

NEWS ABOUT THE CITY.

There were several cases of snow-bite this morning. The public school board will hold a meeting this evening.

A thousand dollars of taxes remain uncollected in Parkdale. License Inspector Aude collected $1,631.25 fees during January.

The C. M. C. A. ceremony last night in Shaftesbury hall was quite a success. A short meeting of the Caledonian society was held last night in Shaftesbury hall.

The annual revenue returns for last month were $92,830.33; in January 1880 they were $83,927.62.

Mr. Peter McFarlane has resigned his position as separate school trustee for St. Stephen's ward.

There were eighty-five cases to be tried in the district court which opened before Judge Boyd yesterday.

A little lad named Boyd ran away from the boys' home and came near being frozen before he confessed his fault.

Cheshire's new store, Queen street west, contains a good assortment of goods, ranging in prices from a cent to a dollar.

Mr. Wm. Tanner, of Queen street, exhibits a rumpus spike which he found in the crop of a turkey sold him by an honest grocer.

At the regular meeting of the York pioneers yesterday Mr. Wm. Lee read an interesting paper on the history of the valley of the Don.

Sheriff Jarvis and Messrs. Tyrell and Lundy, justices of the peace are engaged in selecting jurors for the March sittings of the general sessions.

Mary Jane McGinley and Bella Bogg, of Thomas, are being led to the Mercer reformatory, by a bailiff and his wife.

The Great Toronto employees formerly under the superintendence of Mr. Moodie met last night and presented him with a well-filled purse and a handsome address.

Mr. Moodie was presented with a gold watch valued at $150.

That funny engine on the Kingston road railway is causing a great fuss to be kicked up. Yesterday a party consisting of the warden of the county, who is Commissioner Lundy and Gibson and a detachment from the local legislature, went long in view of the engine.

The visit was made in view of the luggage being asked for to remove the dummy.

O. S. Barr, who was injured in the late accident on the St. Lawrence and Ottawa railway, in which Mrs. Mackenzie and other Toronto ladies had such a narrow escape, is being dangerously ill at the Queen's Hotel.

His sickness is said to be a result of the accident. Mr. Barr claims damages from the company, which were in a fair way to be amicably settled when his injuries took a bad turn.

A landlord ejected. The case of Dr. Hunter, landlord, against Mr. Williams, tenant, which was before Judge Mackenzie yesterday, an order was granted for the recovery of possession of the plaintiff's farm in the township of York, which the defendant now occupies as his tenant.

Ladies. Ladies will find the Toronto Turkish Baths unexceptionable facilities in every respect, being used constantly by the most distinguished people of this city. The careful care is taken to keep the Turkish and other requisites, and the attendants are kind, attentive and properly instructed. The Toronto Turkish Baths, Queen street west, are centrally situated, the street cars from all points pass by the door every few minutes.

Street cars. The Hamilton Times of yesterday says: On Saturday afternoon three young girls were on Queen street, Toronto, and not fancying the quiet conclusion of that city one of them proposed that they should take a jaunt to Hamilton. All were agreed, but missing the 6 o'clock train they did not arrive here till 3 o'clock yesterday morning, the midnight train being late. A despatch from Toronto asking for their arrest caused them to be captured by the chief and Sergeant Fremont at a boarding house on Catherine street, between King and Main. Their names are: Ellen McInerney, of Agnes street; Annie Howard, 20 Walsley street; and Maria Johnson, 29 Chalmers street. The first named made a trip to Buffalo this morning, retaining a note of the fare she was sent home. They were taken back to Toronto to-day.

UNIVERSITY EXAMINERS. The senate has appointed the following gentlemen as examiners for the current year: Law—Lash, Q.C., and B. B. Oler, J.L.R., Q.C. Medicine—Physiology and Pathology—G. Wilks, M.D., Medical Surgery and Anatomy—A. E. Malloch, M.D., Hamilton. Midwifery and Therapeutics—E. R. Eeles, M.D., London. Midwifery and Medical Jurisprudence—D. B. Fraser, M.D., Stratford. Botany—S. A. Marling, M.A.; Rev. F. H. Wallace, M.A.; A. Johnston, B.A., Mathematics—C. Carmichael, M.A., A. K. Bickelader, B.A., F. E. Hyster, B.A., English and history—F. E. Seymour, M.A.; E. D. Brown, B.A., French—Rev. James Roy, M.A., German—Rev. R. von Friesch, Mineralogy and geology—Geo. M. Dawson, D.S., J. H. M. Mental and moral science—Prof. G. P. Young, Rev. J. W. A. Stewart, B.A. Oriental languages—Rev. M. King, M.A. Meteorology—C. Carmichael, M.A. Civil engineering—Prof. Galbraith.

