rev. Dr. Bat y, one of the oldest ministers in section, is seriously ill at the sof his son-in-law, R. L. Brackin P. While out walking yesterday and later suffered a stroke.

The photographer shows above the body of the late W. C. Kennedy, minister of railways, lying in state in the Armories at Windsor. Here thousands of citizens from all parts of Canada paid final tribute to a well-beloved sader. Where the casket rests, in one section of the Armories, the building was decorated in black and purple, with palms and boxwood shrubs screening the raised dais and the pathways which the people followed. The casket was banked with a mass of flowers, tributes to Mr. Kennedy's memory, sent in from all over Canada.

Guilty To Theft At St. Thomas.

Special to The Advertiser. by a Staff Reporter.

St. Thomas, Jan. 24.-Carol Trunan, Port Stanley youth, appeared in Kelly in the supreme court yesterpolice court Tuesday morning on a day, which will determine whether charge of stealing coal from cars on the sum of $2,200 advanced to W. L. the London and Port Stanley tracks Rayfield, V.C., and F. G. Wood, by in Port Stanley Monday evening. Trunan pleaded guilty to the charge side panels embroidered in cut and stated that he was forced to backing of Rayfield as a candidate commit the offence, owing to the in East Toronto in the last Federal

Two other arrests on the same charge were made by Chief Hammersely of the London and Port Stanley Railway, Tuesday afternoon, when Patrick Kelly of Port Stanley, and Lames Trunan father of Carpl Trun James Trunan, father of Carol Tru-nan, who was arrested Monday night, were taken to the county jail.

$2,000,000 OFFICE HOME

Canadian Press Despatch. New York, Jan. 24.—Announcement was made here late yesterday afternoon that negotiations have just been completed for the erection of a new two-million-dollar office building in

The new building, which will be change, will be situated in the heart of Montreal's financial district and will fore three streets, St. James, St. Peter and Notre Dame. It will be of the arcade type and will be ten stories in height.

The building is being financed by years, resulting from short crops and low prices of farm produce, which have prevented the normal collection tion of the deal was made at the office of revenue, my government has felt of the Straus Company this after-

SUES SHOE MERCHANT WHEN BOOTS EXPLODE

Associated Press Despatch. Parkersburg, W. Va., Jan. 24.-It was cold the other day when Mrs. Hugo Moats of Harrisville sat down before an open gas fire to warm her

A few minutes later she was startled by an explosion, which she says tore off the tip of one of her shoes. Her toes were so badly injured that amputation was necessary. Today Mrs. Moats filed suit in circuit court here for $5,000, charging that the manufacturer used celluloid instead of leather in the inscellation. instead of leather in the inner lining

Getting the "Flu" Special to The Advertiser. Copyright.

Washington, Jan. 24. - Here are seven simple rules for keep-ing well during the present "flu" epidemic, as laid down by Surgeon General Hugh S. Cumming, Chief of the United States Public Health Service:

1. Keep your feet dry. Girls with fancy slippers are warned particularly in this respect.

2. Get plenty of fresh air and a reasonable amount of exercise.

3. Don't stand around when anybody course. anybody coughs or sneezes, and when you cough or sneeze cover your face with a handkerchief to protect the other fellow, and keep out of drafts.

4. Keep out of crowded places as much as possible.

5. Get plenty of sleep, because nothing makes you more susceptible than physical and mental fatigue. fatigue.
6. Eat regularly and be careful of your diet.

7. Live regularly and don't

ASKS $35,000 DAMAGE

Sues F. H. Goddard, Prominent Contractor, For Defamation of Character.

Special to The Advertiser. Detroit, Jan. 24.-Miss Betty Bax-Both Wood and Rayfield deny that the money was in the form of a loan, but contend, instead, that it was a legitimate contribution to the election campaign of the CALVE. learned yesterday. The action rose Paincourt; 8, H. Hessenour, Rodney out of a suit fought last summer be-tween Goddard and the former sec-retary of his company, William F.

