BRAND CABINET GIVES UP

Disgusted by Smear Secured on Vote in Chamber Night

PREMIER TIRED OF HOSTILE

Adversaries in His Accused of Plot Downfall—Specu Successor

PARIS, Feb. 25.—Premier M. Briand, after the members of his cabinet Monday, reached this afternoon at a conference in the premier's office, when the question was thoroughly discussed. A majority of sixteen cabinet members received last night a vote of confidence in the chamber following the premier's attack on the radical Socialists, La Paul Meunier, was a supporter and his associate had been sustained many times by much larger majorities. M. Briand said he would not resign. The only reason for Monday to present their resignation is that they wish to show their memory of their late colleague, whose funeral was Monday.

There is much uncertainty as to what will happen with Briand, after taking the leaders of the parliament to M. Briand to stay whom he will invite to the ministry. Leon Bourgeois, former minister of finance, Raymond Poincaré, former foreign minister, and Emile Combes are mentioned, although it is believed that the latter is personally no president.

The decision of the cabinet has caused an emotion. The Conservatism party declare that the form of radicalism are triumphing and progressive reform, clerical issue which was day as a mere pretext. Briand's downfall. They think it ridiculous to accuse constructed the separatist, and now that the state are completely divided and has been following programme of "appeasement". The vote in the chamber last night, therefore, is the result of an intricate Briand's adversaries in who have been plotting since the great crisis of the war, and blocking the grammar of arbitration in connection with public positions.

Physically and mental several years of unintermittent life, M. Briand anxious to retire. Even discussing with his friends of a proposed trip to the sea. It is understood that the minister of foreign affairs determined to withdraw from the Temps, in summation, blame parliament much interest in the re-who imperilled the re-country, and not enough were designed to protect civil war.

New Arctic Expedition DENVER, Colo., Feb. 25.—An expedition, in which North Pole will be a first, was announced by Captain Baldwin, the captain Baldwin, who of Baldwin-Ziegler expedition landed in 1901-2, except his expedition about the Arctic. The expedition will use aeroplanes and balloons equipment. It will start from the coast of the Strait and will follow drift for several years. It will be, he says, to collect data and to complete a survey, now being made by the Institute. Reached Pole, Captain Baldwin is an easy matter and