INDUSTRIAL EXHIBITION. The directors of this association met last night, President Withrow in the chair. After routine, a communication was read from Mr. Saunders, D.D.G.M. of the Masonic order, in reply to one from the secretary asking the Masons to hold a demonstration during the time of the exhibition this year, saying that it would be impossible to comply with the secretary's request unless they had some definite object in view, such as laying the cornerstone of a building. This bears out the statement made in our society column last week. Treasurer Meade read the financial statement for the year 1880, showing that their net profit during the year had been $6,613. Several letters were read from correspondents in Australia with regard to an annual exhibition of the industrial and agricultural products in 1883. The feeling of the board was that they could take no action with regard to the matter.

Curiosity shop.—"Oh, what a lovely vase! It is not a vase, it is not a vase, it is a modern." "What a pity! It is so pretty!"

A GHAZTLY OCCURRENCE!

MAX LEVI, A DENETED JEW, ATTEMPTS SUICIDE.

Shooting His Purpose By His Wife.

Perhaps it was the bitter cold that kept the curious crowd away, for there was no curious crowd on the corner of King and Sherbourne streets this morning at five o'clock canvassing one of the most determined efforts at suicide that has been attempted in the city for years. On the corner of the above named streets lived a Polish Jew named

MAX LEVI, who kept a second-hand store. With him lived his wife and five little children, the oldest being not quite ten years of age. Levi has been in America about fifteen years, and in Toronto between four and five years. He was always looked upon as an industrious and honest man, and he kept his rest of his race, and had succeeded in accumulating a good stock.

He had saved up quite a sum of money. About six weeks ago he was awakened suddenly by hearing one of his little children, a girl named Lilla, fall out of bed, and he immediately rushed to her assistance. He was horrified to see her covered with blood, and although he was alone, yet the shock was such as to completely upset his nervous system.

He called in Dr. Riddell, who treated him for some time, but he refused to take any medicine, and he refused to eat or drink anything but water. He refused to eat or drink anything but water. He refused to eat or drink anything but water.

He refused to eat or drink anything but water. He refused to eat or drink anything but water. He refused to eat or drink anything but water.

He refused to eat or drink anything but water. He refused to eat or drink anything but water. He refused to eat or drink anything but water.

He refused to eat or drink anything but water. He refused to eat or drink anything but water. He refused to eat or drink anything but water.

He refused to eat or drink anything but water. He refused to eat or drink anything but water. He refused to eat or drink anything but water.

He refused to eat or drink anything but water. He refused to eat or drink anything but water. He refused to eat or drink anything but water.

He refused to eat or drink anything but water. He refused to eat or drink anything but water. He refused to eat or drink anything but water.

He refused to eat or drink anything but water. He refused to eat or drink anything but water. He refused to eat or drink anything but water.

He refused to eat or drink anything but water. He refused to eat or drink anything but water. He refused to eat or drink anything but water.

He refused to eat or drink anything but water. He refused to eat or drink anything but water. He refused to eat or drink anything but water.

He refused to eat or drink anything but water. He refused to eat or drink anything but water. He refused to eat or drink anything but water.

He refused to eat or drink anything but water. He refused to eat or drink anything but water. He refused to eat or drink anything but water.

He refused to eat or drink anything but water. He refused to eat or drink anything but water. He refused to eat or drink anything but water.

He refused to eat or drink anything but water. He refused to eat or drink anything but water. He refused to eat or drink anything but water.

He refused to eat or drink anything but water. He refused to eat or drink anything but water. He refused to eat or drink anything but water.

He refused to eat or drink anything but water. He refused to eat or drink anything but water. He refused to eat or drink anything but water.

He refused to eat or drink anything but water. He refused to eat or drink anything but water. He refused to eat or drink anything but water.