At that time, according to court At that time, according to court records, Dow sued to recover stock which Goddard had given him in his contracting business, and then is alleged to have taken away again. Dow testified the stock had been given him for his efforts to expand the business. Goddard is said to have admitted this, but to have charged that as soon as he got the stock the secretary lost all interest in his work and spont most of his time in social and spont most of his time in social activities activities.

Miss Baxter alleges in her slander suit that during the Goddard-Dow litigation Goddard accused Dow of having taken her to Toledo with him. She states this is a reflection on her Counsel for Goddard argue in

Two men in the Mauline were transporting the whiskey to an unrevealed destination.

IN GRAVEL PIT CAVE-IN TORONTO MAN KILLED ON CHATHAM HIGHWAY

Herbert Keys Meets Death When Car Is Hit by Detroit Machine.

Special to The Advertiser. Chatham, Jan. 24.—Herbert Keyes Toronto, an engineer in emp the department of public highways was instantly killed at seven o'clock tonight when was instantly killed at seven o'clock tonight when a car in which he was riding was crashed into by a high-powered car believed to have been driven by William H. Mitchell of Detroit, who is held by county police pending an inquest. Keyes was motoring on the high-way and was crashed into at the Bloomfield sideroad by a car bearing a Michigan license. The owner of the Michigan car disappeared and later a suspect was captured by county police.

The body was thrown considerable distance after the crash.

Keyes' parents at Toronto were notified and his father arrived at a late hour last night. The coroner has ordered an inques to be held in the morning. SHIP BRANTFORD BEER TO TORONTO AUTHORITIES SENTENCED FOR THEFT

Special to The Advertiser. Brantford, Jan. 24.—Beer seized by the police last May at the home of Mrs. Euphine Riddolls, Mary street, ordered returned by County Judge Hardy, when a police court conviction was quashed, advertised for sale by auction by Bailiff Dyckman, ordered seized by the attorney-general's de-partment, is now well on its way to the provincial authorities at Toronto.

HATHAM CORN SHOW EXCAVATORS OF TOMB MARKED BY QUALITY

Entries in Exhibition At Armories.

JAKE FIRST AWARDS AWAIT

ifteenth Annual Show of Ontario Growers Best On Record.

Special to The Advertiser. Chatham, Jan. 24.-The fifteenth nnual show of the Ontario Corn irowers' Association and the fourth nnual show of the Chatham Poultry nd Pet Stock Association, which will pen at 10 o'clock in the Kent Reginent Armories tomorrow morning, vill probably be the best show ever ponsored by these two organizations. or the past few days both bodies polis. nave been working early and late in order to have their shows properly organized and for the last-minute handling of entries, of which there the necropolis, we encountered a rollhave been quite a few.

izations, assisted by several score of helpers, have attractively transformed the otherwise drab interior of the armories. The corn is laid out on double racks in the west end of the armories, while the poultry and pet stock occupies the east end. Grains and cereals occupy the central part of the main floor.

Quality is the Slogan.

ever seen on this ancient soil, which proved to contain an excavating party—Mr. Carter, Mr. Burton and Mr. Lucas—on their way down to the river to spend a quiet day at the winter palace hotel on the other side of the Nile. On their return at sunset I met them again, surrounded by an admiring rowd of tourists, and about to bolt back to the peace of their house among the desert hills.

Mr. Carter tells me he has a difficulty of the strength of t The executives of the above organ-Quality is the Slogan.

"Quality rather than quantity" is the slogan adopted by both the orresponsibilities on the spirit which prompted the solution of such a slower prompted the spirit which prompted the spirit

The following is the list of awarus that were made up to five o'clock this afternoon. In turning in their reports the judges commented freely on the excellence of the exhibits, deon the excellence of the exhibits, decclaring that there was no scrub stuff to be found among the exhibits.

