This recognizing the desirationness of having a free public wharf for the city galthough he was not aware that any of the other cities possessed anything of the kind), it seemed to him scarcely reasonable to expect that the whole extent of water frontage in question should be handed over to the city. THE LIBERALS AND IMPER DISSENSIONS. LONDON, Oct. 31.—The talk in London Liberal clubs is of the gloomiest character, for whether the Parnellites or anti-Parnel-lites win on Friday, it is feared that irrep-parable injury has been done to the cause of Home Rule, and that the Tories have been furnished with a formidable weapon for turnished with a formidable weapon for the general election. The Tory news-papers discuss the news from Cork m a calm, exasperating, sarcastic style that is worse than vitnperative criticism. They evidently think that the death knell of the evidently think that the death knell of the Irish movement has been sounded and that the faction fights of Cork have furnished an inexhaustible argument against, as they call it, committing their loyal fellow subjects in Ireland to the custody of people who are unable to control themselves. MATTHEW ARKOLD'S BUST. Lord Coleridge presided, to-day, at the ceremonies attending the unveiling of Bruce-Joy's bust of Matthew Arnold, in Westminster baptistry. There was a large and distinguished audience, complexons among whom was the widow of the late spostle of "Sweetness and Light." Conservative agenta will be sent to all districts to occupy themselves with officially it is announced that the platform of the Conservatives will declare for a cessation of special Irish legislation, with the adoption of a local government bill and the concentration of the sitention of parlia-ment on British affairs; the extension of popular local government; allotment of small holdings to laborers; legislation for the arbitration of strikes; the lowest poe-sible taxation of tas, offee and cocos; re-duction of the duty on tobacoc; vesting the power of licensing in the county councils, with a provision for the compensation of publicans deprived of licenses, and the fu-roduction of a bill providing for insurance against old age. There will, of course, be principles in opposition to church disestab-tional schools, the preservation of the peers' privileges and the right of local option. In the matter of the eight-hour day, the plat-form does not give the electors a compre-mensive prospect of reform equal to that of the Liberals, but it is free from fads and more immediately practical. CORE, Oct. 30 .- With the light of morn conk, out so - which the light of moti-ing came the startling information that the police were in possession of facts showing that a plot had been concocted to assassinate William O'Brien. The streets were, to-day, William O'Brien. The streets were, to-day, filled with angry men who threatened to arm themselves with more deadly weapons than blackthorns and stones. Strong guards of police, were stationed in the vicinity of the gunshops, and wherever it is possible to obtain firearms, and are doing the utmost to keep the turbulent mob in motion. The report of the murderous conspiracy terribly earaged the McCarthyites, who threatened to cast aside even the slight restraint which they have thus far put upon themselves and Riveal meetings of Parnellites and anti-Parnellites, this evening, were separated by an enormous array of military and polices, and disorder thereby prevented. All the ahops were closed except those of the vendors of black-thorns. The infirmaries of this city have been bury since early morning attending to the injuries of persons hurt in last night's rioting. There are now 92 patients in the hospital. Speak-ing about the blank notes left by him he said that Pacand had spoken of three; but he thought there were four. About the time of the federal elections he had extended the freedom of his house to Mr. Laurier, and when the latter asked him about elec-tion expenses he offered to leave notes, in blank, for that purpose, as he had often done before. It was understood by Mr. Tarte, and all others present, that whether they endorsed the notes or not all were to be senastion, as it connected Mr. Laurier with the transactions.

THE DUTIES OF STOCKHOLDERS. When a bank fails the directors are blamed for not attending to their duties and in reply they say, and with perfect honesty, we attended no meetings, we knew supposed that everything was all right; why should we be held liable for the min doings of a president, cashier or other officer? From such a point of view they are innocent; but is this the only point to is certain that the public suppose, or ar-pect, something more of them. The trouble between the United States and Chili causes almost as much excite-ment in London as it does in Washington or New York, for the commercial interests of England are much more doeply affected. The newspapers are full of alarmist re-ports, many of which are cabled from America, and evidently exaggerate the situ-ation. A section of the press, stirred up by sensational despatches, declare their be-hief that a war is close at hand. They lead their columns with a comparison between the newspape of the Chilian troops. Reporters besiege the United States and Chili, mainly favorable to the letter, and vaunt the courage of the Chilian troops. Reporters besiege the United States legation in Lon-don to seek for information, but the mem-bers maintain a strict silence, and Minister Lincoln declines to receive interviewers who seek to question him on the subject.