He refused to eat or drink anything but water. He refused to eat or drink anything but water. He refused to eat or drink anything but water.

He refused to eat or drink anything but water. He refused to eat or drink anything but water. He refused to eat or drink anything but water.

He refused to eat or drink anything but water. He refused to eat or drink anything but water. He refused to eat or drink anything but water.

He refused to eat or drink anything but water. He refused to eat or drink anything but water. He refused to eat or drink anything but water.

He refused to eat or drink anything but water. He refused to eat or drink anything but water. He refused to eat or drink anything but water.

He refused to eat or drink anything but water. He refused to eat or drink anything but water. He refused to eat or drink anything but water.

He refused to eat or drink anything but water. He refused to eat or drink anything but water. He refused to eat or drink anything but water.

He refused to eat or drink anything but water. He refused to eat or drink anything but water. He refused to eat or drink anything but water.

He refused to eat or drink anything but water. He refused to eat or drink anything but water. He refused to eat or drink anything but water.

He refused to eat or drink anything but water. He refused to eat or drink anything but water. He refused to eat or drink anything but water.

He refused to eat or drink anything but water. He refused to eat or drink anything but water. He refused to eat or drink anything but water.

He refused to eat or drink anything but water. He refused to eat or drink anything but water. He refused to eat or drink anything but water.

He refused to eat or drink anything but water. He refused to eat or drink anything but water. He refused to eat or drink anything but water.

He refused to eat or drink anything but water. He refused to eat or drink anything but water. He refused to eat or drink anything but water.

He refused to eat or drink anything but water. He refused to eat or drink anything but water. He refused to eat or drink anything but water.

He refused to eat or drink anything but water. He refused to eat or drink anything but water. He refused to eat or drink anything but water.

He refused to eat or drink anything but water. He refused to eat or drink anything but water. He refused to eat or drink anything but water.

He refused to eat or drink anything but water. He refused to eat or drink anything but water. He refused to eat or drink anything but water.

He refused to eat or drink anything but water. He refused to eat or drink anything but water. He refused to eat or drink anything but water.

He refused to eat or drink anything but water. He refused to eat or drink anything but water. He refused to eat or drink anything but water.

He refused to eat or drink anything but water. He refused to eat or drink anything but water. He refused to eat or drink anything but water.

He refused to eat or drink anything but water. He refused to eat or drink anything but water. He refused to eat or drink anything but water.

STREET AFFAIRS.

Meeting of the Works Committee—The Royal Horse Co. Companies—Over-Crowding Street—The Engineer's Report—Estimate for the Year.

All members of the board of works were present at the meeting yesterday, which commenced at three o'clock.

The first item of importance taken up was the street railway question. Acting secretary Shurtz read the petition of the metropolitan company presented to the council last night, whereupon Ald. Davis asked if the matter was not already settled.

He stated that the matter was not settled, and that the council should take action on it. Ald. Baxter—Do I understand this matter was PASSED WITHOUT NOTICE. In accordance with a resolution of council the works committee yesterday called for tenders for 1030 tons of unbroken ball stones, to be delivered at places named by the city engineer.

The legislation committee was called to meet yesterday at the same hour as the board of works. Such instruments as this should be guarded against in the future.

City Solicitor McWilliams reports that the bill for the construction of block pavements on St. Patrick, Darcy and Ontario streets and W. Leinster crescent will be ready for the consideration of the council on Monday night next.

With a view of getting numbers put on all houses not already numbered, the board of works, on motion of Ald. Crocker, has given orders to the assessment commissioner to prepare a list of the same, together with an estimate of the cost.

LAW OF DIVORCE.

The Canadian divorce laws are framed for the rich. Only a wealthy man or woman can bear the expense of an appeal to the senate with all its vexatious delays.

The poor woman, for instance, no matter how just her case may be, finds it impossible to separate herself from the man who may have often treated her in the most inhuman manner—that is, by process of Canadian law.

But there is a method adopted by these unfortunates which, while it entitles them to their country, is yet regarded as a disgrace. The opinion of the court is happily shadowed forth by Vint of the Figaro, who winds up his notice of the play with the remark, "Now let us get re-accustomed."

Olivette, as played at the Bijou opera house, New York, is advancing largely and is a great success. Olivette, as played at the Grand theatre, is a failure, and Mr. Schofield has already decided that it shall not be continued one instant longer than the time required to get up a new piece.