Class A-1, 10 ears Bailey, open to the province—1, Wilfred Roderick, S. Woodslee: 2, Darcy Bondy, Arner: 3, John Lickman, Route 3, Essex; 4, K. W. Knister, Blenheim; 5, Garnet Bruner, Kingsville, Route 2; 6, Jas. Sims. Kingsville; 7, W. A. Mc-Cutcheon, Box 33, Glencoe; 8, Roy Richardson, Route 1, Amherstburg.

Class A-2, 10 ears Golden Glow, open to province—1, Russell Mitchell. S. Woodslee: 2, C. A. Dewhirst, Woodslee; 3, Abe Wright, S. Woodslee: 4, Clarence Mitchell, Woodslee: 5, Roy Richardson, Amherstburg; 6, A. S. Maynard, Route 3, Chatham; 7, Geo E. Newman, Cottam; 8, Darcy Bondy, Arner.

Class A-6, 10 ears Wisconein No. 7

Class A-6, 10 ears Wisconsin No. 7-

Class A-6, 10 ears Wisconsin No. 7—1, Walkerside Limited, Walkerville; 2, Fercy Frith, Jackson's Corners; 3, Wilfred Finlin, Merlin; 4, Harry Shaller, Port Lambton; 5, Albert Wellwood, Merlin; 6, Geo. Coghill, Kingsville; 7, Frank Weaver, Turner-wille; 8 Bruce Cumming Turnerville ille; 8, Bruce Cumming, Turnerville Ears Longfellow.

Class A-8, 10 ears Longfellow, open to the province—1, R. J. Johnston, Chatham; 2, H. N. Hessenour, Rod-ney; 3, D. McDonald, Chatham; 4, Peter Clark, Highgate; 5, Geo. K. West, Ridgetown; 6, Jas, Brisley, Thamesville; 7, J. K. Hambly, Cedar Springs; 8, Clarence West, North-

Class A-9, 10 ears any other Flint— D. McDonald, Chatham: 2, F. A. Class A-10, 10 ears sweet corn; ope to province—1, F. A. Smith, Aylmer; 2, F. Fleming, Aylmer; 3, W. T. Smith, Aylmer; 4, Albert Wellwood. Merlin.

Class A-5, 10 ears White Cap Yellow Dent; open to the province— 1, Alfred Knight, Woodslee; 2, George Newman, Cottam; 3, John Hammond, Essex; 4, Abe Wright, Woodslee; 5 Stewart McDonald, Port Lambton; 6 ohn Gould, Essex; 7, Harry Shelle Port Lambton; 8, William Mitchell

Class A-15, single ear of Yellow Den corn; open to province—1, Robtert Kniver, Blenheim; 2, John W. Frank furth, Comber: 3, Russell Mitch 4. Clarence Mitchell; 5. William Squires, Amherstburg; 6, A. S. Maynard, Chatham, Route 3; 7, A. S. Maynard, Chatham, Route 3; 8, John Lickman, Route 3 Essey Class A-16, single ear of White Car

Counsel for Goddard argue in their answer to her declaration that the remark attributed to Goddard did not constitute a slander, inasmuch as Dow admitted it on the stand under cross-examination.

Class A-16, single ear of White Cap Dent; open to province—1, George E. Newman, Cottam; 2, William Mitchell, Woodslee; 3, Clarence Mitchell, Woodslee; 4, Harry Sheller, Port Lambton; 5, William Weaver, Turnerville; 6, T. Ouelette, Walkerville; 7, Coll McNaughton, Turnervillo. Single Wisconsin. Class A-17, single ear Wisconsin

Class A-17, single ear Wisconsin No. 7; open to province—1, Walkerside, Ltd., Walkerville: 2, Albert Wellwood, Merlin; 3, Frank Weaver, Turnerville; 4, S. H. Wyatt, Cottam; 5, F. H. Middleton, Fletcher; 6, Geo. Coghill; 7, O. D. Gagnier, Comber. Class A-18, single ear of Salzer's North Dakota; open to province—1, D. McLachlan, Chatham; 2, R. J. Johnston, Chatham; 3, Harry Dawson, Niagara-on-the-Lake; 4, Lawton McDonald, Chatham; 5, A. S. Campbell & Son, Blenheim; 5, A. S. Campbell, Blenheim; 7, A. E. Evens Worth.

