The city's rulers should surely learn enough from the blunder that have been committed not to make similar ones in the future.

The Board of Aldermen should, be fore they ask the ratepayers to vot them the money they need, make a clea statement of what has been done with the money already voted for the water works. How much debt they have ntracted, and what it was con tracted for. What work is still to do and what is its estimated cost. Ful explanations are due to the ratepayers They should not be asked to vote blind fold for any sum that the Board understanding of what has been don ad what is still required to be done will make it all the easier for the Board to get the money they need. Withou full and clear explanation of the whole of this water works business it is hardly to be expected that the majority of the ratepayers will give their sanction to th bylaws. They must have some guaran away in unnecessary works or in waste

A BROAD DISTINCTION.

People on this side of the Atlantic have come to attach an unpleasant sig-nificance to the word "politics" and to look upon the politician as a person no: by any means to be admired. This is to be regretted, for a man cannot direct hi tion to a nobler or more useful suland the most disinterested of men, in