Maurice Desnoes, the boy violinist at Koster and Hill's, New York, has created the most profound impression of surprise among musicians. He has mastered every concert-hall or theatre where he plays. Difficulties of the instrument that old players have given up in despair he has mastered.

Never were more perfect chromatic runs heard than he seems to play at ease. He is perfect, without a blotch.

SEPARATE-SCHOOL BOARD. At the monthly meeting of the separate school trustees last night the committee on school management presented its first report, stating that the Very Rev. Father Laurent had been chosen chairman for the current year, and recommending the payment of several small accounts. It also recommended that the salaries of the teachers should be increased by $50 each per annum, and that a teacher of young music should be engaged to teach in all the schools at a salary of $500 per annum. The clause relative to the salaries and the appointment of the music teacher were referred to the finance committee, and the other portions of the report were adopted.

Another Toronto reported that the daily average attendance at the schools during the past six months was 1602, and the total number on the register was 3008. On motion of Mr. Pelley, seconded by Mr. Burns, the committee on school management was instructed to purchase furniture and desks for St. Vincent street and St. Paul schools.

BARRE.

Palmer Sentenced.—Execution. WILSON, Feb. 1.—Yesterday morning Wellington Palmer, whose trial and conviction appeared in the World at the time, was arraigned before Judge Gowan for sentence.

A large signed petition was presented to his honor, praying that the prisoner be leniently dealt with. This being his first offence he was sentenced to two months imprisonment in the common goal. Shortly before the time when Palmer was arraigned a dispute arose among the inmates of the establishment wherein the robbery was committed, the result of which was the separation of one of the inmates. Before leaving town, however, Ald. Crocker stated to lay information against the keeper of the house for selling liquor contrary to the statute, and also for being the owner of a house of ill-fame. A plea of guilty to both charges was entered and the man jailed.

Ross and Purvis were the councillors elected yesterday to represent St. Andrew's ward.

THE STREET CARS.

A Good Suggestion.—Three-Cent Cars for Workmen. A correspondent writes: Might it not be to the advantage of the street car company to put on a few extra cars of an evening for the convenience of the working class? At three cents a ride, I am sure they would be far too high. They might also have rooms at different points, where passengers could wait. Instead of the present strip of board denoting the street, the name of the street might be displayed in large letters on the side of the bus or car. The conductor should also call out the name of every street.

A SEVEN-FOOT RAIN.

A Terrible Destructive Storm in California.—Eighty-one Inches of Rain. San Francisco, Feb. 1.—It began raining in the central northern part of the state again today. The floods and rivers are abating very slowly. At Shasta, up to this afternoon but falling this season the enormous quantity of 41-100 inches of rain. The damage at that section cannot be approximately estimated. In Kinloch of Norte, Trinity, and Plisko counties rain fell very heavily. All the streams in those counties are over their banks, flooding the valleys, destroying farms, carrying away every bridge across them, and masonry mills and houses. Much grain, stock, and other property is destroyed, estimated up into the millions. In Colusa county rain fell lighter, but even that county had a million could not pay for the property destroyed.

The tide storm was by the most extensive and destructive that ever visited the coast since the white settled here. A large part of the country is flooded, including much wheat ground, and unless the water runs off quickly there will be a much smaller crop in California the coming year than was heretofore counted on.

The horse owned by Mr. P. Burns, which fell into the cellar on Colborne street today, was extricated after a great deal of trouble. A few bruises the horse escaped unharmed.

The fires in the boiler of the Royal Canadian insurance company's building on Yonge street, which is at present undergoing repairs, burst last night. The only result was the flooding of the rooms next to the boiler.

If a good idea is suggested, grab it and utilize it. If you have dyspepsia, Colman's Bread, with new remedy, is a certain cure.

Use Dr. Carson's Stomach and Constipation Bitters for any derangement of the stomach, bowels, liver and kidney. It is a gentle purgative and as a family medicine is far superior to pills. In large bottles at 50c. For sale by all druggists.

MUNICIPAL LEGISLATION.

Meeting of the Civic Committee—Toronto and Ottawa Railway—Furniture Water and Gas Works—St. Patrick's Water and Gas Company.