Campbell & Son, Blenheim; 6, Stewart Campbell, Blenheim; 7, A. E. Evans, West Lorne.

Class A-19, single ear of Longfellow; open to the province—1, H. J. Johnston, Chatham; 2, D. McDonald, Chatham; 3, J. E. Hambley, Cedar Springs; 4, Albert Gilbert, Simcoe; 5, Clarence West, Northwood; 6, Peter Clark, Highgate; 7, William Weaver, Turnerville. Class A-20, single ear of Flint corn; pen to province—1, Albert Wellwood, Merlin; 2, Frank Smith, Aylmer; 3

D. McDonald, Chatham; 4, William Weaver, Turnerville; 5, H. Marr, Aylmer; 6, John Snobelen, Chatham; 7, William McCutcheon, Glencoe. William McCutcheon, Glencoe.

Class A-21, 10 ears of Salzer's
North Dakota; open to the province
—1, A. S. Campbell, Blenheim; 2, R.
J. Johnston, Chatham; 3, Stewart
Campbell, Blenheim; 4, A. S. Maynard, Chatham; 5, D. H. Laird, Blenheim; 6 A. E. Evans, West Lorne, 7 heim: 6, A. E. Evans, West Lorne; 7, Lawton McDonald, Chatham; 8, Mc-Lachlan, Chatham.

OF $5,000 IN-JEWELS

Toronto, Jan. 24.—Having pleader guilty last week to 12 charges ousebreaking, David Campbell, a man with a criminal record, was sentenced to five years in Kingston penitentiary by Magistrate Jones in the police court today, Campbell's thefts were for the most part of diamonds udges Praise Excellence of Tired and Worn, Mr. Carter and Party Seek Respite From Curious.

REST FROM LABORS

CARNARVON

All in Readiness For Opening of Sealed Inner Chamber.

By ARTHUR WEIGEL. Special Cable to The Advertiser. (Copyright, 1923, by North American Newspaper Alliance.)

Luxor, Egypt, Jan. 24.-Excavators at the tomb of Pharaoh Tut-Ankh-Amen took a day's rest today, no work being done on the tomb. I have been out all day in company with Engelbach, who succeeded me as inspector general of antiquities, and made a long tour of the whole Theban necro-Encounter Ford Car.

As we rode along the sunbaked encampment, which serves as a road to ing and bumping Ford car, the first ever seen on this ancient soil, which time keeping inquisitive visitors at arm's length, but I hear h has kept his temper admirably in often trying circumstances. It is no adoption of such a slogan. chamber have now been removed to the workshop, and the way is nearly clear for the opening—soon after Lord Carnarvan's arrival this week-end—of the sealed chamber, where the royal mummy may lie. Besides claring that there was no scrub stuff this chamber, there is another side room full of boxes, furniture and musical instruments, but these are not being disturbed at present. but these are Feeling of Disappointment. There is a general feeling of disappointment so far, that the tomb has not provided much new historical information, but all agree that artistically, many of the objects are astonishing. Mr. Carter is a very tired man, and as he left the Terrace Hotel, where the band was playing and fair ladies were sipping tea, to which rose hazy and mysterious out of the sunset across the Nile, he told me he wished the job was finished.

Otis Dortch Sentenced After OPEN INVESTIGATION

Conviction of Murder of Wealthy Farmer.

Canadian Press Despatch.
Calgary, Jan. 24.—Otis Dortch, aged 19, after being found guilty by a jury

Circular Sent Out by Ex-Mayor

Crawford Put In Ac

These succeeded, the world would gain.

In his argument Ismet Pasha contended that Mosul was an essential part of the Turkish fatherland, and that no such question could be referred to arbitration.

