St. Lawrence, will be able to enlighten the council on the cattle export trade. Mr. Galley from St. Thomas' ward will make a good man at the council board. The old members, Walker, Maughan Verrall are in by acclamation for St. Georges', and in St. Stephen's Denison and Barton, old members, and Follis Johnston are in by the same way.
In politics the council will stand : conservatives 22, reformers 14. There are only two lawyers elected, Defoe and Shaw. Twenty-one members of the 36 who sat in 1584 are re-elected. Of the 15 new men several sat in former councils. Mr. Lamb of St. David's was heard to say last night that he would polish up the council with his blacking.