The legislative committee met yesterday afternoon, there being present Ald. Hallan (in the chair), Denison, Clarke, Bouate, Ryan, and Frankton.

The chairman said that the first thing to be considered was the matter of the Toronto and Ottawa Railway.

The railway company were waiting their call announced by a special act, so that all bonuses which had hitherto been granted by municipalities with a majority of the legally qualified voters should be allowed to stand.

It was agreed that any amendment of the act respecting other bonuses or charter of this company should be opposed. It was agreed to the ground that it was undesirable to allow any company to tear up the city streets.

It was agreed that the Toronto and Ottawa Railway should be allowed to stand.

It was agreed that the Toronto and Ottawa Railway should be allowed to stand.

It was agreed that the Toronto and Ottawa Railway should be allowed to stand.

It was agreed that the Toronto and Ottawa Railway should be allowed to stand.

It was agreed that the Toronto and Ottawa Railway should be allowed to stand.

It was agreed that the Toronto and Ottawa Railway should be allowed to stand.

It was agreed that the Toronto and Ottawa Railway should be allowed to stand.

It was agreed that the Toronto and Ottawa Railway should be allowed to stand.

It was agreed that the Toronto and Ottawa Railway should be allowed to stand.

It was agreed that the Toronto and Ottawa Railway should be allowed to stand.

It was agreed that the Toronto and Ottawa Railway should be allowed to stand.

NOBODY WILL SEE IT.

A short time ago our advertising agent called upon a certain party in business in the Dominion of Canada, ostensibly to advertise in the World.

"Oh, because," he answered, "what's the use? Nobody will ever see it."

"You're mistaken," said we. "Even if they did read my ad., people would never think of it again. I don't want to advertise."

"No buts at all. I don't want to advertise; don't bother me any more. I'm busy."

And he walked back into his store and struggled a poor little fit while he was waiting for a barrel of sugar.

"Time passed, and the agent never again intimated 'advertisements' to him, although meeting him daily. Yesterday the gentleman called at our sanctum, looking a little uncertain as to how he would be received.

"I suppose you heard of that little affair of mine below?"

"Oh, yes," said we, "that little episode on Queen street night before last? Yes, we've got all the particulars."

"I'm glad you did," said he, "but I'm glad to hear you are going to say nothing in the paper about it!"

"And why not?" It's a matter of interest to your friends and the public generally."

"Haven't I why it would ruin me?"

"Oh no, guess not. Nobody will ever see it!"

"Yes, they will! And it will ruin me as sure as I'm sitting here. I'll be laughing stock of the town. They will see it!"

We rose and touched him impressively on the shoulder.

"Well, we will admit that the people will see it; but then, you know, they will never think of it again."

His words came back to him like a flash, and he trembled so violently that his eyeballs fairly jumped; and he was such an object of commiseration that we promised to keep him. This little moral is drawn from above, which is applicable to the world over. Ask a man to advertise, and he will utter a great many wise sayings.

"Nana" seems likely to have a long run at the Ambigu. The public are captivated by the realism of the drama, and quite carried away by the small-pox death scene at the end. The opinion of the critics is happily shadowed forth by Vint of the Figaro, who winds up his notice of the play with the remark, "Now let us get re-accustomed."

Olivette, as played at the Bijou opera house, New York, is advancing largely and is a great success. Olivette, as played at the Grand theatre, is a failure, and Mr. Schofield has already decided that it shall not be continued one instant longer than the time required to get up a new piece.

Maurice Desnoes, the boy violinist at Koster and Hill's, New York, has created the most profound impression of surprise among musicians. He has mastered every concert-hall or theatre where he plays. Difficulties of the instrument that old players have given up in despair he has mastered.

Never were more perfect chromatic runs heard than he seems to play at ease. He is perfect, without a blotch.

SEPARATE-SCHOOL BOARD. At the monthly meeting of the separate school trustees last night the committee on school management presented its first report, stating that the Very Rev. Father Laurent had been chosen chairman for the current year, and recommending the payment of several small accounts. It also recommended that the salaries of the teachers should be increased by $50 each per annum, and that a teacher of young music should be engaged to teach in all the schools at a salary of $500 per annum. The clause relative to the salaries and the appointment of the music teacher were referred to the finance committee, and the other portions of the report were adopted.