After pointing out that the general mandate idea came from President Wilson, Lord Curzon remarked that in the assize court yesterday of the nurder of Charles Kelly, a wellknown farmer of Vulcan, Alberta, last October, was sentenced by Mr. Justice Walsh to be hanged on April 11 next Orthello Dorch, a younger brother vas acquitted. Kelly was shot dead in front of his The Dortch brothers were arrested and charged with the crime. A James E. B. Phelps, by the 1922 local der brother,Otis, was admitted as evi- hydro commission, which action raised dence. It absolved his younger brother for blame, and confessed that he Lengthy evidence was her district.

Herb Forsythe, defence counsel, today admitted that Otis was guilty of murder, but would try to prove the accused was weak-minded and in no way normal, and that his mind had been upset by a "discreditable con-nection" with Kelly's wife. Corporal Hidson of the Alberta provincial police, testifying, said that Mrs. Kelly confessed to him that she had im-proper relations with Otis, but denied proper relations with Otis, but denied that she had promised to marry him if anything happened to her husband.

REVEALS HUGE PROFITS OF STANDARD OIL COMPANY

Special to The Advertiser Washington, Jan. 24 .- As the head of the Standard Oil Company of Indiana told a senate committee how a share of stock in his concern worth $25 in 1912 has grown in ten years to six hundred shares worth $37,200 through stock dividends, secretary of the treasury Mellon informed the senate that no case of excessive melon-cutting by big corporations within the meaning of the income tax law had come to his notice.

Figures showing the tremendous profits of the Standard Oil Company of Indiana were given to the senate committee investigating gasoline prices by Robert E. Stewart, chairman of the board of directors. A cash dividend of $15,644,347.60 was declared in 1921 and last year's dividend will be nearly $17,000,000.

GEORGE YPHAUTIS.

He escaped from his home town Ordou, in Asia Minor, when it was burned by the Turks. Making his way to Russia, he finally reached Canada. He is now attending Wy-cliffe College, Toronto and supports himself by designing stained-glass windows

HOOVER DEFENDS COAL SHIPMENTS TO CANADA

Declares Canada Supplies Power of Far Greater Value

to America. MINERS' WAGE FIXED

Operators and Workers Come to an Agreement at Conference. Special to The Advertiser. Washington, Jan. 24.—Secretary o Commerce Hoover yesterday defended anthracite coal shipments to Canada from this country on the ground that the Dominion more than repays the debt by supplying certain American border cities with hydro-electric. "The hydro-electric power furnished annually to this country is of greater value than the anthracite sent to Canada," he said. FIX SCALE OF WAGES. Special to The Advertiser. New York, Jan. 24.—Agreement upon a 1923 soft coal wage scale was reached yesterday afternoon by committee of miners and operators at the Pennsylvania Hotel, Michael Gallagher, chairman, announced.

The agreement will be presented full convention morning for ratification. Its terms were kept secret, but Gallagher ed there had been changes," from the contract form approved by the wage scale commit

Crawford Put In As Evidence.

Special to The Advertiser. Sarnia, Jan. 24.-Inquiry was opened this afternoon and continued tonight by an independent commission into the dismissal of hydro manager. Lengthy evidence was heard at both sessions. The principal witnesses were Mr. Phelps, who endeavored to justify his actions with regard to the rental arrears of $3,500, which ocjustify his actions casioned his dismissal, and James S. Crawford, chairman of the late comnission, who sought to justify the dismissal. The members of the inquiry board will secretly give their verdict as to whether or not Mr. Phelps shall be whether or not Mr. Pheips shall be reinstated as manager.

At the outset James S. Crawford protested the calling of the meeting. Either the hydro commission should take the responsibility of the action on Mr. Phelps' application for reinstatement or a royal commission.

instatement or a royal commission should have been asked to sit with power to take evidence on oath, he the reference to a circular sent to ly supported the British plea for areevery local hydro commission in On-bitration. M. Bompard said the sit-James Crawford, asking for an expression of opinion on the Sarnia controversy, and alleging that W. W. Sompard said the situation was one of gravity, and the gravest results might follow from Turkish refusal. Baron Hayashi recontroversy, and alleging that W. W. Pope, secretary of the provincial commission, had declared the mana-ger of a hydro system was not responsible to the local commission, but to the provincial organization, and cite would work if there was a complete abstentation of outside infigures that an effort is being made ence. He thought nobody could einstate the former manager, that some Toronto officials are lending themselves to this end. We beieve that if the plan is carried will have a very depressing effect, norally and authoritatively, on many employees and governoring em-J. J. Jeffery, of the provincial com-

enied the statement attributed to Mr

"QUEEN OF THE REDS" REFUSES TO SPEAK

Paris, Jan. 24.-Mile. Germaine Berton, pretty 20-year-old "Queen of he Reds," sealed her lips when police attempted to ascertain who gave imported liquor from the apartment her the pistol with which she as- of H. Salzenstein, Erie street west. L'Action Française.

Authorities searched the homes of liquor.

22 anarchists in an attempt to discover the accomplice of the girl.

Leon Daudet, publisher of the paper, is calling on the French to join the cause of conservatism and to stamp out the "radical menace."

BUYS BEER FOR SICK WIFE. WINDSOR MAN PAYS $50

Special to The Advertiser. arrested three alleged rum-runners this afternoon, and seized a closed motor car and a boat equipped with prunners. They confiscated nine quarts of Scoath whiskey and 25 cases of Canadian beer.

At the dock of the Great Lakes Engineering Company the deputies Intercepted Frank Schettler, 25, and intercepted

WILL CALL ON LEAGUE TO HELP KEEP PEACE

Britain Will Take Steps to Prevent War in the Near

CURZON TELLS TURK

Breakdown Is Feared — Ismet Pasha Refuses to Discuss Mosul Fields.

Special Cable to The Advertiser. Lausanne, Jan. 24.-England plans appeal to the League of Nations tons prevent war from breaking out in the Near East. Lord Curzon British foreign min-at the Near East Peace Conference 1 te Tuesday night, when Ismet Pasha, Furk representative refused to agree to submit the Mosul question to the League for arbitration. "I came to Lausanne to secure-ister, made this dramatic declaration peace," stated Curzon. "Ismet's re-fusal to arbitrate the Mosul problem renders peace impossible, and creates a situation which threatens the peace Then Curzon closed the

which has been deadlocked all day because of the Turk's insistence that the disposition of Mosul, which had been awarded to Britain by a League of Nations mandate, be decided by plebiscite

Crisis to Come Monday. The crisis of the Near Eastern Peace

The crisis of the Near Eastern Peace Conference will come on Monday when the allies will present Turkey with a draft of the peace treaty to sign. Refusal to sign, it is predicted, will lead to the breakdown of the parley which started two months ago. will lead to the breakdown of the parley which started two months ago.

The Turks asserted that the British could never go before the world as breaking up the Near Eastern Conference over the question of oil for the world would deem oil to be the real cause of the break.

Lord Curzon himself at today's meeting rebuked those who thought that Great Britain was interested in meeting rebuked those who thought that Great Britain was interested in Mosul because of its alleged oil richness. He declared that Great Britain had solemnly pledged her word to the Arabs of Irak on the southern frontier of Turkey that they would not be returned to the Turkish yoke, and Great Britain meant to keep her word.

He admitted that an English comhe admitted that an English com-pany possessed oil concession at Mosul, but said that Britain would generously take into account the world's needs, and not try to monopolize Mosul's petroleum. Declines Arbitration

He attacked the Turkish delegation for sending representatives to Lonfor sending representatives to London recently and offering Mosul oil concessions to British syndicates, thus endeavoring to influence the British government. The British company holding the oil concession in Mosul had acquired it before the war, but the British recognized that petroleum vitally interested the whole world, and contemplated no monopoly. Negotiations were underway to take care of the legitimate interests of other countries, and if these succeeded, the world would gain.