Another Toronto reported that the daily average attendance at the schools during the past six months was 1602, and the total number on the register was 3008. On motion of Mr. Pelley, seconded by Mr. Burns, the committee on school management was instructed to purchase furniture and desks for St. Vincent street and St. Paul schools.

PERSONAL.

Sothern leaves all his property to his sister, Mrs. Cowan.

The three Canadian members of the Pacific railway syndicate were born in Scotland.

Mr. P. Broughton, general manager of the Great Western railway, arrived in the city yesterday.

At a meeting of the Quebec reform club resolutions were passed relative to the death of the late Lefebvre de St. J.

Conkling's Patronage. New York, Feb. 1.—The Sen. Washington special says that the senate judiciary committee will not consider any New York State appointments until February 14th. This is regarded as indicating that the committee will be disposed to let the nominations hang, at Conkling's request. Conkling has resumed amiable, if not friendly, relations with Bayard.

Want of good sense is the worst of poverty. Impudence dries the blood more than age or sorrow.

A good constitution is like a money bag—it will fill value is never known until it has been broken.

Mrs. Jessie Fremont has organized a class in history among the grow-up sons and daughters of poor settlers in Arizona.

Mary J. Holmes, the novelist, is in Paris. She will spend the winter in Italy and return to this country next autumn.

Teacher with reading class. Boy (reading).—"And as the sailor down the river," Teacher—"Why are ships called 'the river'?" Boy (proceedingly alive to the responsibilities of his sex).—"Because they need men to manage them."

Once while Dr. Samuel Johnson, the literary bear, was talking very learnedly of the company laughed. Thoroughly amused, Johnson turned on him and said:—"What provokes your ribaldry, sir? Have I said anything that you can understand? If I have I ask pardon from the rest of the company."

On one occasion, when the Queen of England visited a church near Bismarck, Baden, a fine dog belonging to the minister took a position upon the pulpit steps and remained quiet during the sermon. On a second visit the dog was conspicuous by his absence, the minister having been advised that his presence might annoy the Queen.

"Oh, no," she said, when told of it, "let him come as usual. I wish that everybody behaved as well as church as that dog."

HOTELS.

THE QUEEN'S HOTEL, TORONTO.

One of the largest and most comfortable hotels in the Dominion of Canada, elegantly furnished throughout; rooms en suite, with bath-rooms, attached on every floor. Hall, Owen Street, etc. MCGAVY & WINNETT, Proprietors.

WINDSOR HOTEL, TORONTO.

Newly furnished; modern conveniences; table d'hôte, excellent sample rooms; charges moderate. GEORGE BROWN, Proprietor.

CLERENDON HOTEL, TORONTO.

NO. 92 KING STREET WEST, OFFERS ROOMS APT. HOUSES. The Finest Liquors and Cigars. J. QUINN, Proprietor.

BRIGHTON TEMPERANCE HOTEL, TORONTO.

24 and 26 Bay Street, Toronto. First-class board; well furnished apartments; splendid drawing-room; all home comforts; good ventilation. Most Moderate Charges. E. SMITH, Proprietor.

RESTAURANTS &c.

THE ST. JAMES' RESTAURANT, 110 CHURCH STREET.

This new and elegantly furnished dining room is now open for business and will be found by the public to be a most desirable place. A first-class dinner, 35 cents. Meals will be served from 10 o'clock till 12. Special rates given to weekly boarders. J. H. BENTLEY, Proprietor.

WOODBINE HOTEL & RESTAURANT, 56 YONGE STREET.

Six floors above King street, Toronto, renovated and improved. LEM. FELCHER AND ROBT. OSBURN, Proprietors.

WOODBINE RESTAURANT, 110 CHURCH STREET.

HARRY RUDLAND, formerly Steward of the steamer Ontario, begs to direct the public that he has taken the Dining Room in connection with the Woodbine Hotel and will be pleased to be favored with a call from his old friends. Satisfaction guaranteed. Dining Room open on Sundays. Diners, Sec. Six Tickets for 61c.

F. MCGUIRE'S RESTAURANT, 56 YONGE STREET.

FIRST-CLASS DINNER, 25c. In Dining-room up stairs. BEST OYSTERS ALWAYS