. Lord Curzon remarked tha Turkey had authorized a mandate for France in the case of Syria, yet denied it for England in the case of Lord Curzon was opposed to plebiscite, because it had never worked. He recalled that in spite of the presence of 30,000 troops in Up per Silesia, an attempt to hold a plebiscite was the cause of assassin ations and battles, costing many lives, and was eventually abandoned and the question sent to the League of Nations, which, he declared, was impartial and possessed great moral authority. If Turkey refused to submit the case to the league, what was to be done? The newspapers were saying that if the Mosul question was not settled in accordance with Turkish wishes, Turkey would de ide the matter in a military way

Ismet Proved Adamant. "There may be war," he said im-pressively. "I am here to make peace." ot war, and therefore I am not to allow conditions to exist which may esult in war." Lord Curzon then outlined the steps he would take, and declared that Turkey would be responsible for what may happen.

M. Bampard, Count Di Garreni and Baron Hayashi, representing France. A feature of the proceedings was Italy and Japan respectively, earnest ferred to the British offer as entirely unselfish, and urged the Turks to econsider their decision. Ismet Pasha, however, proved adamant. He insisted that a plebiso dismiss the present manager and contemplate the possibility of peace Mosul. His last words created a new sensation in the British delegation

> "I ask the British to accept the principle of restitution of Mosul to The conference adjourned late to-night in considerable confusion and without definite plans for the future. TWO ARRESTED WHILE TRYING TO SELL LIQUOR

Special to The Advertiser. Windsor, Jan. 24.—Harold Fontaine 23 years old, and Wilfrid Doane, 24 both of Detroit, are under arrest here on charges of stealing 15 cases of imported liquor from the apartment

Fontaine, according to the police, is on parole from Jackson Prise he was sent for ten years, after being found guilty of holding up and rob-bing a Detroit gasoline station.

The liquor was stolen after mid-night Monday from the basement of the apartment. It was later recovered.

YOUNGEST DRUG PRISONER SENTENCED TO PAY $200

To Rayfield and Wood.

Canadian Press Despatch. Toronto, Jan. 24.—Hearing of a Toronto, Jan. 24.—Hearing of a suit commenced before Mr. Justice

Kelly in the supreme and the supremental suits of the supremental suits. the Grand Army of Veterans, was a election. Rayfield was Dominion vicepresident, and Wood Dominion treasurer of the G.A.U.V. That or-ganization is now suing for the re-tion campaign of the G.A.U.V. can-

The case continues tomorrow. Pirates Capture Whiskey Shipment

Hold Up Crew of Vessel and Secure 125 Cases of Liquor.

Canadian Press Despatch.
Vancouver, B. C., Jan. 24.—Pirates took 125 cases of whiskey from the known as the Montreal Insurance Ex- | power boat Mauline in Canadian waters off Discovery Island, early Monday morning, holding up the crew with guns and speeding away in the darkness, leaving no clue to their

HARWICH FARMER HURT

Special to The Advertiser. Blenheim, Jan. 24.-While working 10th concession, was caught by a falling piece of frozen bank and severely bruised about the hips. He was removed to Chatham Hos-pital for treatment, where an X-ray examination revealed his spine in TORONTO MAN DROPS DEAD. Canadiar. Press Despatch. Toronto, Jan. 24.-Learning tha his married daughter was out of fuel today, William Smith, aged 53, a laborer, hastened to a dealer and se cured a bag of coal, and when put-ting it in the cellar fell dead. Heart failure was the cause. Father Sees Photo, Thinks Son Alive Reported Killed at Passchendaele Abe Smith of South Buxton, because with the 18th Battalion.

Special to The Advertiser.

Chatham, Jan. 24.—A probe of the details of the death in action of his son, Abe, Jun., whom the official son, Abe, Jun., whom the official lance of the deceased Private Smith. asualty lists claimed was killed at Abe Smith, Jun., enlisted with 168th Passchendaele has been instituted by a news-photo that recently came of Passchendaele November 1917.

Seize Boat Sleigh and Rum-Runners Carrying Liquor On Detroit River

Special to The Advertiser.

Detroit, Jan. 24.—Deputy sheriffs turning from the Canadian side in a rowboat with attached sled runners.